From an ancient homily on Holy Saturday

The Lord descends into hell

Something strange is happening—there is a great silence on earth today, a great silence and stillness. The whole earth keeps silence because the King is asleep. The earth trembled and is still because God has fallen asleep in the flesh and he has raised up all who have slept ever since the world began. God has died in the flesh and hell trembles with fear.

He has gone to search for our first parent, as for a lost sheep. Greatly desiring to visit those who live in darkness and in the shadow of death, he has gone to free from sorrow the captives Adam and Eve, he who is both God and the son of Eve. The Lord approached them bearing the cross, the weapon that had won him the victory. At the sight of him Adam, the first man he had created, struck his breast in terror and cried out to everyone: “My Lord be with you all.” Christ answered him: “And with your spirit.” He took him by the hand and raised him up, saying: “Awake, O sleeper, and rise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.”

I am your God, who for your sake have become your son. Out of love for you and for your descendants I now by my own authority command all who are held in bondage to come forth, all who are in darkness to be enlightened, all who are sleeping to arise. I order you, O sleeper, to awake. I did not create you to be held a prisoner in hell. Rise from the dead, for I am the life of the dead. Rise up, work of my hands, you who were created in my image. Rise, let us leave this place, for you are in me and I am in you; together we form only one person and we cannot be separated.

For your sake I, your God, became your son; I, the Lord, took the form of a slave; I, whose home is above the heavens, descended to the earth and beneath the earth. For your sake, for the sake of man, I became like a man without help, free among the dead. For the sake of you, who left a garden, I was betrayed to the Jews in a garden, and I was crucified in a garden.

See on my face the spittle I received in order to restore to you the life I once breathed into you. See there the marks of the blows I received in order to refashion your warped nature in my image. On my back see the marks of the scourging I endured to remove the burden of sin that weighs upon your back. See my hands, nailed firmly to a tree, for you who once wickedly stretched out your hand to a tree.

I slept on the cross and a sword pierced my side for you who slept in paradise and brought forth Eve from your side. My side has healed the pain in yours. My sleep will rouse you from your sleep in hell. The sword that pierced me has sheathed the sword that was turned against you.

Rise, let us leave this place. The enemy led you out of the earthly paradise. I will not restore you to that paradise, but I will enthrone you in heaven. I forbade you the tree that was only a symbol of life, but see, I who am life itself am now one with you. I appointed cherubim to guard you as slaves are guarded, but now I make them worship you as God. The throne formed by cherubim awaits you, its bearers swift and eager. The bridal chamber is adorned, the banquet is ready, the eternal dwelling places are prepared, the treasure houses of all good things lie open. The kingdom of heaven has been prepared for you from all eternity.

Becoming Stewards of the Easter Season: Christ is risen!

Indeed, He is risen. As Catholic Christians, we celebrate the Easter season for seven weeks, until the fires of Pentecost once again inflame our hearts, June 9, 2019.

Indeed, how could we not continue to celebrate this event that has changed everything for us?

It's easy to slip into a cultural way of thinking about our great feasts. Many people have the Christmas tree taken down at the end of New Year's Day, rather than waiting for Epiphany. Likewise, many may put the Easter decorations away tomorrow or the next day.

But the Christian steward is aware of the beauty and meaning of the seasons in the liturgical calendar.

The Easter season remains a special time for recommitment to the Lord. One word for this period is "mystagogia," and those who were just newly baptized at the Great Easter Vigil are especially familiar with this term. It literally means that we delve more deeply into the mystery of our faith. But exploring this mystery is not just an endeavor for new Christians. As we will soon begin preparing for Pentecost, we prayerfully examine what the Resurrection means in our own lives.

For Christian stewards, it's a time to reevaluate how faith in the Risen Lord informs every aspect of our lives – how we labor, how we play, the way we pray, how we allocate our resources, where we spend our time, how we love, how we extend our compassion to others. If Christ is truly risen – an astounding and life-altering belief – then this Easter time brings immense joy and a continuing desire to know the Risen Lord.

The Scripture readings of the season are especially helpful. We hear once again the stories of the appearances of Jesus to his friends; how often they failed, initially, to recognize him in his glory. The Acts of the Apostles tell us of the struggles and the excitement of the new community of believers.

We spent forty days in the penitential season of Lent. Now, we are embarked on fifty days of joyous celebration. Let us experience this joy throughout the Easter season, so that when we celebrate Pentecost on June 9, we may truly find our hearts on fire with the Holy Spirit.

Adult Formation

At the Easter Vigil, Saturday, April 20th, 12 people received the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Those who were to be baptized were clothed in brown gowns. The congregation gathered outside the entrance of the church around the new Easter candle as it was blessed and lit from the new fire. Then all processed in, each lighting his/her candle from the new Easter flame. After the dramatic readings of God's communication to mankind, those to be baptized came to be washed in the newly-blessed baptismal water, entered in white garments and receive their personal Easter candle and joined our Candidates on the alter to be confirmed. Those who were baptized are now be called neophytes.

