Hello,

As you know, on Pentecost weekend of 2023, Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski issued a decree through which St. Barnabas parish was to be subsumed by Assumption (O'Fallon) parish on August 1, 2023. In his letters to both parishes explaining his decision, the archbishop outlined the avenue for hierarchical recourse, the process that appeals a decision of this nature. This decree was appealed to the Vatican and the Dicastery for the Clergy, who last week Thursday informed the archdiocese that they had completed their review of the case and elected to uphold the decree which joins St. Barnabas with Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish.

The first thing to note is that this should have no effect on the current operations of Assumption parish or San Juan Diego parish, which uses the facilities at St. Barnabas Church. While functionally and pastorally St. Barnabas ministries and sacramental needs were merged with those of Assumption parish to be one community as of last August, all financial and sacramental records were maintained separate in case the decree was overturned. Now that a decision has been given, we will go forward with addressing the financial and sacramental records and be able to clearly plan for the use of St. Barnabas facilities by San Juan Diego parish.

The map shows Assumption and St. Barnabas territorial boundaries, which is now all a part of Assumption parish. I realize that some who live in these boundaries have chosen to go to other parishes and some who live outside of these boundaries have chosen to come to Assumption. I am glad if you find a place where you can worship and be a part of the community if it is here or another parish. The parish boundaries represent all of those people that, as pastor, I am responsible for their pastoral care, and I am entrusted to use the material goods of the parish to provide this for them.

San. Juan Diego Parish is not a territorial parish but a personal parish. Personal parishes are established not to serve the people in a specific territory, but for people of a certain rite, language, nationality, or some other reason. In this case, St. Juan Diego parish is a personal parish for those of Hispanic language and heritage. If you speak Spanish and are of Hispanic heritage and live in the archdiocese of St. Louis (the area for which Archbishop Rozanski has responsibility), you can be a member of St. Juan Diego parish. Their pastor, Fr. Eric Olsen, is responsible for the pastoral care of these people, not those who live in any particular parish boundaries.

Please keep one another in your prayers as we continue to go through this time of change for parishes and individuals, as we strive to grow as the body of Christ here in O'Fallon.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

MASS SLIDE OPERATORS NEEDED

Join our current Sound Techs and assist as a Mass Slide Operator at weekend Mass! You do not have to have computer skills or be a techy person to help project the pre-made prayer and song lyric slides that appear on each side of the altar during Mass, just a desire to serve as we gather to worship every weekend. Teens looking for service hours are welcome! This is a great service to our worship, and you will probably grow in your understanding of the structure of the Mass as you have to pay attention.

Contact our Music Director, Parker Bishop at music@abvmtech.org, if you are interested or have questions.

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found
Was blind, but now I see

Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

NATIONAL Eucharistic Pilgrimage STOPS in ST. LOUIS

The Church needs healing and the world needs Jesus. EXPERIENCE REVIVAL at this 1st National Eucharistic Congress in 83 years, and be there when God MOVES.

God hears our prayers for the renewal of our Church. He will answer them through a life-changing transformation of our own hearts. The 10th National Eucharistic Congress is an invitation to experience profound personal revival so we can be sent out to share Christ's love with a world that so desperately needs it. Visit eucharisticcongress.org for all the details.

While we realize not everyone will be able to attend the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage in Indianapolis, July 14-21, we hope you will join in the events planned in St. Louis, July 5-7, when the pilgrimage with the Eucharistic procession heading there arrives in our area.

A special thank you for the generous BOXES OF MERCY donations. Your gifts will go to St. Louis families in need during the pilgrimage stop in St. Louis. Here is the lineup of events planned July 5-7:

- July 5, 3-9PM, St. Charles Borromeo, 601 N 4th St., St. Charles: Meet for the Divine Mercy Chaplet and then walk to the Shrine of St. Rose Philippine Duchesne and then processing with the blessed Sacrament alongside the pilgrims to St. Peter Catholic Church in St. Charles for a meal.
- July 7, 10AM Mass with Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski at the Cathedral Basilica, 4431 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, and then processing to St. Stephen Protomartyr 3949 Wilmington Ave., St. Louis.

To register and for more details about the St. Louis events and the National Eucharistic Congress in Indiana, visit archstl.org/eucharistic-revival.

If you are concerned that you will not be able to attend in person, please phone and leave a message for Rita O'Dea 314.909.4663.

DETAILS

This workshop will focus on exploring support for the caregiver, support that will come both from the caregiver him- or herself and from the community.

- Dr. Kaori Sakurai, a gerontologist with expertise in dementia care, will share thoughts about healthy approaches to caregiving that take into account the needs of the caregiver as well as the person being cared for.
- Cheryl Kinney, LCSW, a licensed social worker with expertise in dementia care, will share a person-centered approach to communicating with and providing support to individuals with dementia.
- Coke Hennessy, a Mindfulness Teacher certified through U C Berkeley and certified in dementia care through the Alzheimer's Association, will share ideas of self-care available to refresh and replenish the caregiver physically, emotionally, and mentally.
- Maria Miskovic, MSW, LCSW, from Care Choice Care Management, an organization which works with families of persons with dementia to find optimal care for everyone involved, will discuss resources available in our community to support caregivers.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL CONTINUES | EVERY PENNY HELPS

If you haven't had a chance to donate, you still have time to contribute to this year's Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). Your sacrificial giving through the ACA supports a wide range of programs and ministries in our parish, and throughout the community. Some of these examples include the following:

- ♦ Serving our Parishes Directly: Last year our parish received a $75,000 grant from the Archdiocese of St. Louis to help pay down the loan we have from the expansion of our grade school. This allowed us to reach the end of the loan about four months sooner.
- ♦ Serving our Youth: Supporting the Today and Tomorrow Educational Fund, which provided scholarships to over 30 parish families last year.
- ♦ Serving the People in our Parishes: Funding numerous diocesan programs that parishioners use, such as the archdiocesan marriage preparation classes.
- ♦ Serving Those in Need: Supporting St. Joachim and Ann Care Service, an organization that helps many throughout St. Charles County and beyond with housing and food needs.
- ♦ Serving Those who Serve Us: Supports Regina Cleri, retirement apartments for priests, where Fr. Ron Rubbelke lived after leaving Assumption, and our current priests also will have a place to go when needed.

To make your contribution online, please SCAN the QR Code and be sure to credit our parish—Assumption Parish (O'Fallon) 344—in the dropdown menu. Donations will be accepted through August.

Thank you for your generous gifts and sharing Christ's love through the ACA.
