Hello,

Last week Jim Hager, our parish business manager for the last 18 years, died. We celebrated a funeral Mass for him on Thursday morning which he had fully planned out, part of the reason he was such a good business manager. But he had also become a good friend to many in the parish throughout the years. Not only did he welcome people in a cheerful mood but he also was always curious and seeking to learn, not in a nosy way, but in a caring way. This not only made it easy to become friends when I came here last year, but also allowed me to benefit from his history here in knowing so much of what has gone on through the last two decades and the people involved. Please keep Jim, his daughter Mary, and all his friends and family in your prayers.

Many other things are also happening in the parish. This weekend we get to celebrate the welcoming into the church of those who have been going through RCIA this past year. Normally this would have happened at our Easter Vigil, but with all of our COVID-19 related restrictions that wasn't possible. We have had a few weeks back to public Masses so hopefully we can celebrate these Baptisms, receptions into the Church, Confirmations, and First Communions with the proper physical distancing required for the virus while not being too preoccupied with that concern that we are also open to the Holy Spirit and all the gifts the sacraments can bring.

In some ways it can be very distracting, always having to be conscious of what we touch or getting too close to people, reminding yourself to put your mask on. But in other ways it is good to take the time to really look at what we are doing, consider why we are doing what we are doing. Not just taking things for granted and going through motions but being forced to consider how we are cautious regarding the virus, but at the same time respectful of the sacraments we are celebrating. I know the first week back distributing the Eucharist took quite a bit of focus, but this last weekend it was already more comfortable with our procedures but the additional attention did allow me to more fully appreciate the gift of this sacrament.

This last week another topic other than just COVID-19 has gotten our attention, the death of George Floyd and the reactions to it. This again has brought public attention to the historical and continual abuse of positions of power and authority to inflict harm on others driven by racist beliefs and ideas and our society that allows this to continue. This has been a plague on our country for centuries. Even with the attention this has received over the past few years the frustration and fear due to these continued abuses only grows. The recent response of protests and some riots has been the only means some feel they have to bring attention to this practice, to make a change.

It shouldn't take a virus to make us appreciate the Eucharist, and it shouldn't take senseless death to make us aware of the need to overcome systemic racism in our society. But the greater tragedy is if after gaining such awareness, that we would let it fade again. May we always reverence the body of Christ in the Eucharist, and in one another.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and life...the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them" (CCC 234). It is one of the mysteries of faith "that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God" (CCC 237, quoting Dei Filius 4). And once this mystery is revealed to us in God's divine goodness, even though it seems an impenetrable paradox — one God in three Persons — we recognize that the reality of the Triune God is exactly what we need...what we were made for.

Jesus – the Son of God

When we meet such a man in Jesus Christ, we can't help but to respond the way people in the Gospel do: Where did this man get all this? Don't we know his father and moth- er? Isn't this the son of the carpenter? Which means that the automatic impulse when we meet Jesus Christ is to presume that what makes him so unique and exceptional — unlike anyone else we have ever met — is his Father.

The Son of God exposes our presumption: You know me and also know where I am from. Yet I did not come on my own, but the one who sent me, whom you do not know, is true (Jn 7:28). The more we gaze upon Jesus Christ in all his ineffable goodness, the more we are compelled to cry with Philip, Show us the Father (Jn 14:8).

God – the Father

And Jesus does just that, revealing to us the most tender and attentive Father who knows what we need before we ask him. The Father of Jesus gives good things to anyone who prays to him. The Father turns his Son luminously radiant in the Transfiguration for us to behold — hope for our own transformation in holiness.

"Christ's whole earthly life," the Catechism teaches, "his words and deeds, his silences and sufferings, indeed his manner of being and speaking — is Revelation of the Father" (516).

But it is especially in the Passion and Death of Jesus Christ that we feel the Father closest to us. Our love of the cross is what makes that closeness permanent. For our divine Savior dying on the cross does not invoke his own godly authority, as would be his right, saying to his crucifiers, "I forgive you." Rather, he takes advantage even of this final agony to show us the Father in the resplendence of his mercy.

The Person of the Holy Spirit

Our encounter with Jesus Christ brings about in us a love so great for him that we cannot bear Jesus ever departing from us. Christ's promise to send us the Holy Spirit saves us from despair. The Spirit will remain with us and will keep making Jesus Christ present. He will give us life, conforming us more and more to Jesus. This divine Person will guide us to all truth and meaning and purpose. The Holy Spirit will instruct us in everything and remind us of all that Jesus told us.

We would be lost without a divine Spirit united to our human spirit empowered to inspire us with the ability to rise above our weaknesses and limitations, to change us into persons of courage, and to make us other Christs in the world — exactly what is promised us through the grace of the Sacrament of Confirmation.

As Saint Cyril of Alexandria assures us, The Holy Spirit gathers together those who are distinct from each other as individuals and causes them all to be seen as a unity in himself." And in that otherwise impossible unity — the Church — the Blessed Trinity manifests itself to the world in all God's glorious splendor.

Witnesses for Jesus

This journey of faith is not always easy. Sometimes the greatest wounds are those we suffer when family members and friends wander away from God and leave us behind. The faith they had when they were younger is now strained, or they see the daily walking with Jesus to be too difficult. For them, Jesus becomes what Peter wrote about when he described Jesus as the stone that causes people to stumble and the rock that makes them fall. Our journey is hard enough but watching a loved one stumble and fall is heart-breaking.

What are we to do in such a situation? Most importantly, we pray. We must realize that God is more powerful than us, and even if we can't make them see the truth, He can. Then we witness to the transformative power of Jesus by our own lives. We need to serve him in word and deed. We should let a joy of being a disciple enlighten our faces. Allow Jesus to work through us so that others may be drawn to him. Lastly, we must never lose hope. Many have walked long journeys alone only to find God far down the road. What will it take to bring someone to Christ? It might be an action, a word, or an emotion. We never know how certain people will be touched. That loved one is a gift from God in your life. Place them back in God's hands, and let Him pick them up if they have stumbled and fallen. ~Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The Most Holy Trinity – June 7, 2020

*Ex 34:4B-6, 8-9; 2 Cor 13:11-13;
Jn 3: 16-18*

It is said that the will of God will not lead you where the grace of God will not protect you. As missionary disciples, we often face tasks that seem daunting or unmanageable. We certainly see that today in the reading from Exodus. Moses has been asked to lead the "stiff necked" Israelites to the promised land, but they are troubled by their own unfaithfulness. So God joins them. They carry the Ark of the Covenant as a reminder of God's physical presence with them as they make the difficult journey. In John's Gospel, we see the renewal of that covenant in Jesus Christ, who was sent to live and move amongst us and to die for our sins. Then, after Jesus' ascension, God sent the Holy Spirit to dwell within us! God may ask us to do some difficult work, but He never abandons us to do the work on our own. He is with us "even to the end of the age."