Please join us in celebrating our newest Catholic family members: Kaitlyn Madden, Jerry Miller, Darron Rudolph, Alexis Baker, Terry Brown, John Coons, Kelly Laramie, Lori Meyer, Brooke Smith, Rachel Harris, Shawn Harris and Michelle Minnini.

Be sure to invite them to join in parish activities and help them feel at home in our parish. Beginning May 5, this will be a time to reflect upon what our new life in Christ and the Catholic church means to us. This period known as Mystagogy is a process of leading (or training) into the mystery of the sacraments they just received. Or, perhaps a better way to say that is that mystagogy is initiation into that which is not yet fully revealed.

BREAKTHROUGH is a movie based on the inspirational true story of one mother's unfaltering love in the face of impossible odds. On April 23rd, Marcus Mid Rivers Cinema will host a meet and great with the Smith family and a Q & A session following the screenings. These two special screenings will be at 5:30pm and 7:30pm. The Smith family will be there an hour before each screening, also. Tickets are $5 plus tax, per person and they are on sale now! You must get tickets directly from Marcus Theatres. Questions? Youth Formation

You can donate online for our single yearly fundraiser for youth ministry! We just do a single fundraiser so we don't have to keep coming back for financial support with bake sales, car washes, selling pizzas, etc. If we sell out all 366 dates on our Calendar Bog Board, we will fund the entire year of youth ministry of Assumption Life Teen!

Please consider donating for a day at: www.assumptionbvm.org/Youth-Ministry/Life-Teen
 Thank you so much for your prayers, support, and generosity!

PARENT LIFE

"Parents! Do you ever have times of feeling overwhelmed, especially when it comes to integrating our Catholic faith and parenting? Do you wonder how to best support your child through the unique challenges of the 21st century while learning what those challenges are and how to deal with them? We are excited to talk about these things as well as having you join us as you learn about what your teens are talking about Assumption Life Teen.

Join us as we begin a regular Sunday "Parent Life" where we will gather for some food and fellowship at 6:45pm after the weekly Life Teen Mass while the teens are at Life Teen youth group. We especially encourage parents of middle and high schoolers to join us!

The next Parent Life will be on April 28th. See you there!

Sun April 21 - NO Life Night or Life Teen Mass (Easter)
 Wed April 24 - "Hoops and Habits" (St. Dominic HS) - 6:45PM
 Fri - Sun April 26-28 - Spring Retreat!

DO YOU WANT TO TAKE OFF TO SPACE? We're getting ready for a great VBS! This year, our theme is Miraculous Mission. VBS children will learn that Jesus saves the world! They'll look into the Bible, God's Holy Word, and explore five Bible accounts where God points to our Savior, Jesus. They will get to learn about the vast and amazing love that God has for each of us!

Our VBS will be held June 10-14, 9:00am -12 Noon, in our Parish Center and School Buildings.

 It is our prayer that God has VBS in His plan for your life! We know Jesus will work through YOU at VBS. Would you prayerfully consider serving at VBS?

We need your help to make it a BLAST! Please go to the adult volunteer section to sign up for running a station or leading a group. assumptionbvmschool.org/summer/registration

PLEASE NOTE: Adult volunteers must be in compliance with Protecting God's Children requirements. Questions about 'Protecting God's Children', please call Lynn at 314-578-0741

April 21, 2019 - Easter Sunday/The Resurrection of the Lord (the Mass of Easter Day)

ACTS 10: 34A, 37-43; PS 118: 1-2, 16-17, 22-23; COL 3: 1-4, JN 20: 1-9

One of the recommended Responsorial Psalms on this glorious Easter Sunday is Psalm 118, including this from verse 24: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad." In truth Easter is all about rejoicing. It is the day of Resurrection which provides hope to all of us.

Throughout our diocese thousands of people are at Mass today who may not normally attend. Recent studies have shown that as many as 40 percent of those who do not regularly attend may not have been at Mass since Christmas.

That is another reason for us to rejoice and say: "Welcome home." We miss you and we love you. Christ's love for us is at the foundation of our celebration today. St. Augustine once wrote, "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us." We ask God's blessings on all those who have passed our amazing religion to you. Clearly you do remember your devotion and are here to honor it.

Our Catholic Church considers today to be the holiest day of the year. For us as Catholics this celebrates one of the greatest days in history — when Jesus, the Son of God, defeated death and rose from the grave giving us all hope for eternal life. St. Pope John Paul II may have put it best several years ago when he proclaimed, "Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song."

 "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."
 Matthew 25:40

The Fabulous Assumption Day School children had a Souper Bowl collection day, to help families in need. As an incentive every child who brought soup, was allowed to wear their pajamas for the day and what great results. They collected 20 boxes of food which had over 1200 cans of soup and graciously donated it to the Assumption Saint Vincent DePaul, who then put on the shelf in our pantry for families needing help. Some of the Children's food went to a homeless family with a little girl and the mother was expecting another child. The husband was walking 2 hours to work and 2 hours back every day. Saint Vincent DePaul provided food, clothing, a bike, financial help and the family is now in a home and has stability back in their life. This all started with the Assumption School children's food that was collected and donated to Saint Vincent DePaul. Thank you, to all the Assumption Day School children who are helping their neighbors in need.
