Hello,

I read an article last week from a weekly e-mail I get from the Pew Research Center that was titled "U.S. Churchgoers are satisfied with the sermons they hear, though content varies by religious tradition." Their survey data was only based on Christians, but even among Christians it was interesting some of the differences that existed, and I thought they were actually appropriate for some of the theological differences between the religions.

When asked about their satisfaction with sermons at their place of worship 32% of Catholics said they were "Very Satisfied", 52% said they were "Somewhat Satisfied", and 15% said they were "Not too" or "Not at All" Satisfied. Much more satisfied than not, a good thing, and yet lower than the numbers for Protestants who were at 56% "Very", 37% "Somewhat", and only 7% "Not too" or "Not at all" Satisfied. While it would be nice if we all had 100% "Very Satisfied", this reflects a greater emphasis on preaching for Protestants than exists for Catholics, which is appropriate. Not that Catholics shouldn't be concerned with the quality of our preaching, but our greater concern for the Eucharist than Protestants would naturally place our relative concern with preaching at a slightly lower level than it would be for Protestants.

That was interesting, but what really got my attention was a section that identified words or sequences of words that are most distinctive of sermons in each religious tradition. The words that were most distinctively used in Catholic sermons as compared to other religions were: homily, diocese, Eucharist, paschal, and parishioner. The first one is interesting as the study used the term 'sermon', whereas at a Catholic Mass we are to give a homily. The distinction in my mind is that a homily is to be based on the Scripture readings and apply them to our lives, whereas a sermon has a moral issue or theme it wishes to convey and will usually use Scriptural references. Or my interpretation that a homily needs to start from Scripture, whereas a sermon starts with what you wish to say and then uses Scripture to support its point. The fact that we use the word diocese more than others demonstrates the importance of our unity in the Catholic Church, and I would assume the use of the word 'parishioner' has some of those connotations also. The words "Eucharist" and "paschal" again show our connection to the entire celebration of the Mass as compared to other traditions. If you want to see the words or phrases others use more than Catholics you can see the entire article at: <https://www.pewresearch.org/fact-tank/2020/01/28/u-s-churchgoers-are-satisfied-with-the-sermons-they-hear-though-content-varies-by-religious-tradition/>

One final thing I found amusing when checking a general definition of "homily" and "sermon". The third definition given for sermon was "a long, tedious speech". The third definition given for homily was "an inspirational saying or cliché." Something for Msgr. McCumber, Fr. Patrick and I to keep in mind, give a homily not a sermon.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

On April 25th, we will celebrate our 7th Annual Assumption Dinner Auction!!

This year the theme is Boots & Bling. The dinner auction proceeds directly benefit all students of our day school and PSR programs through tuition assistance, faculty development, student activities, and technology enhancements. We know that a successful auction is not possible without the remarkable support and backing of our Assumption community. We humbly ask everyone to support the auction in some way. We have an Auction Board with tags of suggested donations in the Parish Center. Please choose a card from the board and return to the Parish Office or School by March 27, 2020

Please label the donation with Auction 2020 and your Family name

Thank you for your support of the best auction this side of the Mississippi!

RCIA Last weekend our group attended the entire Mass. This year we built into our schedule, several of these events in order for our group to participate where they can and get an understanding of how the Mass flows. So appropriately, our topic for last Sunday was the 2nd part of the Mass and The Apostles Creed. This week our topic is, The Two Great Commandments and also, The Ten Commandments. Sponsors are busy writing letters to the Archbishop recommending their Candidate/Catechumenate to celebrate the Rite of Election on March 1st at the Cathedral. Please continue to pray for us!

February 9, Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

IS 58: 7-10; PS 112:4-9; 1 COR 2:1-5; MT 5:13-16

Today's readings are part pep talk and part marching orders for us as Christian stewards. They offer wonderfully clear guidance on what matters most to God in the way we prioritize our lives and the way He intends for us to use the gifts He has given us.

The first reading, from the prophet Isaiah, gives us very straightforward instructions: "Thus says the Lord: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them, and do not turn your back on your own." The Lord gives no wiggle room here — care for our brothers and sisters in need is a "must do" for the Christian steward. Note, too, that these instructions require action — to share, to shelter, to clothe, and to hang in there with your family members, even the demanding ones.

