The Feast of Ascension and The Feast of Pentecost

The Feast of the Ascension of Christ and the Feast of Pentecost, which we celebrate next week, belong together. The accounts of both feasts in the Acts of the Apostles provide a running narrative which connects the two events. In the gospels, Jesus often promises to send the Holy Spirit. He also teaches us that we cannot cling to Him; we must let Him go to the Father so that the Spirit can come. It is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our hearts which awakens us to the very presence of the Risen Christ within us, all around us and among us in community.

At the center of both of these events we see Mary, the mother of Jesus and our mother. Mary is the first disciple. She is fully present to the Apostles, helping them in their mission of bringing Christ to the world. After all, Mary is the one who brought Christ into the world through the mystery of the Incarnation. Who, more than she, is capable of bringing the Spirit of the Risen Christ into the hearts of those who wish to follow Him?

I encourage us all to trust the promises of Christ as we await the descent of the Holy Spirit. And I encourage us all to devote ourselves more fervently to Mary. Just as she stood in the center of the Apostles, Mary stands at the center of our community, carrying our prayers to her son and sharing his grace with us. Please set aside time to pray the Rosary in your neighborhoods; let the mysteries of Christ awaken in you and let your love for your neighbor reach even to the ends of the earth, beginning with the corner of your block.

Together with Mary, let us bring Christ to the world.

Fr. Mitch

Prayer

Pentecost is going to be epic this year!

"Lord, teach us how to pray...so Jesus told them, 'pray in this way: Our Father, who art in heaven..." (Luke 11:1-2)

Have you noticed that Jesus invites us to pray collectively, as a united community of believers to our Father? In the Gospels He calls us to intercede, go before the Father, and keep asking. We already know that prayer changes us and spending time with each other also changes us so it makes sense that, in recent years, many parishes have created a platform for neighborhoods to come together and pray. They call this gathering Block Rosaries. Imagine if today we all gathered with our neighbors and prayed the rosary together; lifting up prayers for the world! In order for us to pray together, though, we need your help!

Prior to Pentecost, a Block rosary captain—which is a friendly neighbor of yours—is going to invite families to gather together to pray the rosary as a neighborhood community once a week. (The rosary will be led by the Block Captain or someone s/he encourages.) It would be epic to have as many neighborhoods as possible praying the rosary together on Pentecost Sunday and beyond!

I hope you are willing to place on your schedule: pray the rosary. By doing so, you will give something in addition to prayer; you will give time and space for relationships—one with each other as well as one with our amazing God. Be sure to check out the map of our parish boundaries that is in the narthex. You can locate not only your own home but notice all those red dots around you—those are parishioners as well. It's exciting to see so many neighbors who have the opportunity to pray together!

ACTS 2:2-4

"And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind. . . . And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit."

ALL ARE INVITED TO WEAR RED PENTECOST SUNDAY, JUNE 9TH

On June 9th the Church celebrates the great feast of Pentecost! We celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit who empowers us to live and love as Jesus, utilizing His very power in this world. The color for Pentecost is RED and you will see the priests wear red vestments. We invite everyone to wear RED on June 9 if you can do that easily, as an outward sign of our inward openness to the Holy Spirit and belief in His power among us.

Whether you are able to wear RED or not, may people be able to see in our lives the very power of the Holy Spirit alive in our hearts!

June 2, 2019 — The Ascension of the Lord

ACTS 1:1-11; PS 47:2-3, 6-9; EPH 1:17-23 or HEB 9:24-28; 10:19-23; LK 24: 46-53

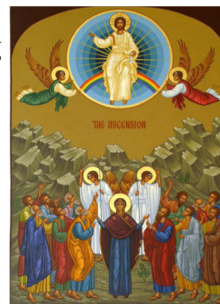

On this Feast of the Ascension, we celebrate Christ's triumphant return to the Father after perfectly accomplishing His mission on earth. But we also can also view this Feast as a celebration of the "launch day" of our commissioning as Christ's disciples.

Today's Gospel draws our attention to the clear instructions that Jesus gave His disciples (and to us) just before ascending to the Father: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Embracing a stewardship way of life, with its emphasis on the use of time, talent and treasure, helps us to live in such a way that our very lives speak as a witness of the Good News of the Gospel. While we take time to reflect and renew our commitments in these three areas annually as a parish family, it is of great benefit to take some time individually throughout the year to take stock of the commitments we have made — looking at both our strengths and our need for continued growth in each area.

On this Feast of our "launch day," take some time to celebrate your victories as Christ's disciples and renew your commitment to remain faithful to Him and the unique mission He has entrusted to you!

