Alleluia! He is risen as he said. Our hearts long for this Easter joy. We can trust it. We believe deeply that Christ's resurrection life will be our eternal life. Yet we, too, are afraid. We have many questions: Who will roll the stone away from our broken hearts? Where have they taken the Lord? What does all this mean?

Each person we encounter in the scenes of the empty tomb brings a different energy. Peter and John are racing; John is faster, but then he hesitates; Peter rushes in, but then he hesitates; John leans in, sees and believes, but still does not understand. Mary Magdalene, Mary, the mother of James and Salome enter the empty tomb and are utterly amazed. And what of Mary, the mother of Jesus and our mother? She may have been among the "others who saw Jesus", but we do not meet her again until Pentecost.

These 50 days of Easter are not one extended party. Just as for our Catechumens and newly Confirmed, so, too, for us, these 50 days are an opportunity to understand "that he had to rise from the dead." Each alleluia is a proclamation of the whole mystery. Each singing of praise to God connects ever more deeply with the longing in our hearts to know resurrection life. And even as our faith in the resurrection deepens, we are continually reminded that Jesus is the crucified one who is raised from the dead. Our confidence in resurrection life is connected to the crucified one who also dwells in our hearts.

Mary remains for us the best example of a true disciple. She has experienced more intimately than anyone the life, death and resurrection of her son. In every moment of her journey she stands as witness to the paschal mystery. Her face in Michelangelo's "Pieta" reveals the depths of sorrow and the greatest hope for resurrection life. She looks upon us with the same faith, hope and love as she has for her son, our Christ and Savior. Let us walk these 50 days with Mary, learning more and more each day about her Risen Son.

- Fr Mitch

May you find Christ here... may you bring Christ to the world.

"Yesterday I received a phone call from someone who volunteers with the transportation ministry at church. I was asked if I could take someone to the doctor. I hadn't done it before, but it felt so good to get out and do something for someone else. It felt good to contribute."

Baptismal Preparation Class

All parents are required to participate in a class of Pre-Baptismal instruction before having their child/children baptized at Assumption. For expectant parents it is often better to attend this class before baby is born.

Call the Parish Office at 240.3721 to schedule a class.

Assumption School's Spring Auction is coming on May 2 and we are looking for donations of all kinds! Also, if you would like to volunteer to help with the auction during the days leading up, the setup or work the night of the auction, we welcome your assistance.

PRAYER • PARTICIPATION • GENEROSITY

S T E W A R D S H I P

Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth." - Colossians 3:2

On this day we thank God for His Son, Jesus, who died and rose for us. We celebrate and sing "Alleluia." Let's try to keep the joy of this Easter season in our hearts throughout the year! Pray daily and listen for God's response on how we should use our gifts to fulfill His plan.

A Letter From the Archbishop

Dear Faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, I offer to you my deepest greetings of joy and peace on the Solemnity of the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ – Happy Easter!

Easter is to the Church year what Sunday is to each week – a highlight of rest and rejoicing. Its vivid symbols of fire, water and exultant song remind us that Christ has overcome sin and death. Because of that we know, in the words of Pope Francis, that when everything is said and done, we are infinitely loved by God.

Let us pray that the light of Christ will shine in our hearts this Easter, and reach out to others through us. We know that our Savior lives. Let us share with others the joy of knowing that they are loved by God!

I ask that you keep in mind that the collection for Regina Cleri, the residence for our retired priests, is today. You know how generously the retired priests served you, and how you counted on them. Now, in turn, they count on you, and are grateful for your generous support and prayers.

I pray these are days of blessing for you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis

The Cry of the Earth

The Universal Destination of the Goods of the Earth

God, the Creator, gave the earth to the whole human race. Each person is therefore entitled to have access to what he or she needs in order to live and develop.

Pope Paul VI emphasized this truth when he reminded us that:

God intended the earth and everything in it for the use of all human beings and peoples.

For Personal Reflection: Am I using all the earth’s resources responsibly, respectfully, and conservatively? How might making some modifications to my habits give me new life?

In the words of the Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church:

‘The climate is a good that must be protected and reminds consumers and those engaged in industrial activity to develop a greater sense of responsibility for their behavior’ (n. 470). Governments, industry and individuals have a responsibility to promote and protect the environment. ‘God gave the earth to the whole human race for the sustenance of all its members, without excluding or favoring anyone. This is the foundation of the universal destination of the earth’s goods’ (n. 171).

For your Prayer:

- Colossians 1:16-17 – ‘For by him all things were created.’
- John 1:3 – ‘Through him all things were made.’
- Isaiah 43:20-21 – ‘The wild animals honor me.’
- Job 12:7-10 – ‘Speak to the earth and it will teach you.’
- Psalm 104– ‘Send forth your Spirit O Lord and renew the face of the earth.’
- Psalm 64 – ‘In you creation finds its joy.’

Please be intentional and remember to reuse, repurpose, and recycle.

Assumption's Growing Project

A GIFT FOR YOU

On the occasion of (name and celebration):

(Birthday, Anniversary, Graduation, Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, Wedding, Christmas, Easter, Ordination, or Other Celebratory Event.)

a donation has been made to the Growing Project for the relief of chronic global hunger and poverty.

Because you live, I pray that others might also live!

Signature: _____

Assumption's Growing Project helps us to look upon the flesh of Jesus embodied in our brothers and sisters in starving parts of Africa, as well as the unjust social structures that lead to perpetual cycles of poverty.

As we were preparing for the dedication of Assumption church in February, 2005, we knew that even as we were building a home for all who would come here to worship, it was important that we find a way to reach out generously to the poor on a global level.

The Growing Project works like this... Catholic Relief Services and Foods Resource Bank identify some of the poorest communities in the world and work with them to decide what would be needed for them to grow their own food. Individuals donate financially to the project and it is then sent to our farming partners. The farmers use this money to purchase seed, fuel, fertilizer, etc. Farmers also donate their land, time, and hard work. They then sell their crops and send the money to CRS/FRB for implementation of a project that we help to choose. We maintain this urban and rural community partnership because after crops are sold, our money has typically quadrupled! And 100% of all the proceeds you donate go directly to the project.

It is important that we give a hand up, not a hand out. It is important that the poor are given education to grow the crops that will flourish on their land, and that it meet the nutritional needs of their communities. We pray this will ultimately lead to a sense of dignity in providing for their families.

If you would like to donate on behalf of this effort, please send a check made out to Assumption Parish with Growing Project written on the memo line. If you would like to purchase a gift card for a loved one, please contact Sarah Beams, Director of Lay Pastoral Ministry at 636-240-3712.

Assumption Parish – 403 N Main Street – O'Fallon, Mo 63366

The RCIA Journey

At our Easter Vigil, 9 Adults received Sacraments and were fully initiated into the Catholic Church, and 7 children were Baptized. The congregation gathered outside the entrance of the church around the Easter Fire and the new Paschal candle was blessed, lit, and brought into the Sanctuary. Then all passed this same fire, one to another, each lighting his/her candle from the new Easter flame. After the dramatic readings of God's communication to mankind, those to be baptized came to be washed in the newly-blessed baptismal water. They plunged into their Baptism clothed in brown gowns, then emerged to put on their white garments. Each received their personal Easter candle and joined our Candidates on the altar to be confirmed. Please join us in celebrating our newest Catholic family members. Be sure to invite them to join in parish activities and help them feel at home in Assumption Parish.