Our second reading, from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians, reassures us that we need not worry too much about our personal skill set in answering this call from the Lord to serve — for it is the Lord Himself who will act through us if we step forward in faith. Paul says of himself, and we can take his words to heart, "I did not come with sublimity of words or of wisdom... I came to you in weakness and fear and much trembling... so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God." Our weakness is no obstacle for God — He uses even our weaknesses to show His glory if we simply cooperate with Him.

Our Gospel passage, from Matthew, sends us out on our stewardship way with a bang as Jesus declares to us, His disciples, that we are the "salt of the earth" and the "light of the world." But, He adds, salt no longer gives flavor if allowed to go stale, and light cannot bring its blessed brightness if left hidden. Therefore, we must act! We must live our lives so that others will see the things that we do — the ways that we serve others, care for the vulnerable, prioritize our family relationships and, above all, our love for God — and then give Him glory.

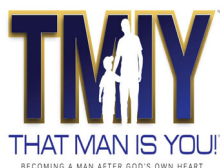

This is the stewardship way of life. Let's give it our all! ~ Excerpts from: Catholic Diocese of Wichita

TWO PUBLISHED AUTHORS WORK FOR ASSUMPTION SCHOOL

Mrs. Mona Mudd's new book, Slack Water, will be published in May, 2020. It will be available on Amazon, as well as Barnes and Noble this coming summer. Mona, hired in 2018, teaches 2nd grade.

Mrs. Deb Holmes, hired as our school nurse in 2019, is in her 5th edition of Elsevier's Medical Assisting Exam Review book, which is used internationally to prepare for Nursing certification. She is in the process of developing the 6th edition and hopes to have that in circulation by 2021.

ROBOTICS AT ASSUMPTION

FIRST Tech Challenge (FTC) – Grades 7, 8 Student build and code their own robot.

Assumption's Middle School FTC Robotics Team – ROBOBANDITS #8782

For the second year in a row, our Middle School Robotics team, moderated by Mrs. Joan Ryan and a Boeing Engineer, Mr. Carl Gentry, have moved into the Eastern Missouri Regional Competition, which is scheduled for February 22, 2020 at Fox High School.

Robot 8782 and Team RoboBandits: Lauren Roberson, Alex McCulloch, Mya Roberson, Ben Palmer, Colt Anderson, Thomas Gentry, Josh Giesmann, Adam Besse, and Charlie Chitwood

The challenge for the team has been to build and code the robot to move fluidly around a 12x12 area while building a tower. While RoboBandits build, three other teams are in the 'arena' attempting to block our team while building their own tower. The competition is difficult and amazing to watch. In 2019, RoboBandits, placed 9th out of 36 teams, which is amazing, knowing that the competition was against High School Robotics teams. We are hoping for another great finish in 2020!

FIRST Lego League (FLL) – 5 teams, grades 4-6. Students build/code their own robot

On December 7, 2019 our 5 Robotics teams: Robosaders, Junior Geniuses, RoboBroncos, RoboMonsters, and Rockin' Robots, presented on their chosen activity and also competed in the FLL (First Lego League) Qualifying Rounds at St. Dominic High School. Schools across the St. Louis region were in the competition. Each team built their robot to accomplish a defined task, coded their robot to turn, spin, go forward, backward, etc., and during the competition was remotely "driven" by team members. With great pride, we say congratulations to all teams, 3 of which placed in the top 10. Rockin' Robots placed 1st and moved onto Regionals, held in February, 2020. Rockin' Robots team #38246 has ten 6th graders: Anna K., Madison H., Zoey I., Izzy S., Kayla R., Cate M., Sydney M., Ava G., Lily K., Belle L.

Thanks for reading our school news!

Adult faith formation Lenten series: Conversion: Following the Call of Christ

This Lent you are invited to attend six sessions and explore the stories of six great biblical figures with Bishop Barron, who uses their stories as examples of how to grow closer to Christ. See flyer for additional information about dates, location and how to register. Please note there is a day and evening session on Thursdays during Lent (Same material for morning and evening sessions).

What makes one's life successful? Money? Power? Honor? Pleasure?

Most philosophies of the well-lived life are based on having something. But the Christian perspective is that it is better to be something. The goal of the Christian life is to grow in loving relationship to Christ, becoming more like Him through the immersion of our entire selves into His Church, Christ's Body. But our transformation in Christ will not occur until we recognize Him as our ultimate concern.

In Conversion: Following the Call of Christ, explore the stories of six great biblical figures with Bishop Barron, using their examples to grow closer to Christ. *W*www.wordonfire.org
