From a treatise on John by Saint Augustine, bishop

A Samaritan woman came to draw water

A woman came. She is a symbol of the Church not yet made righteous but about to be made righteous. Righteousness follows from the conversation. She came in ignorance, she found Christ, and he enters into conversation with her. Let us see what it is about, let us see why a Samaritan woman came to draw water. The Samaritans did not form part of the Jewish people: they were foreigners. The fact that she came from a foreign people is part of the symbolic meaning, for she is a symbol of the Church. The church was to come from the Gentiles, of a different race from the Jews.

We must then recognize ourselves in her words and in her person, and with her give our own thanks to God. She was a symbol, not the reality; she foreshadowed the reality, and the reality came to be. She found faith in Christ, who was using her as a symbol to teach us what was to come. She came then to draw water. She had simply come to draw water, in the normal way of man or woman.

Jesus says to her: Give me water to drink. For his disciples had gone to the city to buy food. The Samaritan woman therefore says to him: How is it that you, though a Jew, ask me for water to drink, though I am a Samaritan woman? For Jews have nothing to do with Samaritans.

The Samaritans were foreigners; Jews never used their utensils. The woman was carrying a pail for drawing water. She was astonished that a Jew should ask her for a drink of water, a thing that Jews would not do. But the one who was asking for a drink of water was thirsting for her faith.

Listen now and learn who it is that asks for a drink. Jesus answered her and said: If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, "Give me a drink," perhaps you might have asked him and he would have given you living water.

He asks for a drink, and he promises a drink. He is in need, as one hoping to receive, yet he is rich, as one about to satisfy the thirst of others. He says: If you knew the gift of God. The gift of God is the Holy Spirit. But he is still using veiled language as he speaks to the woman and gradually enters into her heart. Or is he already teaching her? What could be more gentle and kind than the encouragement he gives? If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, "Give me a drink," perhaps you might ask and he would give you living water.

What is this water that he will give if not the water spoken of in Scripture: With you is the fountain of life? How can those feel thirst who will drink deeply from the abundance in your house?

He was promising the Holy Spirit in satisfying abundance. She did not yet understand. In her failure to grasp his meaning, what was her reply? The woman says to him, Master, give me this drink, so that I may feel no thirst or come here to draw water. Her need forced her to this labor, her weakness shrank from it. If only she could hear those words: Come to me, all who labor and are burdened, and I will refresh you. Jesus was saying this to her, so that her labors might be at an end; but she was not yet able to understand.

Our Beautiful New Tabernacle with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the Assumption Parish Chapel

This has replaced the monstrance and the need to drape or remove the cloth for exposition.

Second

TO OPEN:

First

Reverently expose the Blessed Sacrament by pulling on the two knobs at the base of the cross, initiating with the knob on the right first.

*When closing the tabernacle, close the door on the left first, and then the right.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The most important reason for reviving the practice of making the Stations of the Cross is that it is a powerful way to contemplate, and enter into, the mystery of Jesus' gift of himself to us. It takes the reflection on the passion out of our heads, and makes it an imaginative exercise. It can involve our senses, our own experiences and our emotions to the extent that - we come to experience the love of Jesus for us. Every Friday during Lent:

Please join us either at 2:30pm
(where indicated with our school children)
or 7:00pm in Church
(except where noted in the bulletin).

Next weekend, March 10/11 is St. Vincent De Paul food pantry weekend

At this time the pantry is in need of the following items: Chicken Helper, Tuna Helper, canned chicken, tuna, microwaveable pastas and oatmeal, liquid dish detergent, cleaning supplies, laundry detergent, and toilet paper. Grocery store gift cards are always needed and very much appreciated. Thank you for your generous support.

CHURCH CLEANERS

You are Invited to Pray with the Entire Parish Community

Every evening during Lent, the people of Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary parish are invited, at 7:00pm, to pray the Memorare. On Fridays during Lent, please make a whole hearted effort to stop, to gather whomever is around you (family members, friends, adults, children, etc.) and pray this beautiful prayer to our Blessed Mother. In solidarity with each other, let us turn our hearts towards Mary and stand before her confident she hears our petitions.

