"I was raised in two different religions, neither Catholic, but I never really went to church. My wife is Catholic but didn't attend often. After we were married, she began coming to Assumption and loved it. I started coming with her and now know this is where I belong. I feel this is where God is calling me. I had always felt like I was being 'preached at', and here, I feel like I am being 'talked with'".

Baptismal Preparation Class

All parents are required to participate in a class of Pre-Baptismal instruction before having their child/children baptized at Assumption. For expectant parents it is often better to attend this class before baby is born. Call the Parish Office at 240.3721 to schedule a class.

STEWARDSHIP

Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." - Matthew 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second.

Life, Peace and Justice: Living the Gospel of Joy

Respect Life Month – Self Care

We hear in our gospel this weekend: “Give to God what belongs to God.” Respect Life Month is an opportunity to reflect on that one line, to slow down and consider all that belongs to God: the life of all that is living, the lives of those waiting to be born, the beauty and bounty of creation, our labor, our recreation, our relationships, our solitude, our death, our resurrection... all these belong to God and have been given to us as gift. They have been entrusted to us through a covenant of ineffable love. Perhaps the Psalmist who wrote the lyrics for psalm 116 was contemplating this when writing “How can I make a return to the Lord?” How do we give to God what belongs to God?

Throughout the Bible (Psalms, Hebrews, Hosea, Matthew, etc.) it is made clear that God does not desire or ask for burnt offerings, self-desecration, or empty gestures. Instead, God desires our mercy, our humility, our gentleness, our love, our sacrifices made in faith. We give to God when we forgive others, and when we allow ourselves to be forgiven. We give to God when we reach out to the world through our support of projects like the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the Growing Project, the Fair Trade market. We give to God when we stand in the cold and the rain, amid jeers and anger, as we promote the life and sacred dignity of the unborn and their parents. We give to God when we teach our children to love and pray for others, even those who wish us harm. We give to God when we pause in thanksgiving to love our own lives and the life of the creation pulsing around us.

Giving back to God will be a tremendous challenge if we do not care for ourselves. In recent months, our eyes, ears, and hearts have been inundated with stories of misery and terror: the growing scourge of Ebola, atrocities in the Holy Land and at the hands of groups like ISIS, more than 200 school girls still missing in Nigeria since April, monsoons in India, devastating droughts in California, violence in streets of our own metro community, etc. While trying to do the daily, holy work of remaining faithful to a job and/or vocation, keeping up with bills and the laundry, tending to children, maintaining the lawn, nurturing relationships, and on and on and on – it is easy to lose oneself. While giving to God what is God’s may require a self-emptying, it does not require us to be self-nullifying or self-destructive.

Self-Care is an essential component to respecting life around us. What we put into our bodies, how we care for and nourish our bodies, how we balance our work with rest, what we do for recreation, how we pray...all of these are a part of our self-care. Coming out of our Stewardship renewal, we reflected on tithe 10% of our income as an investment in the life of this community. Our time is an equally valuable asset (perhaps more so). When we receive a 24-hour day, how often do we tithe 10%... 2.4 hours daily... for prayer, for the work of centering and grounding ourselves? Have we ever made going on an annual retreat a priority? Are we getting enough movement in our day? How much of our precious life is handed over to computer screen, TV screens, phone screens? Much like looking into the eyes of someone we love, we give to God when we look into God – really see the faces of those around us, really see creation, really see our own reflection in a mirror – really see all these things of God and love them... love them for their beauty, as well as their imperfections.

We will free ourselves to respect life when we learn to respect the life we have been given. The Fall Festival is a wonderful opportunity for us to step out and enjoy life with others. Consider giving yourself that gift this weekend. Let’s support each other in caring for ourselves and reawakening to the life around us and within us... respecting the life of God flowing through us and all creation.

Prayer throughout October: God of LIFE, mold us, fashion us into Your image and help us to see Your likeness in all LIFE around us, that we may reverence life in all its forms—at every stage of its existence. Amen.

Action:

- 1) Consider attending the annual Respect Life Convention, Oct. 26, visit here for details: <http://archstl.org/respectlife/page/annual-respect-life-convention> or 2) attend the Vitae Foundation night, Oct. 20; visit here for details: <http://www.vitaefoundation.org/events> or 3) invite a friend to the Fall Festival to share the life of this community or 4) visit the Prayer & Meditation page of our website (under Resources) and investigate the retreat centers – see if there’s a retreat you can attend in the coming year 5) this week try to add one self-care component (e.g. spending at least 10 minutes each day quietly focusing only on your breathing) and subtracting one negative component (e.g. decreasing amount of time spent in front of TV or computer)

Stewardship Thank You and Update

We bow our heads in gratitude for each other! Many have recognized that we proclaim our existence and all its good through prayer and service, and prayer and gratitude, and prayer and on-going study. Our attentive response to this community thunders through the universe as tribute to the presence of God with us even now.

Thank you for noticing the need among us and for your generous response! We have honored those who have gone before us by continuing their work, and our faith illuminates the way for all who will ever come here.

An update on our Stewardship efforts... many have turned in their time and talent forms and all that data will be entered into our data base by the end of this week. Ministry Coordinators will then be contacted for an annual meeting with the pastoral staff, inviting their feedback and planning for the future. At this time, they will be receiving new volunteer lists, training, and setting goals for the future.

We also recognize that, for some, it may not have been the time to make a year-long commitment. Whenever the time is right, please turn in your time and talent form with your ministry choices. We are always in need of your gifts. And, if you, your family, or someone you know is in need of our help, please do not hesitate to call the parish office. Receiving the gifts that others have to offer is sometimes just what God is asking of us. Thank you and God Bless You and Your Families!

