Dear Assumption Parish Family,

I am happy to announce Mrs. Laurie Zaleuke will be the next principal of Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Elementary School.

Please join me in welcoming her to our parish family. She is excited to continue the great work Mrs. Callier has done to position Assumption School as one of the best schools in the region. Mrs. Zaleuke is currently the assistant principal of Discovery Ridge Elementary School, in the Wentzville School District.

As you come to meet Mrs. Zaleuke, and to know her, you will discover her love for our children, her passion for education and her confidence in the capacity of every child to learn. I look forward to working with her and with our outstanding faculty and staff to grow and deepen our mission of Learning, Loving and Living Christ.

God bless you during this most holy season of Easter.

Fr. Mitch

*May you find Christ here . . .
May you bring Christ to the world.*

A beautiful source of our evangelization occurs via our Livestream of the triduum and associated “clicks”. We had the following viewers:

Holy Thursday - 18
Good Friday - 16

Holy Saturday - 41
Easter Sunday 38

The 113 visits generated over 1,000 page views... which means the resources of our website and Facebook profile were being explored. One comment from our Holy Saturday Vigil, "I loved every minute of it."

Next Sunday, April 10th. is St. Vincent De Paul food Sunday. At this time the pantry is in need of the following items: instant mashed potatoes, tuna helpers, chicken helpers, granulated sugar, Kool-Aid, micro-wave popcorn, facial tissues, and paper towels. Grocery store gift cards are always welcome. Thank you for your continued support.

He Is Risen - Spread the Message and Help Youth Ministry

The true meaning of Easter is Christ. Help us to encourage all Christians to remember the true meaning of the season. "He Is Risen" Car Magnets can be purchased for $5 from one of our World Youth Day Participants or call/email Cathy Pescarino at abvmyouth@gmail.com or 636.240.3721 x243.

Special thanks to our own Knights of Columbus who have donated these for us to sell!!!

PRAYER • PARTICIPATION • GENEROSITY

S T E W A R D S H I P

“Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’”

JOHN 20:21

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world to share His peace and Good News, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be grateful and generous. We should look for opportunities to share His peace with our brothers and sisters not only within our local parish boundaries, but outside of them as well. In giving, you will receive the peace of Christ.

What is a Life in the Spirit Seminar Series?

The teaching content of a seminar focuses on the four-part Gospel message of:

- God's loving plan for us and for the whole world,
- our need for His intervention in our lives and in the world,
- the essential roles of Jesus as our Lord and Savior, and the Holy Spirit, and
- our "yes" to the Holy Spirit to empower our conversion into witnesses of Jesus.

The Gospel is presented over the first four weeks of a seminar. After presentations the participants gather into small groups to "break apart" the message and to share in the power and insight promised whenever two or more gather in the name of Jesus.

The fifth week of a seminar is for praying, waiting, and asking for the gift of the Holy Spirit, just as Mary and the disciples did at the command of Jesus after his Ascension. You are my witnesses. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high. (Luke 24:48-49)

The final two weeks of a Life in the Spirit Seminar are about growth and transformation in Christ. They help participants make the Holy Spirit's gifts and graces part of their lives, their communities, their places in the Church, and their witness to the world. They make clear that charisms are not personal possessions, but rather grace to build the Body of Christ. The final week we will gather for a Mass of Thanksgiving in church.

This weekend we will gather the group who were baptized and received into full communion with us on Holy Saturday evening. The baptized will now be called neophytes. We will explore the meaning of Mystagogy, the fourth stage in our RCIA process. The main focus today however is to lead them into a deeper understanding of the sacraments they have received.

The Church's vision of the Easter season, expressed in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is that the whole community should grow in faith during this time, together with the elect, now called neophytes, and candidates. The community is called to walk with the neophytes and deepen their own faith in the paschal mystery – the death and resurrection of Jesus – along with the neophytes.

