Hello,

This week we celebrate the Feast Day of our parish, the Feast of the Assumption. While this Feast has been celebrated in the Church for many centuries, the act of The Assumption was only declared as a dogma of the Church on November 1, 1950 in Pope Pius XII's Apostolic Constitution Munificentissimus Deus (most bountiful God). The Catechism of the Catholic Church summarizes this teaching in the following words:

"The dogma which recognizes the Blessed Virgin Mary's singular participation in her Son's Resurrection by which she was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, when the course of her earthly life was finished." (CCC, Glossary)

The fact that even though this was only declared a dogma of the Church in 1950 but our parish was named this all the way back in 1871 demonstrates this long belief of the Church before it would feel it necessary to declare this belief as dogma. The naming of our parish was only 17 years after the Immaculate Conception of Mary had been declared a dogma of the Church in 1854. Obviously these two teachings are linked closely to each other, and help us to see what God desires for us as He has done for Mary.

As Mary was born without the stain of Original Sin so that she may be a fitting mother for Christ, so through Christ we are offered the cleansing from sin in our baptisms. And as Mary was assumed into heaven by God after the end of her earthly life, so we are meant to also be eventually body and soul in heaven. What our heavenly 'glorified' bodies will be like we don't know, and it is difficult for us to even conceptualize in our current state. But that we are eventually meant to be body and soul in heaven is something that is a part of our faith. By reflecting on this and other dogmas of the Church we are aided in living more faithfully and recognize that how we treat our bodies during this life and at the end of our mortal lives is a way in which we live out that faith.

As we celebrate this feast of Mary, as we celebrate the feast day of our parish, let us turn to her example, her intercession, her aide in striving to live holy lives each day.

Peace, Fr. Nick

We are in need of rhythm guitar, drums, bass, synth/organ, violin, and cello. Assumption Music Ministry's mission statement guides what we do: "A deep love of God and a commitment to exceptional liturgy impels us to express our prayer through music." If you or anyone you know might be called to this unique ministry opportunity, please take time to pray and reach out to us! Contact Bryan Beams at 636-485-2765 for information.

August 11, 2019 — Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WIS 18: 6-9; PS 33: 1, 12, 18-19, 20-22; HEB 11: 1-2, 8-19 or HEB 11: 1-2, 8-12; LK 12:32-48 or LK 12: 35-40

Whether you are just beginning your stewardship journey or have been living a stewardship way of life for years, today's readings invite us to ask ourselves an important question to ponder.

The question is this: "What do you treasure?" Of course, we all know the "right" answer: we treasure our faith, our family, and our friendships. But Jesus tells us in the Gospel passage from Luke how we can discover the real answer to this question. He says, "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

To discern what we really treasure, we need to do a check on our hearts. We can each ask ourselves, "Where do I spend the majority of my energy? Where do I find my thoughts dwelling? How do I choose to spend my time when I find myself with a few spare moments? What do my spending habits reveal about what is important to me?"

As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in grateful response to all that God has given us. Do I recognize and treasure these gifts?
