“Just a word of thanks, praise and amazement . . .

Reading your Sunday bulletins is a prayer for me. You are calling your parishioners to ponder so many ways that would be possible to help those in and around O’Fallon and also abroad. Some parishioners volunteer much time in their own Assumption parish; others reach out abroad to those who need food your donations provide. I do not know of any parish that has so much outreach to others. Congratulations and keep up your wonderful work. I hope our prayers also support you. You are truly blest with four wonderful priests to provide any encouragement you may need along the way. Under their guidance, your hearts reach out NEAR and FAR. Thanks for your wonderful example. I am proud to be part of your parish... God bless you!”

Blood Drive Today

We Need You!

Mississippi Valley Regional Blood Center will be in the parish center after all the Sunday Masses for our fall blood drive. As always, the need is great, so please consider stopping by and give the gift of life. Walk-Ins are welcome!

Today, November 9 is St Vincent De Paul Food Sunday. At this time the pantry is in need of the following items: boxed potatoes, tuna helper, chicken helper, pasta sides, canned fruit, applesauce, pancake mix, syrup, soup, saltine crackers, pudding, jello, juices, tea bags, hot chocolate, paper towels, and dish soap. Donations accepted anytime. Grocery store gift cards are always welcome.

Thank you for supporting the St. Vincent De Paul Food Pantry.

PRAYER • PARTICIPATION • GENEROSITY

S T E W A R D S H I P

“For we are God’s fellow workers...” – 1 Corinthians 3:9

We are called to help God build His kingdom on earth. We are His eyes, ears, hands and voice on Earth. By giving of our “first fruits” of our time, talent and treasure we help fulfill God’s call. Are you doing all you can to help? Do you spend time in prayer every day? Do you participate in one of the many parish ministries? Do you give generously in the offertory collection each week?

Life, Peace and Justice: Living the Gospel of Joy

How Can I be Peaceful When I am So Angry?

It's a peculiar thing we do, as Catholics... at every Mass, we lift up a perfect, whole host – consecrated as the Risen Body of Christ – and we fracture it, break it into pieces, while singing “Have mercy on us... grant us peace.”

Everywhere we look, we see a broken Christ: wars, human trafficking, terrorism, famine, corruption, red states and blue states and other divisions, etc. All of this pain streams from the wounded, broken Body of Christ...

Prophets, teachers, leaders of faith throughout time seem to agree on two themes: 1) Peace doesn't just “happen” and 2) true peace cannot be attained (or maintained) through violence. Because we often turn to the medical community to heal our physical pain and brokenness, we may think that spiritual brokenness must be healed by something outside of ourselves: if she would just apologize, then I would have peace... if they would invite to be a part of this or that... if I just had this amount of money... if I just looked more like this... just had this “thing”... this job... this security... this prognosis... if these people would just think this way or agree with me on that topic... if these countries just didn't exist... etc... etc... etc... then I would have peace.

But, Jesus tells us over and over that our sense of peace doesn't come from outside of us. Peace is an “inside” job. In Jesus' time, He constantly had to remind His disciples that peace wouldn't come from the destruction of the Roman Empire, from excluding the sick, the poor, the sinner, the foreigner. Peace – the fullness of the Kingdom of God – was only going to come from the disciples' love for God and love for others. The reality is no different for us today... the work of faith is no different... the line in the Our Father “Thy Kingdom come on earth” is exactly the same words Jesus taught His disciples to pray.

All of our feelings are holy... even our fear, our anger, our frustration. The work of faith is about moving past those feelings that separate us from God, from others, or from ourselves. Every day, we are given chances to heal our spirits and enhance the fountain of peace roaring within us: what we choose to watch, how we spend our free time, the stories we share, the time we give to prayer, the work we do to move past our anger—to forgive or be forgiven, the work we do to learn what fills us with joy—something that isn't dependent on someone other than myself and doesn't come at someone's expense.

This weekend, we hear about Jesus' anger and His efforts to restore a balance. He drives out the sellers in the Temple because peace cannot be purchased. It does not come from “outside”. This is how passionate Jesus is about making sure we know that peace is an inside job. There is no substitute for the peace that God gives. We just have to be willing to seek it... to do the work necessary to build it up within us. “Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you”? Like Jesus, we are more than likely going to feel difficult emotions – anger, loss, pain – we are going to receive troubling news. In our own local community, we're soon to hear a grand jury verdict surrounding the events in Ferguson. Is my commitment to peace dependent on the outcome? Regardless of the verdict, how will my response bring Christ to the world?

Prayer: Silence in me, O God, every voice that isn't You. In You alone I find my Peace. Shine through my thoughts, words, and actions that everyone around me may see Your peace at work in my life. Amen.

What can I do? LEARN: Read or Watch Archbishop Carlson's call to peace: <http://archstl.org/peace> GIVE: take a walk through the neighborhood with a bag, picking up all the trash, and praying a blessing for those who left the trash behind, PRAY: From now until Thanksgiving, end every day by writing down 5 things for which I am grateful, without repeating any.

Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Today's feast celebrates a mystery that is always relevant: God's desire to build a spiritual temple in the world, a community that worships him in spirit and truth (cf. John 4:23-24). But this observance also reminds us of the importance of the material buildings in which the community gathers to celebrate the praises of God. Every community therefore has the duty to take special care of its own sacred buildings, which are a precious religious and historical patrimony. For this we call upon the intercession of Mary Most Holy, that she help us to become, like her, the "house of God," living temple of his love.