The main setting for Mystagogy is the Sunday Masses of the Easter season. Through the Word, proclaimed and preached, and the Eucharist, celebrated and shared, we come to a better grasp of what new life in Christ is all about. The visible presence of the neophytes in the midst of the assembly (wearing of white robes) and the renewal of their baptismal promises at Easter remind the faithful of the new life of baptism that they themselves possess.

We will share what the Easter Vigil means and their long journey towards it.

On this Divine Mercy Sunday we pray in our homes and with our parish community Pope Francis' Prayer for the Jubilee Year of Mercy

Jesus,

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified.

You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.

Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from You; and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, and through You who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

Amen.

Indeed, the Risen Lord is only truly glorified when we manifest mercy and forgiveness. Let us Be One with our God and all God's People.

Life, Peace, and Restorative Justice

Second Sunday of Easter:
John 20:19-29

In these two resurrection appearances to his disciples, the nonviolent Jesus shows us how to live as people of peace, nonviolence, and resurrection from now on.

The first thing the risen Jesus says to his disciples is, "Peace be with you." Then he repeats it to them again as he shows him his wounds, "Peace be with you." That is the gift of the risen Jesus to us – the gift of peace, and it comes with the wounds from our participation in the non-violent struggle for justice.

As his followers, as people of resurrection life, we welcome his peace and rejoice in his risen presence. Despite the devastation of the world's wars and violence, we pledge to work for a new world of peace every day for the rest of our lives – and accept the possibility that we, too, will be wounded from the struggle.

"I send you," the risen Jesus says to us. We go forth to live as he did, to practice nonviolence, to resist injustice, and to proclaim God's kingdom of peace and justice here on earth. From now on, we are his apostles of nonviolence, justice, and peace.

Then, he breathes on them and gives them the Holy Spirit. So we breathe in his Holy Spirit of peace and "conspire" with Jesus in this new life of love. From now on, too, we try to live and breathe in the peace of the risen Christ.

And we return regularly to our breath throughout our day to center ourselves in the present moment of resurrection peace. By living and breathing in his Holy Spirit, we live mindfully in the present moment, and go through life fully alert, peaceful and nonviolent. Jesus commands forgiveness and community.

In the next appearance, he tells Thomas to put his finger in his wounds and believe. Thomas answers, "My Lord and my God!" But what you may not know is that at the end of the first century, the Roman emperor announced that he was to be addressed as "My Lord and my God." If you refused, or called someone else by this phrase, you were to be immediately executed. When Thomas addresses Jesus as "My Lord and my God," he also resists the Roman Empire and can expect immediate martyrdom. By the time of John's Gospel, many thousands of Christians were being killed by the Roman Empire. In this resurrection account, Jesus affirms their faith and encourages them and us to live in the same faith, even to give our lives nonviolently in faith.

Reflection: Do I exhale a Spirit of peace when I speak and in how I act?

Prayer: God of Peace, thank you for the risen Jesus' gift of peace. Give us the grace to live as holy peacemakers.

Action: Decide whom or what you address as "my Lord and my God," and unpack the political implications of your discipleship to the risen Jesus.

Not Getting the Parish E-News? Check your spam!

Nearly 3,000 parishioners are signed up for our Parish News electronic email blast. But, our records show that only about 30% open the E-Blast when it goes out a few times each month.

Not getting the E-blast?

Check the Spam and other sub-folders in your email account. Look for messages from Constant Contact that have "Assumption Parish News" in the subject line. Because E-News blasts get sent to many people at one time, email providers categorize them in differently: Gmail and Yahoo!Mail users may need to look in their Social, Updates, and/or Promotions folders.

Not Signed-up for the E-Blast?

No problem – just go to the home page of our website and click the button that says "Register for Email News" on the lower right side of the page.

There is no cost and this is the best way to stay connected to the latest news and events in the Parish. It's also the fastest way we can get info to you and your family in the event of parish emergencies, schedule changes, and special announcements!
