"The Church of Mercy" by Pope Francis

Part Ten: Mary, Mother of Evangelization

Chapter 39, Her Intercession

Evangelii gaudium, nos. 285-88, 24 November 2013

On the cross, when Jesus endured in his own flesh the dramatic encounter of the sin of the world and God's mercy, he could feel at his feet the consoling presence of his mother and his friend. At that crucial moment, before fully accomplishing the work his Father had entrusted to him, Jesus said to Mary, "Woman, here is your son." Then he said to his beloved friend, "Here is your mother" (John 19:26-27). These words of the dying Jesus are not chiefly the expression of his devotion and concern for his mother; rather, they are a revelatory formula that manifests the mystery of a special saving mission. Jesus left us his mother to be our mother. Only after doing so did Jesus know that "all was now finished" (John 19:28). At the foot of the cross, at the supreme hour of the new creation, Christ led us to Mary. He brought us to her because he did not want us to journey without a mother, and our people read in this maternal image all the mysteries of the Gospel.

The Lord did not want to leave the Church without this icon of womanhood. Mary, who brought him into the world with great faith, also accompanies "the rest of her offspring, those who keep the commandments of God and bear Testimony to Jesus" (Rev. 12:17). The close connection between Mary, the Church, and each member of the faithful, based on the fact that each in his or her own way brings forth Christ, has been beautifully expressed by Blessed Isaac of Stella: "in the inspired Scriptures, what is said in a universal sense of the virgin mother, the Church, is understood in an individual sense of the Virgin Mary...In a way, every Christian is also believed to be a bride of God's word, a mother of Christ, his daughter and sister, at once virginal and fruitful...Christ dwelt for nine months in the tabernacle of Mary's womb. He dwells until the end of the ages in the tabernacle of the Church's faith. He will dwell forever in the knowledge and love of each faithful soul."

Mary was able to turn a stable into a home for Jesus, with poor swaddling clothes and an abundance of love. She is the handmaid of the Father who sings his praises. She is the friend who is ever concerned that wine not be lacking in our lives. She is the woman whose heart was pierced by a sword and who understands all our pain. As mother of all, she is a sign of hope for people suffering the birth pangs of justice. She is the missionary who draws near to us and accompanies us throughout life, opening our hearts to faith by her maternal love. As a true mother, she walks at our side, she shares our struggles, and she constantly surrounds us with God's love. Through her many titles, often linked to her shrines, Mary shares the history of each people that has received the Gospel, and she becomes part of their historic identity. Many Christian parents ask that their children be baptized in a Marian shrine as a sign of their faith in her motherhood, which brings forth new children for God. There, in these many shrines, we can see how Mary brings together her children who with great effort come as pilgrims to see her and to be seen by her. Here they find strength from God to bear the weariness and the suffering in their lives. As she did with Juan Diego, Mary offers them maternal comfort and love, and whispers in their ear, "Let your heart not be troubled...Am I not here, who am your Mother?"

The Feast of the Assumption

Wednesday – August 15th Holy Day of Obligation - Celebrating our parish's Feast Day!

The feast of Mary's Assumption is a preview of what our lives will be. At the end of her earthly life, Mary was assumed, or taken up, into heaven body and soul. She did not have to wait for the end of the world, as we do. God granted her this special privilege because of her sinless-ness and her fullness of grace.

The Church has always believed in Mary's assumption into heaven. But on November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII focused the attention of the whole world on the Assumption of Mary as a dogma and mystery of our faith. This mystery shows us that God wants every human person, body and soul, to be in glory forever, just as Mary is now. This dogma shows how important every single human life is. Pope Plus XII hoped that by thinking about Mary's Assumption, people all over the world would develop a deeper respect for their own lives and their own bodies. He also hoped that people would grow in respect for the lives of others.

Please plan on joining us as we celebrate our parish feast day! We will have a Vigil Mass on Tuesday, August 14 at 5:30pm in Church. Then on Wednesday, August 15 we will have Mass at 8:00am and 7:00pm in Church! We also invite you to celebrate our feast day with fellowship and Ice Cream immediately after our 7:00pm Mass downstairs in our parish center! There will be plenty of ice cream, toppings (sugar-free options as well) and fun hosted by our fabulous Socials Committee!

Also, in celebration of our parish feast day, our St. Vincent DePaul ministry will be collecting canned goods to distribute to individuals in our community who are in need. There will be baskets placed in the back of Church during Mass for you to place your canned food.

We do hope that you will join us in celebrating our beautiful parish – named in Mary's honor – as we work together to continue the work of her Son.

“Christ Renews His Parish” (CRHP) is a spiritual renewal weekend designed to help individuals grow in their personal relationship with Jesus and with others in their faith community. It is an excellent opportunity for Catholics to renew their understanding of the basic beliefs and traditions of our faith.

CRHP IS: a process designed to bring members of a parish together in Christ. Just as all of our other commitments need renewal, so does our commitment to Christ if we're to be faithful followers. CRHP is an effective spiritual renewal that calls together members of the parish to experience personal conversion and Christian unity within our Assumption parish community.

