Alleluia, He is risen!

Twenty-three years ago my uncle Gary helped me understand the meaning of Easter. His church choir in Paducah, Kentucky had released a CD and Gary is the lead singer on the song entitled "He's Alive." I have had the opportunity to hear him sing it live. It is the voice of Peter remembering the events of Easter morning. Perhaps you've heard Don Francisco or Dolly Parton sing it. When I heard my uncle sing it, I knew instantly that what he was singing was true. I could hear it in his voice; I could see it in his eyes; I could feel it in his heart: "He's alive, He's alive, He's alive and I'm forgiven; heaven's gates are opened wide..."

Since that day when I felt Jesus resurrection in my very bones because I saw it in my uncle's life, I have come to appreciate more and more what it means for us to be A people of faith. Jesus' resurrection has released the very spirit of the Risen Christ into our hearts; this is the love that binds us together as one body in Christ. Since that day I have seen my uncle Gary suffer much...his granddaughter lives with severe disabilities; his wife suffered and died of cancer. Through it all I cannot look into his eyes without seeing the risen Christ. In part it is because his faith has never wavered. In part it is because of the passion with which he sings the song. But it is mostly because it is true: the spirit of the risen Christ lives in his heart; he is not afraid to let people see that truth of his soul.

Today we celebrate the empty tomb. We will spend these 50 days following Mary in search of the risen Christ. We will find the risen Christ in each other. Let us search our own hearts for the evidence; the glance of joy, the embrace of peace, the sacrificing love, the forgiveness we bear one another. Alleluia, He is risen! He's alive, He's alive, He's alive and I'm forgiven; heaven's gates are opened wide. The Risen Christ is alive in you, in me, in us, in all of creation.

Fr. Mitch

*May you find Christ here . . .
May you bring Christ to the world.*

PRAYER • PARTICIPATION • GENEROSITY

S T E W A R D S H I P

"He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." (Acts 10:38)

On this Easter Sunday, allow Jesus to fill your mind, body and soul. Pray for guidance on how to live your life, open your heart to those in need and give thanks to God for all that He has given you.

What is a Life in the Spirit Seminar Series?

The teaching content of a seminar focuses on the four-part Gospel message of:

- God's loving plan for us and for the whole world,
- our need for His intervention in our lives and in the world,
- the essential roles of Jesus as our Lord and Savior, and the Holy Spirit, and
- our "yes" to the Holy Spirit to empower our conversion into witnesses of Jesus.

The Gospel is presented over the first four weeks of a seminar. After presentations the participants gather into small groups to "break apart" the message and to share in the power and insight promised whenever two or more gather in the name of Jesus.

The fifth week of a seminar is for praying, waiting, and asking for the gift of the Holy Spirit, just as Mary and the disciples did at the command of Jesus after his Ascension. You are my witnesses. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high. (Luke 24:48-49)

The final two weeks of a Life in the Spirit Seminar are about growth and transformation in Christ. They help participants make the Holy Spirit's gifts and graces part of their lives, their communities, their places in the Church, and their witness to the world. They make clear that charisms are not personal possessions, but rather grace to build the Body of Christ. The final week we will gather for a Mass of Thanksgiving in church.

At last night’s Easter Vigil, 15 people received the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Those who were to be baptized were clothed in brown gowns. The congregation gathered outside the entrance of the church around the new Easter candle as it was blessed and lit from the new fire. Then all processed in, each lighting his/her candle from the new Easter flame. After the dramatic readings of God’s communication to mankind, those to be baptized came to be washed in the newly-blessed baptismal water, entered in white garments and receive their personal Easter candle and joined our Candidates on the alter to be confirmed.

Please join us in celebrating our newest Catholic family members, Christine Durbin, Elizabeth Olano, Elizabeth Sluhan, Sarah Summers, Jim Bauman, Kim Burton, Karen Craig, Scott Dillon, Brianne Disney, Theresa Droegkamp, Alexandria Hoffman, Angie Mazzola, Gayle, Whitehead, Jeff Winemiller, and Don Wilson.

SACRED CONVERSATIONS ON RACE

Archbishop Carlson has been working to build bridges in race relations. Our next Sacred Conversations on Race event, will take place at CPPS Motherhouse third floor Conference Room on Mar 29, 7:00pm.

The experience will be led by two trained facilitators, Rev. Shaun Jones and Pastor Carrie McElfresh. This session will be interactive, nonjudgmental and respectful of your own experience and understandings. Aligned with Pope Francis' call for inclusiveness, this will be a starting point for all of us. Fact and research yet prayerful, this will help in our own way of thinking and build empathy and understanding for us as God's people. Life, Peace, and Restorative Justice

*Following the Risen Christ,
Practice the Gospel:
(John 20: 1-18)*

Reflection Questions:

- What does the resurrection of Jesus mean in light of Gandhian/Kingian nonviolence?
- How do we practice resurrection, get ready for resurrection, and act as if we are headed toward resurrection?
- How does the risen, nonviolent Jesus send you forth to tell others about his resurrection?
- Do you believe in resurrection, in the resurrection of Jesus? If so, then how might that faith shape your life, disarm you, rid you of fear, and empower you to work for positive social change?

Prayer

God of Peace, thank you for raising the nonviolent Jesus from the dead. Thank you for affirming his peacemaking life of active nonviolence. Thank you for letting him come back to us in a spirit of peace and forgiveness. Help us to be people of resurrection, people of peace and nonviolence, who carry on the mission of the risen, nonviolent Jesus. Take away our fear. Give us the grace to know that, as his nonviolent followers, our survival is guaranteed, that we are headed toward the new life of your kingdom of peace, that eternity starts today. Help us to non-cooperate with death and the culture of death, that from now on, we may live life to the full and seek the fullness of life for every human being and all creatures. Help us to welcome the social, economic, and political implications of resurrection, the coming of your reign of peace, justice and nonviolence. Amen

Faith in Action

- Take some personal action to practice nonviolence, letting go of your fears, and showing unconditional love and peace. Practice living in the presence of the risen Jesus.
- Advocate publicly for the politics of resurrection, for the transformation of the culture of death. Join a peace vigil against war and weapons of mass destruction as a witness for resurrection.
- Attend Sacred Conversations, March 29, 7pm Motherhouse to talk about your experience of race and culture. Go announce the resurrection, in terms of Gospel nonviolence, to someone. Discuss your belief with them, and notice how they respond, and how you react.
- Examine your fears. List what you are afraid of and, in light of the resurrection, try to let go of them.

Easter Sunday, March 27, 2016

Dear Faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Louis,

I offer to you my deepest greetings of joy and peace on the Solemnity of the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ—Happy Easter!

Easter is to the Church year what Sunday is to each week—a highlight of rest and rejoicing. Its vivid symbols of fire, water and exultant song remind us that Christ has overcome sin and death. Because of that we know, in the words of Pope Francis, that when everything is said and done, we are infinitely loved by God.

Let us pray that the light of Christ will shine in our hearts this Easter, and reach out to others through us. We know that our Savior lives. Let us share with others the joy of knowing that they are loved by God!

I ask that you keep in mind that the collection for Regina Cleri, the residence for our retired priests, is today. You know how generously the retired priest served you, and how you counted on them. Now, in turn, they count on you, and are grateful for your generous support and prayers.

I pray these are days of blessing for you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis
