Hello,

This past week has been a week for marches. Last weekend there was the Women's March on Saturday, then on Sunday there was the Martin Luther King Day Marches, and on Friday there was the March for Life. All of these, along with any march, are aimed at drawing attention to a specific cause, to get people to recognize something or to change in a certain way. People who participate in the marches feel like they have a mission to do this, and it feels particularly like a mission if they make a journey to do this, like those who traveled to Washington D.C. to participate in the March for Life on the anniversary of the Roe vs. Wade decision legalizing abortions in the United States.

I mention these to draw attention to and to recognize the different topics that people feel the need to march for, and to take the opportunity to recognize the busload of students and chaperones from Assumption that went to Washington D.C. for the March for Life. But also, to bring up the topic of mission. We are having a mission here at the parish this week, what does that mean?

Usually we think of a mission, in the religious sense, that we are going somewhere to carry out a specific goal or task. Often it might be people of a religious order going to distant countries to evangelize people who have never known Christ. But the mission is here, at our parish. So where are we going? Hopefully we are going, or coming, to church. We are Christians, why do we need to be evangelized? Because we can, and hopefully want, to know Christ better.

The mission is from 7-8pm this coming Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and takes place in Church, with a reception to follow in the parish center. Some might say it is Fr. Sichko who is on the mission, to fire up our parishioners and help our parish to grow in our relationship with Christ. Others would say it is our mission to come to the talks. To be open to hear Fr. Sichko. To be open to hear and receive God in a way we have not before, or to be reenergized in our relationship with God.

From what I have heard about Fr. Sichko, and from what I have experienced at this parish, I am really looking forward to being on this mission with you. I pray that it will not only be good for us over the three evenings, but like the marches I mentioned in the beginning, be a point we remember that continues to inspire us into the future.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

 ASSUMPTION PARISH MISSION ***

Fr. Jim uses real lives experiences and ties those experiences into the Gospel message of Jesus Christ. Known for his presentations entitled "60 minutes for Jesus", each talk is geared for all in a family household with no exceptions. Join us for Scripture, songs, stories, laughter and a Jesus-filled 60 minutes!

PRAYER:

A heart to heart with God
"Our strength comes from the Eucharist"

Last year, Fr. Jim lead a Mission for Immaculate Conception of Dardenne, this is what Msgr. Wojcicki, Pastor of ICD, had to say about their experience: "The parishioners at ICD were very pleased with the mission presented here by Fr. Jim Sichko. He emphasized the importance of participation at Mass through singing, preparation before Mass, and staying for the whole Mass. He explained and explored the richness of the faith in a manner which was light-hearted and full of stories yet compelling and challenging. He was one of the few Mission leaders we had who inspired greater attendance each day than the day before. Our parish is already very generous to the poor and the needy; he inspired and challenged to even greater levels of generosity. Our parishioners enjoyed his interactive style with the congregation. He gave equally compelling presentations to our middle school students."

- Msgr. Ted Wojcicki, Pastor, ICD

Note: A social gathering will follow each evening service to enhance our feeling of parish community. Fr. Jim will be available for informal chats and questions and answers. He will also be selling his book and famous mother's spaghetti sauce! So that all may attend, other parish functions will be canceled during the Mission and babysitting will be provided.

What is a Mission?

A mission is a time of special grace when God call us into a deeper relationship with Him, a time for personal growth, a time to listen, and a time of spiritual refreshment and invigoration.

Who is a Mission for?

The mission is for all people, from inactive to very active. It is for all ages and for any stage in life - married, single, divorced, separated, widowed, etc. We particularly invite those who want to know more about the church today and how faith can take an active role in the everyday experiences of our lives.

January 26, 2020 — Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

IS 8:23-9:3; PS 27:1,4, 13-14; 1 COR 1:10-13,17; MT 4:12-23 or 4:12-17

Today's readings remind us that stewardship is not just a thing we do. Rather, stewardship is at the core of who we are as disciples of Christ.

Our first reading, from Isaiah, contains this prophecy of Christ and what His saving message would mean to all who embrace it. "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone." We are among those blessed people on whom the light of Christ has shone. By virtue of our baptism, we, who were once in the darkness of original sin, have been reborn into the great light that is God's grace in us.

What a privilege! Yet, with this privilege comes the responsibility to live for God and bring His good news to all we meet at work, at school, in our community, and right in our own home — in other words to live as His good stewards.

And, there is a certain urgency that comes with the call to a stewardship way of life as we see in our Gospel passage from Matthew. Jesus says, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." In other words, turn away from selfishness, turn towards God and live as His disciple now — don't wait!

In this same passage, the very first disciples give us examples of a good steward's prompt "yes" when the Lord called to them. Our Lord invites them to "Come after me and I will make you fishers of men." They did not hesitate but "immediately left their boat and followed him." They put our Lord and His will first.

This is the essence of a stewardship way of life — to be always ready for the ways our Lord is calling us to bring His light to others. It's more than something we do. It's who we are.

Upcoming RETREATS – 2020!

Women's Retreat: February 8/9

Men's Retreat: February 22/23

A CRHP Retreat is a weekend retreat designed to bring parish members together in Christ and emphasizes continued growth in Christian life. During the weekend you will find love and laughter, great food and friendship, and a renewed sense of belonging to Assumption parish. Give yourself a weekend you won't forget. Come and be spiritually renewed while enjoying awesome fellowship, making new friends, and sharing faith with fellow parishioners. It is an experience worth your time! It's also another wonderful way to begin the New Year and kick off Lent!

CRHP – WHAT IS IT: “Christ Renews His Parish” is an effective spiritual renewal process which call together the members of the parish priests and parishioners in order to experience personal conversion and Christian community in the environment of their own parish.

The secret of the “what” is its simplicity. In the context of the personal rebirth and parish revitalization it is:

A simple gospel method of renewal and/or conversion: Evangelization

A conducive environment and favorable teaching moment for repentance: New Rite of Penance

A proven experiential way of enlivening and strengthening faith: Catechesis

A communal opportunity for adult commitment: Rite of Adult Initiation

A Specific and proven period for person growth in prayer, scripture, and sharing: Spiritual Formation

A non-threatening and practical instrument for introducing ministry formation: Lay Ministry

A powerful catalyst for on-going communal and parish renewal: Christian Community Building

WHO DOES IT: A team of parishioners properly formed in prayer and love and instructed in the techniques, dynamics and content of the total process. The team formation period in itself becomes an effective “follow-up” for each weekend experience and brings the participants immediately into a group committed to spiritual growth and ministerial formation. The secret of the “who” is that you can't rent a priest or a team of experts. You have to do it yourself. Shared responsibility flows most effectively out of shared ministry. These ladies that will facilitate this retreat for you this weekend were sitting here, just like you, not so long ago. They are not trained facilitators or expert speakers. They simply followed the nudging of God to attend a retreat...