Missouri lawmakers pass historic pro-life bill banning abortions after eight weeks

By Jennifer Brinker, Journalist for the St. Louis Review

After long debate and hours of intense negotiations, Missouri lawmakers have passed a sweeping measure that places further restrictions on abortions in the state, including a ban on abortions after eight weeks of pregnancy.

Gov Mike Parson signed the "Missouri Stands for the Unborn Act" at a small gathering at his office May 24, with members of the House and Senate and other pro-life leaders present.

"By signing this bill today, we are sending a strong signal to the nation that, in Missouri, we stand for life, protect women's health, and advocate for the unborn," he said in a written statement. "All life has value and is worth protecting."

House Bill 126, sponsored by Rep. Nick Schroer, R-O'Fallon and a member of Assumption Parish in O'Fallon, initially began as a ban on abortions after the detection of a fetal heartbeat. It was later revised in the Senate as an outright eight-week ban. Other measures include:

- a ban on abortion at later gestations, between 14 and 20 weeks, if the eight-week ban is struck down by the courts. Currently, Missouri law allows abortions through 21 weeks and six days, although statistics on abortion from the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services show that some abortions have been performed 21 weeks and later;
- enactment of the "Right to Life of the Unborn Child Act," which would ban all abortions in Missouri if Roe vs. Wade is overturned, a federal Human Life Amendment is adopted, or a federal Human Life bill is enacted;

- a ban on abortions for reasons including Down syndrome, race or gender;
- a requirement for a second custodial parent to be notified when a minor is seeking an abortion, with certain exceptions;
- an increase on medical malpractice insurance requirements for those who perform or induce abortions and adds additional insurance requirements for doctors who induce abortions using chemicals or drugs;
- recognition that God is the author of life and states that Missouri is a "sanctuary of life" that protects pregnant women and unborn children;

The bill has an exception in cases where the mother is at risk of death or serious physical harm. There is no specific written exception for cases of rape or incest; however, a woman would still be able to access abortion or emergency contraceptives up until eight weeks.

The House also voted in favor of an emergency clause for the two-parent notification provision to be effective upon the governor's signature. The majority of the rest of the bill will go into effect Aug. 28.

In a May 17 statement, Archbishop Robert J. Carlson wrote: "During the Annual March for Life in January, I walked with those proclaiming a culture of life. We all have a responsibility to do what we can so that in this nation, in our families, in our archdiocese, we choose life unconditionally. What we are now witnessing here in Missouri are lawmakers exercising that responsibility, and we commend them for working to protect the innocent and vulnerable. We pray that the love of Jesus Christ touches our hearts, so we all become witnesses to the protection and nurturing of all life."

A provision passed by the Senate is an expansion of the tax credit program for pregnancy resource centers. The bill removes the program's annual cap of $3.5 million. It also will allow 70 percent of a donation to be tax-credit eligible; the program currently allows 50 percent of a donation to be eligible for a tax credit.

This is important for pregnancy resource centers, which often run out of available tax credits before the end of the year, said Deacon Sam Lee, a pro-life lobbyist with Campaign Life Missouri. "As the number of abortions continues to go down, the needs of women who are choosing to carry their babies to term increases. Therefore, the services that should be available to them need to increase," Deacon Lee said.

Sen. Bob Onder, R-Lake St. Louis, who was behind the measure in the Senate, expressed disappointment that some concessions were made in the Senate's version; however, he described it as "a very good pro-life bill." Missouri now joins a number of other states, including Alabama and Georgia, to recently pass broad measures further restricting abortions. Onder said all of this places more pressure upon the U.S. Supreme Court to revisit the issue.

"I think what we will see is a split between various circuits, and there will be pressure for the Supreme Court to revisit other poorly decided abortion decisions made throughout the years," said Onder, a member of St. Gianna Parish in Wentzville. "We will see more action. I think the next abortion case will bring us in the right direction."

Parson held a rally at his office late on May 16, in which he said, "we have the opportunity to become one of the strongest pro-life states in the country. It is a God-given right to live. And that's why we're here today, to protect people that don't have a voice."

Schroer, a member of Assumption Parish in O'Fallon, previously cited his Catholic upbringing in his desire to protect unborn human life through this legislation.

"I hope through this we can have a continued dialogue on when life begins," he said. "I believe that life begins at conception, and this is giving a voice to the voiceless."

Deacon Lee added that the bill "continues Missouri's strong commitment to protecting unborn children and helping pregnant women by declaring we are a sanctuary for life."

Parson encouraged Missourians to get involved in efforts to support life, such as adoption, volunteering at a pregnancy resource center or joining with a faith community to provide support to individuals to choose life.

"Thanks to decades of pro-life leadership, Missouri recently hit an all-time low for the number of abortions," he said. "We've gone from a high of more than 20,000 in our state, to now below 3,000. By working together, we can continue to assist more Missourians in choosing life."
