Hello and Happy Easter,

While last Sunday was Easter, we are still in the Octave (or eight days) of Easter and all of this is in the Easter Season. As St Athanasius described it, "The fifty days from the Sunday of the Resurrection to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one feast day, indeed as one 'great Sunday.'" With this understanding I hope it is realistic to consider we might be able to be together again this Easter.

I imagine that when we can start gathering again things will not just be back to normal, but it will be in some form of steps like it was before we had to end our public Masses. If possible, since we were not able to bring those in RCIA into the Church at the Easter Vigil and they were not able to receive the sacraments, the hope is that we will be able to at the end of the Easter Season, at Pentecost, when we traditionally celebrate the birthday of the Church and the descent of the Holy Spirit. If we cannot make that date, we will find another appropriate time for this celebration.

Similarly, those who were to receive their First Communion this weekend and our eighth graders who were to receive the sacrament of Confirmation at the Cathedral this coming Saturday, these will also have to be rescheduled to a time when we can gather again. We don't know when that will be yet but this is another celebration we will be able to look forward too.

A piece of good news that happened during Holy Week was the reception of an SBA loan from the government. The previous Friday evening we found out that being a religious organization did not prevent us from applying for this loan, the intent of which is to keep personnel on payroll and to keep businesses running. With the effects of limited gatherings on our school and our not being able to come together for Mass and other parish activities our contributions have been significantly affected and I was having to make decisions on temporary reductions in employee hours and pay. This loan not only has given us finances to be able to meet our payroll and not reduce our employee hours, but also a significant portion of the loan may be forgiven if used appropriately for payroll and keeping people employed.

The total amount of our loan that we have received is $590,000, with potentially $460,000 of this loan being forgiven. While many of our parishioners have continued to make their normal donations to the parish and some have even made special significant additional donations at this time, even with reductions in employee hours we would not have been able to continue to meet our payroll this month without some type of loan. I mention this to let you know that while we are very grateful for this loan it does not mean that we are not still very dependent and appreciative of your continued support of our parish. With an annual budget of almost $5,000,000 we still depend upon your generous contributions.

Thank you also for all of your prayers and signs of support for me, my fellow priests and deacons, and all of our parish. I pray that through this Easter Season we may be able to continue to support one another with the awareness of all the incredible gifts God has given us, especially of the gift he offers of eternal life.

Peace and Joy,

Fr. Nick

From the Principal's Pen

With e-Learning (distance learning) continuing, I thought you might like to see a sample (2nd grade class) of what a lesson plan looks like. Although the one below does not include all subjects, it will give you an idea of what teachers are doing on a daily basis. You will notice, the first item is a video, which each teacher creates for her class each day. This video includes a morning prayer and a summary of activities for that day. The plan is preceded by a note from the teacher...

Parents,

Welcome to Holy Week. This week we will slow down and take the time to fully experience the holiest week of our church year. It's easy to forget the miracles that are happening all around us as we remember Jesus's most blessed sacrifice. I wanted to share with you a link which guides children through Holy Week: <https://us.magnificat.net/flipbook/KID/sample/2/>.

In the classroom, we will be launching something new. There will be a Zoom meeting on Tuesday at 10:00 am -- just to say Hello! Look to receive a link in your email and an access code. I can't wait to see all of your children's faces again!

Thanks, Mrs. Mudd

Stewardship Thoughts...*Time

- ♦ Prayer is the foundation of Stewardship. Ask God how He wants you to use your gifts in this present moment and in our current circumstances.
- ♦ Our schedules have changed, our family dynamics have changed, and our levels of anxiety and stress may have risen. Trust that God is with us. Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance before reacting.
- ♦ What virtue would you like to grow in? Ask for intercession from a patron saint for help. For example, ask St. Paul for guidance to grow in patience.
- ♦ Talk with your family on how to develop your domestic church.

Talent

- ♦ Stewardship is all about relationship - with God and each other.
- ♦ Call family and friends to see how they are doing. Don't give advice, just be there for them and let them talk.
- ♦ Mend a broken relationship. Just as we are asking for God's mercy in this time of global crisis, we need to offer mercy and forgiveness to those who have wronged us.
- ♦ In many parishes, parishioners are calling on fellow parishioners to make sure they are OK during the stay-at-home order. Divide your parish roster up alphabetically among ministry leaders and call ten people per day. You will be amazed at the response and friendships that develop.

Treasure

- ♦ Stewardship is about generously sharing our gifts without expecting anything in return.
- ♦ Two of the Archdiocese's approved electronic offertory suppliers, Faith Direct and Liturgical Publications Inc., have offered to waive some fees for new and existing parish customers. Please contact the following people for more information:
- ♦ Faith Direct: Leslie Stanion - leslie@faithdirect.net.
- ♦ Liturgical Publications Inc. - Keith Alberts - kalberts@4lpi.com.
- ♦ If your parish does not use electronic offertory, please contact one of our approved suppliers to start. Click here for the list of approved suppliers and contact information.
- ♦ If your parish does use electronic offertory, please promote it and make people aware it is available. Do this every week. Make an announcement during your live-streamed Mass.
- ♦ Also, during your live-streamed Mass, let people know that even though Mass or the parish grade school may not be open to the public, the parish is still open. Their generous financial support is still needed to sustain the mission and ministry of the parish.

Offertory

- ♦ Just like attending Sunday Mass or participating in parish ministries are a part of our faith, so is generously sharing our money to support the mission and ministry of our parish and greater Church.
- ♦ The offertory collection at Mass isn't just a financial transaction with God.
- ♦ Offertory is a gift of our entire self. A gift of thanksgiving for all that we have been given and a sacrifice of yourself in union with Jesus for the good of others.
- ♦ Trust is a key factor in any relationship, especially our relationship with God.
- ♦ Do you really trust that God will provide all that we need?
- ♦ Just like the parable of the mustard seed or the scene from the miracle of the loaves & fishes, God can do wonders with all gifts.
- ♦ No gift is too small or insignificant.
- ♦ Currently, we can't be together to celebrate Mass nor can we work together in parish ministry, but we all can still make a gift of ourselves, of our sacrifices, by financially supporting our parish and our charities either electronically or through the mail.

Stewardship Thoughts

"By not praying for guidance before we charge ahead, we can miss out on experiencing all Christ can do in and through us." Scripture Union

"With the power of God's word and protection, goodness will always triumph if we remain persistent in the fight." Angie Windnagle

"There is no magic formula to helping others, except keeping our eyes open and our hands ready. Make the connection and don't wait for them to ask for help." Joseph Sica

"We can get a fairly accurate measure of our spiritual progress by examining our speech. The more we speak well of our brothers and sisters, the closer we will come to God." Fr. Andrew Apostoli

"To be a great listener requires patience, focus, awareness, and most of all, it requires us to set aside our own agenda." Matthew Kelly

"I have never seen a compassionate and charitable man die a bad death." St. Augustine

Thank You – To all of our parish priests during this time. Hang in there, we are praying for you.

The closing prayer is twofold:

The Pope's prayer intention for April - we pray for those suffering from addiction may be helped and accompanied. For a cure of the virus that has impacted so many people world-wide.

"Jesus, Our Savior, your walking among us brought liberation to many: from disease, from unclean spirits, from paralysis and blindness. Today, many of our brothers and sisters are prisoners of so many forms of dependence. We ask you to place on their way attentive people who can help them. May your Holy Spirit give them light to recognize their situation, strength and courage to win this fight, and the joy of helping those who are going through these difficulties. Amen."