RCIA

How might the Scrutinies of the RCIA process help the parish as a whole? On the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent we participate in the Scrutinies. The universal Church hears the stories of the Samaritan woman, the man born blind, and the raising of Lazarus. These readings were chosen to be the driving force of prayerful introspection, surrender, and conversion. They offer powerful images of surrender, sin, conversion, faith, and healing. In our faith journey with those seeking Baptism, we must stir our souls, as if they were dying campfires, to expose any parts of ourselves that have not been purified by the burning love of the Holy Spirit. We are challenged with the Samaritan woman at the well when we thirst for the Lord, who knows what we need and provides it. We beg along with the man born blind to see Jesus, who is the light and gives us sight. And we lie with Lazarus within the tomb of oblivion and death, built with the stones of our own sins, until Jesus reaches out his hand and pulls us from the pit. (Note: the readings for the Scrutiny are always taken from Cycle A, regardless of the current cycle of readings being used. Each parish has the option of using these readings for all Masses, or only for the Masses where the elect are present. We will hear these readings only at 8:00 am Mass)

What is the Presentation of the Creed for those in the RCIA process, and when does it occur? This Rite, which can be done at Mass or during an RCIA session, entrusts the words of the Creed to those seeking to enter the Catholic Church. Throughout the year, the words of the Creed are presented through the presentations/topics chosen for those Sundays. Nearly seventeen centuries old, the Creed summarizes what we believe as Catholics. For those coming into the Church this Easter, this Rite symbolizes that our parish community is passing on and sharing the beliefs of our Catholic faith with them, so that those about to join our Catholic family embrace and treasure these words as we do.

Prayer cards for the elect are available in the back of church. Each person should take a card. There are two types of cards, one for Catechumens (The Elect) who are preparing for Baptism and Candidates who were baptized in other faiths and are preparing for full communion with the Church through the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. Please remember to take one home and keep them in your prayers throughout the season of Lent.

March 4, 2018 — Third Sunday in Lent

EX 20: 1-17; PS 19: 8-11; 1 COR 1: 22-25; JN 2: 13-25

Our First Reading from the Old Testament Book of Exodus presents the Ten Commandments, as God gave them to Moses. The Commandments also appear in the Book of Deuteronomy (Chapter 5; verses 6-21). The Commandments are reaffirmed in the New Testament by Jesus Himself and especially in the Gospel of John.

The Ten Commandments are also called the "Decalogue," which means literally "ten words." According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (#2056) "God revealed these 'ten words' to His people on the holy mountain. They were written 'with the finger of God.' They are pre-eminently the words of God".

At another point the Catechism fortifies the Commandments by saying, "...from generation to generation...the 'deposit' of moral teaching has been handed on. Along with the Creed and the Our Father, the basis for catechesis has traditionally been the Decalogue, which sets out the principles of moral life valid for all people." (#2033)

The Commandments are considered essential for spiritual good health and growth. They serve as the basis for Catholic social justice. A review of the Ten Commandments is a common type of examination of conscience before receiving the sacrament of Penance.

As Lent draws to a close, it is important for each of us to go to confession and receive the sacrament of Penance. As part of that we may wish to look at our lives and how we live them through the holy words of the Ten Commandments.

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS
Office of Laity and Family Life

Dear Friends at Assumption Day School & PSR,

Thank you, for your generous gift of personal care supplies and fleece blankets to help the children and families of Crisis Nursery. Every day we open our doors to vulnerable children at risk of abuse or neglect. Your support means so much and helps us to provide a safe place for families like Janelle's.

Janelle and her two little ones were sleeping in a car after they escaped a dangerous domestic violence situation. Because you care, the Nursery was there to provide emergency shelter and nurturing care to her babies and parent education and support services so mom could move with her children into a home that was loving, safe and secure.

Each year, approximately 7,000 children receive emergency shelter, a medical exam, art & play therapy, food, clothing, toys, as well as loving care. YOU are the key to making this happen! THANK YOU!!

As a partner in the prevention of child abuse, you ensure that our children have a safe place when their families are in crisis. Your support and involvement in our mission is truly needed and deeply appreciated.

For the Children,

DiAnne L. Mueller, MS, LPC
Chief Executive Officer

The sixth annual Assumption Parish Day of Reflection will be held at 8 a.m. on Saturday, March 24 in our Parish Center. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. and the program begins at 8 a.m. This one-day event is rejuvenating, and a wonderful way to feed your faith and rekindle your spiritual flame during this holy season of Lent! Great speakers, great fellowship, and lunch will be provided. Seating is limited. Please RSVP to Shelly Schneider at schneid5@charter.net, or call 636.379.2538.
