Listen To Him

Lightning and thunder! When we see the lightning, we know in that instant that heaven and earth have come together; we recognize God's glory and feel that light and energy moving within us, keeping us connected always to the Spirit of God. The lightning becomes a worthy sign of our participation in the great mystery of God's love filling all creation. Then we hear the thunder and we are frightened back to sleep.

All our readings speak of the movement from glory to glory; and the circumstances of our mortal bodies not quite able to contain the whole mystery. So we get glimpses of God's glory which prompt us to the work of becoming Christ, until Christ is all in all, when "He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body." We will live in the lightning and the thunder will cause us no fear.

Abram is invited to look at the stars of the sky, then he is told "your descendants will be just so." We are the descendants of Abram who will be transfigured into Abraham; and we are not simply numerous, we also shine like the stars of the sky... not just brightly, but in a way that literally gives life to the world. The rays of the sun are powerful and connected, as are we, together with God. After witnessing the stars in the sky, Abram moves into darkness, then the light of God's fire brings him into the new covenant with God. That is the eternal movement, from glory, into darkness and the shadow of death, then to eternal glory.

Paul warns us that we cannot make this journey without being completely honest about the cross. We cannot stay on the surface of life and expect to move into glory. We must be willing to descend with our cross, the cross of Christ, to walk through the valley of the shadow of death, and then to experience resurrection life, no longer slaves to fear or sin or death.

And it is evident that Jesus, Moses and Elijah are conversing about his "Exodus" in Jerusalem. They know he will suffer and die; they also trust that Jesus' love is more powerful than death. Again, a darkness hovers over them until the Father speaks. This time the Father says, "Listen to Him."

Are we willing to listen to Jesus? The first requirement, then, is for us to be quiet, deeply quiet. Even though the memories will stir and fear will try to send us running to our next snack, our next television show, our next gossip session; we will "stand firm in Christ." We will remain quiet and trust Jesus to speak. He enjoys spending quality time with us. Let's be sure and give quality quiet time, at least 15 minutes, to Jesus every day during Lent. He will carry us to glory.

Mary is like one of those rays of the sun which is always available to assist us in our friendship with her son. Let us follow her in her mission to bring Christ to the world.

Fr. Mitch

Prayer

Lenten Day of Prayer: Traditionally Lent for Catholics is a time to renew our hearts by prayer, fasting, and alms giving. During this retreat day, Sr. Theresa Jezl CPPS, our presenter, will concentrate on the traditional practice of prayer by leading the participants in a meditation on the Beatitudes. After this day the retreatants are invited to BE the ATTITUDES of mercy, peace, singleness of heart, and poor in spirit. Join us on Wednesday, April 3, 2019 at the Sanguis Christi Spirituality Center at 204 North Main, O'Fallon, MO from 9:30 – 3:00 pm. The cost is $35 and lunch is provided. Deadline for registration is Friday, March 29, 2019. For more information or to register, call Sr. Carol Orf at 314-560-1028 or by email corf@cpps-ofallon.org.

March 17, 2019 — Second Sunday of Lent

GN 15:5-12, 17-18; PS 27:1, 7-9, 13-14; PHIL 3:17-4:1 or PHIL 3:20-4:1; LK 9:28B-36

In last week's Gospel, we followed Jesus into the desert where He fasted and prayed. This week, He leads us up a mountain to witness His Transfiguration. Why both of these experiences?

He is preparing us to go with Him in a few short weeks to a hilltop — Golgatha — where He will lay down His life for our sake, and then finally to take us to an empty cave where He triumphed over sin and death once and for all.

Jesus perfectly understands our humanity. He knows we need desert experiences — times of self-denial and testing — in order to arrive at mountain-top moments when we see and feel His glorious presence in our lives. The purpose of these two types of experiences is summed up in the description of the Apostles who were with Jesus at that mountain-top experience in today's Gospel: "Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory...."

The reason for all of our fasting and prayer and almsgiving during lent is to be reawakened to all God has done for humanity, and to all that He has done for each of us personally. It is all too easy to get lulled into complacency in our daily routines, to "sleepwalk" through life, getting up and getting ourselves out the door, going to work, returning home for dinner and dishes, meetings or sports activities, and finally flopping on the couch to watch TV until bedtime. While there is nothing inherently sinful in this routine, as Christian stewards, we are called to so much more!

This lent, let us train ourselves, or more precisely, allow Him to train us to say "Yes" to His will and to offer our lives back to Him in gratitude. In so doing, we, too, will become "transfigured." This is what it means to live fully awake; this is a stewardship way of life and it is glorious indeed.

STATIONS — OF THE — CROSS

The Stations of the Cross

The most important reason for reviving the practice of making the Stations of the Cross is that it is a powerful way to contemplate, and enter into, the mystery of Jesus' gift of himself to us. It takes the reflection on the passion out of our heads, and makes it an imaginative exercise. It can involve our senses, our own experiences and our emotions... to the extent that - we come to experience the love of Jesus for us.

Please join us either at 2:30pm in the Chapel or 7:00pm in Church (except where noted in the bulletin).

The Rite of Sending and The Rite of Election that was celebrated last Sunday formally brings to an end the catechumenate period, the time that these individuals have spent exploring church teachings and reflecting on the Word of God. Did you notice that only certain people signed the Book of Elect? According to the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, in the combined rite for sending catechumens and candidates (530-546), it is clear that only catechumens sign the Book of the Elect even when candidates participate in this combined rite of sending. For those of us who are baptized, (Candidates) we can recall that it is God who first chose us, and we responded by professing our faith and entering into the waters of baptism. In the same way, it is God who first called and chose the catechumens (unbaptized). Their signature, then, is not just a sign of their commitment to be faithful to the God who chose them; it is a sign that God has placed their names onto the roll of those who will put their lives on the line, first by dying in the waters of baptism, then by sacrificing themselves and living as resurrected people every day after. Want to make a difference this Lent? One of the most powerful things you can do is pick up a prayer card and pray for your individual and the group. Include a note, card or just say one or two words. These are given to each one on our retreat day which is scheduled for Palm Sunday. Take several and as a family, pray for them. We thank you for your overwhelming support. Please return your cards to the basket in the Narthex by April 7th.
