Hello,

We have begun celebrating public Masses again and so far, it has been going well, people are respecting our guidelines and one another and the sanitizing after Masses is not as challenging as we had feared. We have also been able to pick up a few other ideas and refinements on what we had planned based on our experiences during the week so hopefully our Sunday services can be even safer, smoother, and more reverent than they might have been.

Monday morning we had about 25 people at the 6:30am Mass and 80 at the 8am Mass, with about 13 at the 6:30 on Tuesday and about 45 at the 8am. After that we had to get ready to celebrate a funeral for parishioner Martha Keeven, it was a great celebration of her life and with a large family, even with it being live-streamed, we had a good number at the service that gave us a little idea of what to expect this weekend.

Celebrating a funeral, and also this Monday being Memorial Day, hopefully reminds us of this great gift of life God has given us. We realize that these physical bodies are meant for finite lives and we need to live them, but also how much we need to respect and care for it. These are hopefully thoughts we are also putting into action as we make decisions about what we should or should not be doing while we consider the risks for ourselves and others related to COVID-19.

This afternoon I received a phone call stating that Fr. Gene Bendel had died. He had served as an associate pastor here at Assumption between the years of 1961-1967, and then he came back here again in 2001 and stayed through 2014. Then last summer he moved into the nursing home across the street. That is where I got to know him a little as he would con-celebrate Mass with us on Sundays when one of the priests from the parish would go over to the nursing home to celebrate their 11am Sunday Mass. When he first moved in, he would often proclaim the Gospel at the Mass from his wheelchair, and then at the offertory his chair would be moved next to the altar so he could participate in the Eucharistic prayer. After a few months he would no longer proclaim the Gospel but did still wear a priest's stole at Mass and concelebrate, moving to the altar for the Eucharistic prayer. The last couple of months we could still go over to celebrate Mass in the nursing home he had some weeks where he wasn't well enough to come to Mass with us but others where he was back doing well. Recently he caught the COVID-19 virus and died Monday due to complications associated with it.

I am sharing this little I knew of Fr. Gene with you for a few reasons. Hopefully many of you in the parish were able to have known him much better than I did and can share some of their memories with others of him. Also, because he demonstrated the value of the Eucharist to him in continuing to concelebrate the Mass even when he was having physical difficulties. But also, it reminds us that this virus is deadly and does take lives. Sometimes it takes the death of someone we know for that to be realized. Deciding if it is right for you to come to celebrate Mass with us at church I hope you do treasure the gift of the Eucharist and the Mass we can celebrate together, but also respect the gift of this physical life God has given us and take seriously the risks for yourself and others in deciding whether to come to Mass as well as other activities in your life.

Please keep Fr. Gene and each other in your prayers.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

SANITIZE PARTY AFTER EACH MASS!

Please join us in sanitizing our church! After each Mass, we are looking for about 20-25 people to help us sanitize church in between Masses. If you are able to stay for about 15 minutes after Mass to help, we would greatly appreciate it!! Many hands make light work! Gloves, cloths, spray cleaner are all available in the back of church! THANK YOU!!!

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE REFLECTION:

The Catechism says this about Offertory at Mass, "The presentation of the offerings at the altar... commits the Creator's gifts into the hands of Christ who, in His sacrifice, brings to perfection all human attempts to offer sacrifices. From the very beginning, Christians have brought, along with the bread and wine for the Eucharist, gifts to share with those in need. This custom of the collection, ever appropriate, is inspired by the example of Christ who became poor to make us rich." (CCC 1350 and 1351)

The Offertory collection at Holy Mass is our invitation to imitate Jesus; to give the gift of our whole self without expecting anything in return. Unfortunately, today, I suspect the collection is just seen as a financial transaction with God.

But God doesn't need our money; rather we have a need to give. Why? Because we were created in God's image and likeness. Just as some family members may look and sound alike or even have similar body gestures because of traits they inherited from their earthly parents, we too, have inherited the generosity trait from our Heavenly Father, the most generous giver of all.