- It is a time to relax, pray, and rethink priorities.
 - It is a time to get to know others in the parish and grow as a community.
 - It is an opportunity to examine, rediscover, and /or intensify your personal relationship with Jesus.
- It is a weekend of reflection and sharing of spiritual and real life issues.

CRHP IS NOT:

- It is not a silent retreat, yet there are periods of quiet reflection and prayer.
- It is not a parish organization or clique
- It is not a solitary retreat, your participation makes the retreat a spiritual one for you and the other participants.
- It's not a public confession.

The truly Good News is God is alive, He loves us deeper than we could ever love and He longs for our return. This process is just one way to stop our busy lives, see past the pains and lies, and know God, not just experience Him.

So in the words of our Savior we too, invite you,
“Come and you will see”, Jn 1:39.

NOMINATIONS NEEDED FOR NEW PARISH COUNCIL

Our current Parish Council is approaching the end of its three-year term. I am so very grateful to the members for their prayerful leadership and great care for our parish mission. Now is the time for new leadership to come forward as our Parish Council members discern where God is calling them next in ministry as disciples of Jesus.

If you are interested, please nominate yourself soon via email to me (doyen.assumption@gmail.com) or abvmparishcouncil@gmail.com. You are also encouraged to nominate others whom you believe are good leaders of our parish mission; we will reach out to them and encourage them to accept the nomination. In September, we will host an orientation for all nominees to assist them in their discernment. Once nominations are confirmed, in October, we will consult with the Holy Spirit and draw the names of the next Parish Council who will serve for a three-year term.

If you have any questions, please contact me, any member of the current Parish Council or one of our Pastoral Team. God bless you in your own journey as a disciple of Christ.

Stewardship in ACTION

Last weekend, the Men's "Christ Renews His Parish" current team members hosted a BBQ for our parish to bring together our community and to share their brotherhood in Christ. They want others to be invited into what they have experienced and want to share that same experience with YOU!

Below is what one of the CRHP C.C. Members had to say about attending and helping with BBQ:

All,

Yesterday was a beautiful day as I got to spend the entire day with my bride, Mary Ann. Together we were doubly blessed because we got to spend 4 hours at our awesome parish once again. I talked to many parishioners I know and love and then many that I never knew before but I do now! Before my CRHP life I was a quiet keep to myself kind of guy, I know hard to believe right??? Now, I am still quiet in many ways but not when it comes to CRHP. "Christ Renews His Parish" hit me between the eyes and totally cracked open my heart. So now as I see many leave church early or never make it to our Sunday gatherings I think, "Where are they or what is the hurry to leave Mass early?" We share the gift of God and our faith so before I leave my earthly home my sharing will only strengthen. I pray this is always done as humbly as possible and that when my zeal is over the top I slow down slightly but no promises come with that slow down.

Together we're better and our parish mission prayer challenges us weekly/daily to strengthen our numbers of togetherness. God is the answer. So how do I pose the question so everyone seeks His answer? Thanks to each of you my faith is constantly growing stronger. I see you and smile because we share the gift we have received. This little/long note has one purpose and that is to bring others to the gift we share as in God's love and peace. To know God is to know each other/each parishioner more deeply. Keep this little note to yourself or share it as you see fit. I love you brothers and sisters and truly pray to share that love with so many more daily.

Peace and blessings, Russ (CRHP Continuation Committee Team Member)

Assumption Adoration

“He said to them: “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” ~Mark 6:31

Just sitting one hour with our Lord in Adoration once a week can be exactly what we need to refresh and restore our soul. Jesus knows all your sorrows, troubles, joys, and grief. He knows everything about you and loves you more than you can imagine.

July 22, 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

JER 23: 1-6; PS 23: 1-6; EPH 2: 13-18; MK 6: 30-34

Most are familiar with the scriptural quote from Psalm 23, “The Lord is my shepherd. There is nothing I shall want.” This passage serves as the Responsorial Psalm on this 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time because it supports the other readings with two key ideas: that we must place our trust in the Lord, and that we inherit life from our Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ.

At the time St. Paul was writing his Letter to the Ephesians (our Second Reading), Paul was under house arrest in Rome and awaiting trial. He was allegedly accused by the Jews of taking a Gentile into a temple. Therefore, part of Paul’s statement, “For he (Christ) is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims,” is saying essentially the Lordship of Jesus is not greater than any difference you may feel you have with others — that Jesus is our Savior and our Shepherd.

In the Gospel Reading from Mark, the idea of shepherding lies at the heart. “When he (Jesus) disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.” In other words, He began to feed them with the Word of God. That is what we do during this part of our Mass; we hear Holy Scripture. These are the Words of the Lord. He is our shepherd. We are His sheep.

As always, Jesus teaches us a valuable lesson about stewardship through today’s readings. To the Lord, the needs of others were more important than His own. When we share our time, our talents, and our treasure, we are not only following our Good Shepherd, we are also living His Gospel call to shepherd others by giving of ourselves.
