Hello,

In the calendar of the Church we are in the middle of what is called Ordinary Time. This is the eighteenth week out of thirty-four. The word ordinary means it isn't one of the special seasons like Christmas or Easter, or even Advent or Lent, but rather the time of the year with the period Ordinary Time numbered week 1, week 2, This is the time outside those special celebration and preparation periods when the real living of our lives occurs.

I mention this because we can just segregate our faith into something we do on those special times mentioned, or maybe Sunday also. Those are the times we come together as a community for Mass and other sacraments, but is that how our faith is meant to be in our lives? Is it just for certain special times, or even just an external part of us like the clothes that we change depending on the season or what we are doing? Or, is it a more fundamental part of not just what we do, but who we are?

One way to recognize how we see and practice our faith is when we go on vacation. When we go on vacation it is from the work in our lives? Work can be defined as the things we have to do so we can support the things we need in our lives, the necessities. In addition, work also helps us to do the things we just want to do, the luxuries. When we are on vacation we are hopefully doing something we want to do such as sitting on a beach, biking down a mountain, touring a museum or a park. We are also continuing the things we need to do like eating and sleeping. Some vacations may be obviously religious and include going on a retreat, or visiting a shrine, or making a pilgrimage, and those are special times. On the other vacations, do we still see the need to pray and attend Sunday Mass? There may be certain places and times that you can't get to a church, but other times, like food, it might just be a little different than what we are used to. The language or culture might be a challenge, or also a great surprise in some of the variety you experience. There are other ways we can practice our faith during vacations. What about praying mealtime prayers, even if you are out in public, or a rosary or just a decade of a rosary during a long car trip? Or maybe take a book with you that is religious or spiritual or find some topics related to your faith that would be good to reflect on during some of this down time.

I'm writing this right before going on vacation and it will be in the bulletin right when I get back. I think having a good vacation now and then is important. Just consider what is it we're taking a vacation from, and what does that say about where my faith is in my life?

Peace,

Fr. Nick

After Funeral Luncheons are coming back!

Mission Statement: With hearts of compassion, we prepare and serve a post-funeral meal for grieving families.

We are wanting to bring back the Funeral Luncheon Ministry. This ministry is a way to show support and hospitality to our grieving families. We also have a new process for Funeral Luncheons and are currently looking for many volunteers to assist with the luncheons, in one or more of the following ways: 1. Simply making a dish and dropping it off. 2. Serving at a luncheon. 3. Coordinating a group. 4. Making phone calls. Our plan is to create 10 or more teams of 15 people, and each team will have a coordinator. All volunteers will be able to choose how they would like to assist this ministry. The key is to have as many volunteers as possible, so that everyone is only called on occasionally. On the average, we usually have two funerals a month, sometimes more often. This is a beautiful ministry and Assumption would love to offer this again to our parish family. If you or someone you know is interested in helping bring back this ministry, please contact Peggy Brewer at the parish office: 636.240.3721 Ext. 221 or email:

peggy.assumption@yahoo.com. Please know...at this time we are just putting a list together of ANYONE that is willing to assist with this ministry in any way. We are hoping to get Funeral Luncheons back very soon!

Prayer

"For thus says the Lord: When you call Me, and come and pray to Me, I will listen to you. When you look for Me, you will find Me. Yes, when you seek Me with all your heart, I will let you find Me..."

Jeremiah
29:10-13

THE RESULTS ARE IN! In the spring of 2022, Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish family participated in the Disciple Maker Index, a survey on parish engagement that is part of the archdiocesan strategic pastoral planning initiative known as "All Things New."

The results confirmed our belief that Assumption is a welcoming, strong, dynamic parish and community of generous members who are firm believers active in their faith.

However, there is still more work to do if we are to achieve our long-term vision.

These are the top priorities recognized in the survey that our parish family needs to focus on in order to grow:

- Evangelize
- Volunteer
- Young Get Involved

Thanks to your valuable participation in the survey, our beautiful parish family will continue to flourish. May you find Christ here... May you bring Christ to the world.

Survey Says:

Rich toward God

July 31, 2022 — Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ECC 1:2, 2:21-23; PS 90:3-6, 12-13, 17; COL 3: 1-5, 9-11; LK 12:13-21

Today's Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let's face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish. But let's see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools!

In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about "stuff" as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn't have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff. Patting himself on the back, he thought about what good times he would have in the years ahead. But Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man's last day on the earth. And he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish!

Don't be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God's eyes, Christian steward. And you will be rich in what matters most.
