Hello,

Every now and then, I get asked whether someone can receive Communion more than once in the same day. The answer is yes, (see can. 917 at bottom of this article) but the law and practice has changed over time, even in my lifetime. Looking at these changes throughout the years can hopefully tell us a bit more about what and why we do what we do. (Much of the following is a summary of a question answered by Legionary of Christ Father Edward McNamara and published by Zenit.)

Doctrinally, the Church has always considered the reception of Communion as the logical and necessary conclusion of the sacrificial celebration. Logical, because any sacrifice that has the offering of food as its object implies the idea of consumption. Necessary, because this was the express will of Christ who invites us to take and eat. The liturgy of the Mass has always considered that at least the priest must receive Communion to complete and perfect the sacrifice of the Mass, and this was officially declared by the Twelfth Council of Toledo in 681. The Council of Trent, the center of our liturgical practice for centuries, reinforced this in 1551 stating that it was always the custom of the Church that priests, when celebrating Mass, always communicate themselves, and that laymen should receive Communion from the priest.

With respect to practice, however, things developed in a different way. In the first and second century not only do they state that all at the celebration of the Mass would receive Communion but they also attest to the practice of deacons bringing Communion to those who were absent. But in a few hundred years St. John Chrysostom (349-407) complained, "In vain we stand before the altar, there is no one to partake." The Church had to recall the importance of receiving Communion even to clerics. From the fourth century on we find decrees making it obligatory for clerics who attend a solemn Mass to receive Communion. The situation reached such a point that in 1123 the First Lateran Council found it necessary to prescribe confession and Communion at least once a year for all Catholics as an absolute minimum. This law remains in force today although actual practice varies widely.

There were various reasons that caused this, the sense that we were not worthy to receive the Eucharist, and more restrictive practices of penance prior to receiving regarding fasting from food and abstaining from marital acts. While Mass attendance remained constant and faithfulness high, in the 12th century Eucharistic Adoration even replaced sacramental reception for some. If there was only a small congregation they might receive, but for larger celebrations the distribution of Communion to the people wasn't even being logistically accounted for in the Mass. Sometimes for Easter and other major feasts Communion would be distributed throughout the Mass at a side altar.

Frequent reception of Communion would eventually return and become common in the 19th and 20th centuries, encouraged by the popes and connected to various spiritual associations and an increased devotion to the Sacred Heart. The 1917 Code of Canon Law states in Canon 857 that a person could not receive the Eucharist more than once in a day, but also restates the requirement to receive at least once a year. The 1983 Code of Canon Law again stated the requirement to receive at least once a year, but changed the maximum times one may receive, Canon 917 states: A person who has already received the Most Holy Eucharist can receive it a second time on the same day only within the eucharistic celebration in which the person participates. Fortunately, our current practice has recaptured much of the early liturgy in the Church, and I know this was a good reminder for me to recognize the various changes we have gone through. Our history is longer than the last 10 years, or since Vatican II, or even since The Council of Trent, hopefully history can help us learn and grow in our communion with God.

Have a Happy 4th of July.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

PRAYER FOR THE SAFETY OF SOLDIERS

Dear Lord,

Our hearts are filled with gratitude for the men and women who serve our country now and in the past, and for the sacrifices their families make so that we can all enjoy the blessing of freedom.

We praise you for calling them to help protect us, and for giving them the courage and ability to do their jobs well.

Guide their choices and their actions, Lord. Help them to see you working in their daily lives, whether in the field, at home, or abroad.

Surround them with your mighty angels; protect them in your mercy; cover them with your grace.

Guard their hearts while they are far from loved ones, and bless them with moments to cherish when they are together.

Hold these families close, Lord. May they look to you for the strength and peace that only you can give.

In Jesus Name we pray, Amen.

ASSUMPTION FALL FESTIVAL NEWS

Plans for the annual Fall Festival are in full swing! Mark your calendar now and be sure to join us, Saturday, October 5 and Sunday, October 6. We are extending Saturday hours from noon-11pm, and Sunday kicks off with 10am outdoor Mass under the big tent, followed by festivities from 11am-4pm, so we will need many hands to help.

A great big thank you to the following ministries and parishioners for being so committed:

- ♦ Assumption SVdP Ministry for assisting at the food tents again this year.
- ♦ Life Teen Ministry for running the haunted hayride again this year
- ♦ Jason Szachnieski for stepping up yet another year to drive his tractor and trailer for the haunted hayride.

Thank you so much for your willingness to help carry on this great tradition in supporting Assumption Parish.

In other festival news....

We had a small music setback... Almost Famous apparently found a better paying gig on Oct. 5 and will not be playing at the festival this year – BUMMER. We are in the process of finding a replacement band now, so stay tuned for more information.

We are still looking for use of additional tractors, flatbed trailers, and hay bales for the haunted hayride. Please let us know if you can help!

We also are looking for donations of premium bottles of booze for a new, fun adult ring toss game. Please drop off donations at the parish office during regular business hours – Monday-Thursday, 8AM-4PM and Friday, 8AM-2PM during the summer.

We are so grateful for everyone's support! Please contact Russ Schaller at 314-608-6551, if you have the equipment for the haunted hayride or you would like volunteer at this year's event.

New this year, we will be raffling off one-year Assumption School tuition valued at $6,385! The winner can choose to take the free tuition or a cash prize of $5,000. Tell your family, friends and neighbors to take a chance and win! Tickets are $50 each and we are only selling 350, so your odds of winning are much higher.

Here's how to enter:

- ♦ Cut out the raffle ticket from the bulletin
- ♦ Fill out your name and number
- ♦ Turn in the completed raffle ticket with check (made out to Assumption Church) or money to the Parish Office during regular business hours or drop it in the mailbox out front.

HELLO FROM ASSUMPTION YOUTH MINISTRY!

Summer ministry is fully underway with Assumption Youth Ministry!

Last week, fourteen of our upperclassmen along with our youth ministry staff attended the Life Teen Leadership Conference, held at Benedictine College in Atchison, Kansas. This was a beautiful, intensive week of prayer, the Sacraments, friendship and community, as well as powerful Catholic formation that will assist our teens as they take on active leadership roles within Life Teen and our parish community this year. Our fourteen teens who committed to LTLC not only commit to attending the conference, but also to monthly meetings of fellowship, monthly mentoring with youth ministry staff, and active leadership roles this year. Please pray for us as we work to take home what we received last week!

Sunday, June 30 | Life Teen: Steuby Hype Night
