ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL
BUILD MY CHURCH

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

This year's theme, The Courage to Love, echoes Pope Francis' call for us to receive and give Christ's mercy. Mercy, our Holy Father says, is a "wellspring of joy, serenity and peace."

While it might be more comfortable to turn away from suffering and hardship, we are not called to be comfortable. As Catholics, we are called to be courageous – to have the courage to love – to "touch the suffering flesh of Christ."

The Annual Catholic Appeal is one important way to respond to this bold invitation. Your gift to the Appeal will extend Christ's mercy throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis – in our parishes, schools and ministries.

Thank you for your generous support of the Annual Catholic Appeal in the past. Your generosity provides for many other channels of grace in the community. Please make a gift to this year's Appeal at our parish in the coming weeks.

Consider the great gift of mercy in your life and how you might help to Build the Church – a place of joy, serenity and peace – with a generous response to the Annual Catholic Appeal.

Stop by the tables on the following weekends to complete your pledge card.

Spring Choral Concert

The Concert Arts Association invites you to join them for their 44th season of musical excitement on Sunday, April 24th at 3:00pm, as the Choral Arts Singers present their SPRING CONCERT here at Assumption Parish in the CHAPEL. Come and enjoy an afternoon of musical variety we call “The Song and The Dance”. Admission is free, but donations are welcome to help the Concert Arts Association continue their efforts of bringing musical enjoyment to our community. Come one, come all, for an afternoon of delightful entertainment. For additional information on the concert or if interested in joining the Choral Arts Singers, contact Bonnie Lang at 636-887-2899.

Have You Been Confirmed?

If you have received the sacrament of First Communion but have not yet received Confirmation call Fr. Mitch at 636-240-3721, ext. 242 and you can have a conversation with him to determine eligibility. Confirmation is taking place on Pentecost Sunday.

Looking for a way to make a difference?

Catholic Charities has a new advocacy and policy web page: <https://catholiccharitiesusa.org/advocacy-and-policy>

Advocacy & Policy

Not everyone who needs help has the ability to ask, which is why giving a voice to the voiceless has been a key part of our mission from the very start. It's our hope that through strategic advocacy — informed by the work of our member agencies — the stories of those most affected by poverty can become the very tools we use to eradicate it.

Our Work

We help governments better understand poverty's impact on the American economy and family, and educate policymakers on the ways people in need are being served by their local Catholic Charities agencies. We also work to engage those most affected by governmental decisions in sharing their experiences, which in turn helps to improve our policies.

Advocacy Efforts

Ending poverty isn't just a question of money — a family's well-being should be evaluated by factors more holistic than merely its gross monthly income. That's why we focus our advocacy efforts on the five areas that we believe must be addressed to sustainably end poverty, with special concern for the most vulnerable groups in our society.

How You Can Help

Participation in our political process is a privilege and responsibility made even more precious by the realization that your voice could be the only one speaking for millions without a voice of their own.

We rely on supporters like you to help amplify our positions and to carry our messages to policymakers and other people with influence by signing petitions, writing to elected officials, and learning more about our issues.

*May you find Christ here . . .
May you bring Christ to the world.*

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is comprised of the Elect, Candidates, the Catechetical Team, Sponsors, family members and friends. Here are comments from this year's RCIA:

- The RCIA process at Assumption has deepened my faith and taught me so much about my call to become a Catholic. The Easter Vigil was so beautiful, and personal. I will treasure that night of my life always.
- I wasn't nervous, just super-excited – I had waited for this for forever!
- The night made me realize how lucky I am to be able to choose my faith. The community here accepts and supports me just as I am. Incredibly excited to know the same thing was happening all over the world at the same time.
- The night was different than I had expected. Very moving ceremony – almost started crying when my son was baptized – it made me feel very connected to the community.
- I got chills watching the light move through the church – and I started tingling when Missy started singing. The best part of the night was watching people's faces light up as the candles were lit.
- It never gets old – it's a blessing to see this happen every year and knowing I had something to do with it.
- The night is a visible sign of Christ living in us.
- Hearing the Litany of the Saints – it's a feeling that there's something out there greater than ourselves – I could feel them there.
- This was a culmination of a really long journey – I felt so proud of everybody and how far they had come.
- The night reminded me of my own baptism and the need to make the commitment everyday to live my faith.
- Baptism is a sign of the change that has already taken place in their hearts.
- Baptism makes us not only a child of God, but brothers and sisters – we are all part of the same community.
- I felt a sense of commitment the entire night. I've felt like a part of the community since the very first time we went up on the altar and everyone raised their hands to bless us.
- The Eucharist gave me a sense of peace that I've never experienced in other churches.
- The Eucharist was the final piece of the puzzle for me. I felt really calm and in touch with everything.
- My first thought in receiving Communion was, "don't mess up!" But then I felt a sense of belonging to the community and being a part of the body of Christ.
- Saying what we believed in from the pulpit – it was powerful; If you have faith, you have to share that with others and show it to the world.
- I found the R.C.I.A program is awesome! It has really helped me with my faith journey and not to mention I now have a ton of people I can now call friends! The team members and sponsors are amazing and without them the program would not be possible. All of their countless hours volunteering their time to spend with us is remarkable. The Easter Vigil was fantastic! I felt HIM the entire time I was there. This experience will forever be something that I will truly remember and hold dear to my heart. The next day, I still had a huge smile on my face.
- I was a sponsor and felt blessed to think I was able to participate in such an awesome experience.
- Speaking as a sponsor the RCIA path is unbelievable, refreshing and an experience, in life, that nothing compares to. While I look forward to each and every week the best part of RCIA, for me, is the climax to the 7 months of in depth study and reflection into Jesus and his teachings, with the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday evening. Standing on the altar and watching the individuals being baptized, confirmed and receiving Holy Eucharist, I can see and feel the cleansing of sin and the Holy Spirit coming down upon each and every one of them. It's a wonderful feeling to know that I assisted another person down their path of learning about and finding Jesus in their hearts.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Merciful like the Father, is the “motto” of this Holy Year. In mercy, we find proof of how God loves us. He gives his entire self, always, freely, asking nothing in return. He comes to our aid whenever we call upon him. What a beautiful thing that the Church begins her daily prayer with the words, “O God, come to my assistance. O Lord, make haste to help me” (Pss 70:2)! The assistance we ask for is already the first step of God’s mercy toward us. He comes to assist us in our weakness. And his help consists in helping us accept his presence and closeness to us. Day after day, touched by his compassion, we also can become compassionate towards others.

