Welcome

OUR LIFE IN THE TRINITY

In the first story of creation, on the sixth day, God says, "Let us make man in our image (Gn. 1:26)." From the very beginning God is revealed as relationship. God is in communion with the Son and the Spirit; then God is in communion with us and we are in communion with each other. Everything else, which flows from the mouth of God, from the heart of God, from the breath of God, all of creation and all of the scriptures reveals this communion. We often speak of God who creates, the Son who redeems and the Spirit who sanctifies; then our role is to respond to God's grace and cooperate with God's plan for our salvation. It is ok to include these roles in our sharing of the faith, but by themselves our story of faith looks like a transaction between the Creator and the created. We risk losing the intimacy, the passion, the wild extravagance of God's love poured out in all of creation, making all things new, bringing eternity to every moment of history.

We worship Father, Son and Spirit because God is fully present to us in every experience of our lives. We know God as Father, Son and Spirit because God is love. Love is relational; any experience of true love reveals God's saving power at work in our lives. And only love can reveal God's presence. When we love we participate in the very life of God, we respond to our call to live in the Divine image. As we witness God's love for the Son and the gift of the Spirit pouring forth from the love between Father and Son we learn what it means for us to be like God. The most eloquent testimony is offered on the cross: The Father surrenders his Son; the Father surrenders his own fatherhood; the Son surrenders his own life, he loses his claim to the Kingdom; and the Spirit recreates the world from the surrendering love of Father and Son. We are called to love like that, with complete surrender and with abandon, trusting that love is indeed more powerful than death.

Let us not spend too much time analyzing creation, redemption and sanctification. Let us rather seek to be caught up in the mystery of an overflowing love which prompts us only to be holy, to dance and to fall into the arms of God.

Howdy! My name is Fr. Patrick Russell and I was just ordained a few short weeks ago! I am overjoyed to serve at such a vibrant parish. As for a little about me: I hail from Florissant originally, where I went to St. Norbert's Grade School. From there I went to DeSmet for my first two years of high school, but finished up at Duchesne High School in St. Charles, where I graduated in 2010. That same year I entered seminary and nine years later here I am! I cannot wait to get started at this amazing parish and to serve as part-time chaplain at St. Dominic High School. Please pray for me and I promise to pray for you. I cannot wait to meet and love you all!

God Bless!

Fr. Patrick

June 16, 2019 The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

PRV 8:22-31; PS 8: 4-9; ROM 5:1-5; JN 16: 12-15

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. What we are commemorating is a central reality of our Christian faith, that God is Trinitarian in nature — three distinct persons in one God.

The Church calls this truth a mystery, as indeed it is. Some have said that "mystery" in this context is "not a wall to run up against but an ocean in which to swim." Contemplating the "ocean depths" of this mystery can make us humans feel so small, and almighty God so far from us. Yet nothing could be further from the truth as today's readings demonstrate.

In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that God is intimately connected to us. "The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." God wants to live in the very depths of our being and in all the intimate details of our lives if we will let Him.

And in the Gospel from St. John, we learn that God holds back nothing of Himself from us. Jesus tells His disciples (this includes us!) that the Holy Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything the Father has is mine." Thus we find ourselves drawn right into the midst of this Trinitarian love. In fact, if the mystery of Holy Trinity is an ocean which to swim, the "water" that makes up that ocean is love.

What, then, should be the response of the Christian steward to this sublime mystery? All we can do is worship and offer our lives back to God in total gratitude for calling us to live in the richness of such unfathomable love.

God our Father, We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with Fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

Please guide every father with the Spirit of Your love that they may grow in holiness and draw their family every closer to You.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

2019/20 Member & Ministry Directory - Advertising Opportunity

Membership & Ministry Directory will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call, Tracy Vatterot, the Production Coordinator at Guide Book Publishing, 1-800-597-3037 Ext:211.

Recent survey results by Membership & Ministry Directory Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Membership & Ministry Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Directory.

What is Spiritual Direction and Who Needs It?

IgnatianSpirituality.com offers this beautiful answer:

A spiritual director walks alongside a person as a spiritual companion and, somewhat, as a guide. "Director" is a bit misleading, because a true spiritual director does not give much direction in terms of suggesting what a person should do or telling her if she is right or wrong or otherwise. A spiritual director is not a teacher, not a drill sergeant of the soul. He or she offers presence and a listening ear. When called for, a spiritual director offers wisdom as well, and sometimes will help the directee imagine and dream and pray.

St. Ignatius was quite clear about God's ability to work directly with the person, and in fairly strong terms he encouraged spiritual directors to stay out of God's way and allow "the Creator to deal directly with the creature." This doesn't mean that the spiritual director sits there silently like the stereotypical analyst. He or she enters conversation with you, and your topic of conversation is generally about your relationship with God—although there is much flexibility in what vocabulary you use or what concepts about the interior life you explore.

Generally speaking, this is what you can expect in spiritual direction:

- A person willing to walk alongside you on your spiritual journey. This person can walk with you in silence or in dialogue, in peaceful times or terrible times. The point is presence.
- A companion who will listen attentively and reflect back to you what you are experiencing and discovering.
- Confidentiality—what you talk about in your time with the spiritual director will go no further.
- Encouragement and hope; an effective spiritual director always carries hope for you and gently nudges you toward the wisdom and grace God is already pouring into your life.
- Reverence and respect for the spiritual movement in your life. A wise spiritual director recognizes that God speaks to people in many different ways. The spiritual companion listens to you describe your experience as it makes sense to you, in words and phrases that are meaningful to you. Although he or she may help you connect your experience with spiritual concepts such as grace or the movement of the Holy Spirit, there's no attempt to rewrite your experience to be anything other than what it is.
- A person wise enough to understand when you need help that is different from spiritual direction. An attentive spiritual director will notice if you appear to be physically, emotionally, or mentally ill and will encourage you to get the support you need. In other words, a spiritual director recognizes that she is not your social worker or psychiatrist and will not try to fill those roles.
- A person with whom you are safe to talk about your interior life in all its complexity and unfolding beauty.

We are happy to announce that Mickie McCool is our spiritual director on staff. If you would like to learn more or make an appointment to receive spiritual direction, please call Mickie at 314-610-5651. Appointment times are very flexible, including evenings and weekend times.