St Vincent DePaul Annual Food Drive

Mark your calendars for Saturday, November 15, the annual Boy Scout's Food Drive. (Assumption's food pantry benefits from goods collected by the Boy Scout Food Drive). It will take place at the K.C. hall from 10:00am until possibly 2:00pm. We need help with sorting, packing and transporting boxes from the hall to the pantry. If you have a pick-up truck and don't mind lifting we could sure use your help! The turnout in previous years has been wonderful and many hands make quick work!

Thank you for all your help and support for the St. Vincent De Paul Food Pantry.

YOU CAN HELP

Substitute Teachers

Assumption School is looking for substitute teachers for the 2014-2015 school year.

Substitute teachers will work with students in academic areas while the regular classroom teacher is unavailable.

Many times, early morning telephone calls will be made in order to obtain a sub for a classroom. If you are interested in becoming a substitute teacher for Assumption School, you need to have a minimum of sixty credit hours of college coursework. Experience in education is a plus. Send your resume to Assumption School, 203 West Third, O'Fallon, MO 63366 or email to: joannehoormann@gmail.com.

Thanksgiving Pies for the Poor

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Food Pantry in North St. Louis is asking for our assistance again this year in providing pies for the poor this Thanksgiving. They provide dinner for 1500-2000 people in the area. By providing these pies, we will express our thanks by showing our concern and love for the poor in our community. If you are willing to donate a non-refrigerated pie or two, parishioner Bob Capstick will be accepting them in the prefunction area of the Parish Center from 7am-1pm Tuesday, November 25 and Wednesday, November 26. Just drop them off and be on your way. Thank you!!

Presentation on the Shroud of Turin

Saturday, November 15, from 9:00am - 10:30am. Dr. David Keys will present a talk entitled "What We Know About the Man in the Shroud of Turin." Many believe the Shroud to possibly be the burial cloth of Jesus. In his talk, Dr. Keys will discuss the history, current scientific testing, and theological implications of this burial cloth. From an analysis of the image on the Shroud, the story of the final hours of the man crucified and of his demise will be told. This talk will be given in the St. Cletus Parish Hall (St Charles), 2705 Zumbuhl Rd. For more information, call the St Cletus Parish Office, 636.946.6327.

Baptismal Preparation Class

All parents are required to participate in a class of Pre-Baptismal instruction before having their child/children baptized at Assumption. For expectant parents it is often better to attend this class before baby is born. Call the Parish Office at 240.3721 to schedule a class.

Thanksgiving 2014

Let's Celebrate Thanksgiving Day

Join us on Thursday, November 27, and we will once again have a special Eucharistic celebration at 9:00am. It is special in several ways.

First let this day be a reminder that "Eucharist" means "thanksgiving". It seems then that taking part in the Eucharist on Thanksgiving Day is a most appropriate way of celebrating this holiday. We hope that you will join us.

Secondly, you are invited to bring gifts for the poor. These can be money or the usual items you bring for the St. Vincent de Paul Society. On this day don't leave them at the St. Vincent de Paul Society Depository but bring them to your pews with you. At the time of the Presentation of the Gifts, instead of the ushers/greeters passing the baskets, you will be asked to bring your own gifts forward into the sanctuary so they might serve as a sign for us to see. The ushers/greeters will be there to assist you.

Finally, you are invited to also bring something that you will be using at your own Thanksgiving Dinner or taking to someone else's. Let it be anything, cooked or uncooked, that you are able to handle easily. Again bring this to your pew with you. At some point in the Eucharist, you will be asked to hold up these items to be blessed. After Mass take them home with you to be used for your meal. The idea behind this is to help make a connection between the Lord's Table and your own feasting table. In this way you are bringing God's blessing to your own table. If you are particularly creative, you might even use this item to focus your meal prayer that day.

Please Note: There will be no 6:30am Mass on Thanksgiving.

Assumption St. Vincent DePaul Christmas Sponsorship Program

The Assumption St. Vincent DePaul (SVDP) organizes an annual Christmas program that provides assistance to local needy families. An important part of this program is helping families, individuals and businesses connect with individuals and families in need of the help during the holidays.

Persons being sponsored are usually provided with a Christmas gift or two, possibly some household items, and a food basket. Sponsorships can be open or closed. Open-sponsorships involve both parties meeting each other in person. With Closed-sponsorship, both parties are kept anonymous. SVDP coordinates matching parties together and performs the delivery of items for Closed-sponsors.

Now is the time to discern your desire to help others during the Christmas season. Use this form to notify SVDP of your willingness to sponsor a family or person for Christmas. Forms must be submitted by November 15.

Transforming the World Through Laundry

Would you be willing to do 1 white load of laundry this week?

It's a key domino that needs to fall to keep the life of the church in motion. Clean linens, purificators, and towels are necessary for daily Eucharist... those who come to Eucharist are empowered by God's Spirit... those who are empowered go to their families, classrooms, offices, and elsewhere to spread God's Love! This is a great service opportunity for someone who likes to do behind-the-scenes (but absolutely necessary) kind of work. As an added bonus, you get to see the fruits of your labor at Eucharist in every clean cloth that is used!

Call Amanda 636.240.3721 ext. 240 or email: Amanda.assumptionbvm@gmail.com if you're ready to pitch in!

Attention All Students Grades 5th-8th!!

If you were unable to attend the October server training, we will have another training opportunity on November 16 at 6:00pm in church, followed by a pizza celebration in Hall C! This opportunity is open to all students, whether PSR, Home-School, or Full-time. Your participation in the ministry is greatly appreciated! We need your piece of the puzzle!

Please RSVP by November 15 to Kathy Hicks by email at : khicks527@yahoo.com.