RCIA - Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

For several weeks the RCIA team and our sponsors have been meeting with inquirers into the Catholic faith. We have talked about "Who is God?", "Where do you find God?", and "What brought you to Assumption?" Our inquirers have shared their stories, and all have said they want to know more about the Catholic faith and want to build a closer relationship with Jesus Christ.

Next Sunday at all of our masses, we will celebrate a combined Rite of Welcome and Acceptance. For those who have not been baptized, they are being Accepted into the order of Catechumens and will no longer be inquirers, but Catechumens. (The word "catechumen" means, "one who is being taught". In the early Church, catechumens were those who had not been initiated into the sacred mysteries, but were undergoing a course of preparation.)

For those who have already been baptized in another faith tradition, they will be Welcomed to our faith community and will no longer be inquirers, but Candidates. This combined Rite marks the end of the Period of Inquiry and the beginning of the Period of the Catechumenate.

As part of the Rite of Welcome and Acceptance next Sunday, our faith community of Assumption will be asked if we are ready to accept these Candidates and Catechumens into our midst and aid them along their way by our example and encouragement. Please answer with a loud, "We are!" and continue to pray for and welcome these newest members of our faith community as they continue their journey.

Feast of All Saints

This year, November 1, the Feast of All Saints falls on a Saturday. Therefore the holyday obligation is suspended. Regularly scheduled Saturday Mass will be celebrated at 9:00am at the Motherhouse Chapel on November 1.

Have Questions about the End of Life?

An area of focus for Respect Life Month is the planning and dignity that goes into our end of life decisions. Our highway 70 neighbors at All Saints (St Peters) are offering a free event Sunday, October 26, at All Saints Parish Center, at 2:00pm.

We can choose how we prepare ourselves, and those we love, for our transition from life though death to resurrection. That we will die is not an option, but how we prepare and plan can be an important part of understanding and accepting God's Plan for us.

Fr. Don Wester, pastor, will present on Church teachings:

Spiritual - God's Plan that is to be anticipated and accepted as a gift.

Moral /Ethical – what choices might we be called upon to make.

Relational – sharing our thoughts, prayers and plans with our loved ones.

Practical – what we want to happen during the transition, after our death, and how we put a plan in place so that it will happen.

April Esquivel will explain the way Hospice helps support the patient and family. For further information contact: All Saints Parish Office 636.397.1440 Ext. 227.

Do you have a musical talent, and are not yet involved in our music ministry?

Our large 4-part choir is looking for more musicians!

This is the mission Assumption's music ministry: A deep love of God and a commitment to exceptional liturgy impels to express our prayer through music and to inspire others to join in sung worship. We want you to join us in that mission! Our large choir is looking for all voice types (soprano, alto, tenor or bass) and instrumentalists (brass, strings, woodwinds, or percussion). Most of our music is in four-part harmony. Song books and sheet music is provided.

As an all-volunteer ensemble, we do our best to accommodate varying skill levels. Vocalists do need to be able to match pitch. Instrumentalists need to be able to read notation, as appropriate to their instrument. Previous experience in an ensemble is helpful. All members should be willing to commit to regular participation and to the mission of our music ministry.

Our ensemble leads 8am worship on the first, third, and fifth Sundays and at 10am each second Sunday. We also get to lead Mass for a variety of major holidays and holy days. Rehearsal every Tuesday evening, 7pm.

More detailed information is available on our parish website:
www.assumptionbvm.org

If you are interested in joining our mission for great liturgical music, we would like to meet you! Contact: Peg Wehmeier, director, at 314.486.4003 or peg.wehmeier@gmail.com

Assumption St. Vincent DePaul Christmas Sponsorship Program

The Assumption St. Vincent DePaul (SVDP) organizes an annual Christmas program that provides assistance to local needy families. An important part of this program is helping families, individuals and businesses connect with individuals and families in need of the help during the holidays.

Persons being sponsored are usually provided with a Christmas gift or two, possibly some household items, and a food basket. Sponsorships can be open or closed. Open-sponsorships involve both parties meeting each other in person. With Closed-sponsorship, both parties are kept anonymous. SVDP coordinates matching parties together and performs the delivery of items for Closed-sponsors.

Now is the time to discern your desire to help others during the Christmas season. Use this form to notify SVDP of your willingness to sponsor a family or person for Christmas. Forms must be submitted by November 15.

Come Pray With Us . . .

The rosary is a beautiful prayer and we encourage its holy recitation. We invite everyone to join us for this prayer for peace, as invited by Mary; for religious freedom, as invited by the Archbishop, and for this Church, named in Mary's honor, that we might be known for our Christ-like love.

In addition to our other times to pray the rosary, we now also process over to our chapel on Thursday mornings after Mass. We begin the Rosary at 8:45am. A golf cart will be available for those who might need transportation between church and chapel.

We are indeed blessed to have a chapel for devotional prayer. It is our commitment to continue to utilize this beautiful asset in holy and productive ways. Again, we invite you to join us for the recitation of the rosary on Thursdays. And we thank you for all the ways you pray; and for all the ways you are open to let that prayer help you to love.

You are also invited to pray the rosary prior to the start of Mass each Sunday. We meet in the chapel and begin at 7:30am, 9:30am and 11:30am.

If anyone is interested in being a leader, please call Amanda at the parish office 240.3721.

"I HAVE NOT STOPPED GIVING THANKS FOR YOU, REMEMBERING YOU IN MY PRAYERS."