Mercy

In this Holy Year, we look forward to the experience of opening our hearts to those living on the outermost fringes of society: fringes which modern society itself creates. How many uncertain and painful situations there are in the world today! How many are the wounds borne by the flesh of those who have no voice because their cry is muffled and drowned out by the indifference of the rich! During this Jubilee, the Church will be called even more to heal these wounds, to assuage them with the oil of consolation, to bind them with mercy and cure them with solidarity and vigilant care. Let us not fall into humiliating indifference or a monotonous routine that prevents us from discovering what is new! Let us ward off destructive cynicism! Let us open our eyes and see the misery of the world, the wounds of our brothers and sisters who are denied their dignity, and let us recognize that we are compelled to heed their cry for help! May we reach out to them and support them so they can feel the warmth of our presence, our friendship, and our fraternity! May their cry become our own, and together may we break down the barriers of indifference that too often reign supreme and mask our hypocrisy and egoism!

It is my burning desire that, during this Jubilee, the Christian people may reflect on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. It will be a way to reawaken our conscience, too often grown dull in the face of poverty. And let us enter more deeply into the heart of the Gospel where the poor have a special experience of God’s mercy. Jesus introduces us to these works of mercy in his preaching so that we can know whether or not we are living as his disciples. — 14-15 Misericordiae Vultus

Life, Peace, and Restorative Justice

Earth Day is April 22nd, 2016 This year's Theme — Trees for the Earth - Let's get planting!

Over the next five years, as Earth Day moves closer to its 50th anniversary, and Earth Day Network is calling on you to help achieve one of its most ambitious goals yet — planting 7.8 billion trees, starting now.

Trees will be the first of five major goals being undertaking in honor of the five-year countdown to the 50th anniversary. On their own and together, these initiatives will make a significant and measurable impact on the Earth and will serve as the foundation of a cleaner, healthier and more sustainable planet for all.

Why Trees? Trees help combat climate change.

They absorb excess and harmful CO2 from our atmosphere. In fact, in a single year, an acre of mature trees absorbs the same amount of CO2 produced by driving the average car 26,000 miles.

Trees help us breathe clean air.

Trees absorb odors and pollutant gases (nitrogen oxides, ammonia, sulfur dioxide and ozone) and filter particulates out of the air by trapping them on their leaves and bark.

Trees help communities.

Trees help communities achieve long-term economic and environmental sustainability and provide food, energy and income.

Plant a tree. Make a donation. Activate your friends and social networks.

Catholic Social Thought and the Environment

“We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the plant, living our faith in relationship with all of God’s creation”. (USCCB, Sharing Catholic Social Teaching: Challenges and Directions, Pub. No. 7-085)

“Everything is connected. Concern for the environment thus needs to be joined to a sincere love for our fellow human beings and an unwavering commitment to resolving the problems of society.” (Pope Francis, Laudato Si', 91).

Reflection Questions

What is your relationship with God’s creation? What are three small lifestyle changes that you can make to protect “our common home”?

Prayer

Father, we praise you with all your creatures.
Son of God, through you all things were made and you became part of this earth. Praise be to you!
Holy Spirit, you dwell in our hearts and inspire us to do what is good. Praise be to you!
Triune God, the poor of the earth are crying out. Help us to protect all life and prepare a better future. Praise be to you.

Amen

Sacristan Ministry

“Sacristans are the host, the server, and the guest, for the banquet of the Eucharistic Celebration, prepared so that our parish community may experience Christ’s love and bring Christ to the world.”

The Sacristan Ministry wants to provide an opportunity to all parishioners to partake in this most awesome, spiritually rewarding experience. We would love for you to join us in serving our community, most especially as Sacristan for the 10:00 and Noon Mass and as Sacristan for the Sacrament of Baptism on the second and fourth Sundays of the month. One-on-One individualized training is provided with documented notes for continued support. For information please call Vicki Briggs at 314.518.4048 or email at