When most people go to a family member or friend's house for a party or celebration, they typically bring a gift - a bottle of wine or some food to share. Maybe they order out for pizza and share in the cost. But it's not just the visible material things we bring, more importantly, it's the invisible things we bring to the party like love, friendship, joy, hospitality, gratitude, and generosity. It is the combination of visible and invisible gifts that makes the gathering a celebration.

Don't you think this is an interesting parallel to the Sunday celebration of Mass? Do you trust God will provide all that you need? If so, know that God may be using you as the answer to someone else's prayer. You may be the key to someone starting a loving relationship with Him through your generous sharing of your visible and invisible gifts.

Some of us have lost our jobs. Some of us are still fortunate to have a job. Whatever our circumstance, we are all being called in this present moment into a loving relationship with God and each other. God will use our current situation for good but we have to do our part and make room for the Holy Spirit to operate in our hearts.

The Sunday collection, the Offertory, is the gift of our whole self - the visible and the invisible.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS:

"Virtue must be sought out and can be acquired only by continual practice. You learn to ride a bike by riding a bicycle. You learn to be patient by practicing patience." From the book, *Better Together

"God makes saints as He pleases, but they are made always according to His plan, and in submission to His will."

This submission is true and most perfect abandonment." Fr. Jean Pierre de Caussade

"Mass is not about us. It is about our relationship with God." Fr. John Mayo

"What feels best for you may not be the best for the people around you. Someone with genuine self-esteem understands that self-fulfillment is not about self-satisfaction." Fr. J. Augustine Wetta

"Avoiding the Cross is the essence of the demonic. Consider the softness of the Church today: the desire to accommodate herself to the world, shrinking away from sacrifice and self-denial." Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen

"The riddles of life are more satisfying than the solutions of man." G.K. Chesterton

"Lord, grant me the grace to walk with You through circumstances that make no sense to me." Scripture Union U.S.A.

Dear parishioners,

It has been a true blessing to be in mission with the faith community at Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary parish. Over the last 15 years of my employment I have been privileged to have firsthand experience of the love and vitality of this parish. So often I have been the recipient of your kind words, heart-felt actions and spiritual support. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to work alongside you in my role as Director of Religious Education. Which makes this next sentence a somewhat solemn moment for me: I am being called elsewhere and will discover what is next for me in my journey. My last date of employment will be June 30, 2020. I am thankful for the friendships I have formed as well as the opportunities to learn more deeply the value of what it means to be in relationship. Be assured I will continue to hold you in the highest esteem and in deepest prayer. Please join me in praying for the person whom God is calling next to be in mission with you. S/he will discover very quickly the abundant blessings this faith community freely grants one another. Peace be with you.

THANK YOU FOR DONATING!

Blood Drive - Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!

Mississippi Valley Regional Blood Center collected twenty-seven units of blood at our recent blood drive. We are so grateful that, in this reality of COVID-19, so many were able and willing to provide the "gift of life" to those in need. If you came and were able to donate, and even if you were not, may God bless you for your thoughtfulness and generosity! There is always a great need for blood in our community and we are grateful to all parishioners who come to our drives. Your "gift of life" will help at least 81 individuals in our community. By your act of kindness, you are bringing Christ to the world.

Those who attended this drive, I believe, will agree that the flow of the appointments was much better than in previous drives. This is possible because appointments were scheduled ahead of time and Mississippi Valley was able to schedule staff accordingly. Although walk-ins will always be welcomed, please consider scheduling appointments at future drives to keep your waiting time to a minimum. If you have any comments or questions about the Assumption blood drives, or need assistance in scheduling appointments, please contact me, Mary Anne Robinson, at 636-541-2823.

Please mark your calendars for the remaining scheduled 2020 blood drives at Assumption:
Tuesday, August 4; Sunday, November 8.
