Hello,

I don't know if you noticed, but last week and this upcoming week we have numerous saints' days that were founders of religious orders. Sunday, July 31st, we had St. Ignatius of Loyola who founded the Jesuits, Monday, August 1st, we had St. Alphonsus Ligouri who founded the Redemptorists. This coming Monday we have St. Dominic who founded the Dominicans, and this Friday August 12th we have St. Jane Francis de Chantal who founded the Visitation order. Each unique in themselves and in their orders, but also all united in striving to bring people to Christ.

St. Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556) founded the Society of Jesus, or the Jesuits. Wounded in battle as a Spanish soldier he had a spiritual conversion and decided to devote his life to God. Spending a year in extreme ascetic practices, he had mystical experiences that would be the basis for his book Spiritual Exercises that became the foundational guide for the Jesuits and used by many in leading retreats. Studying at the University of Paris he would gather other students who would go with him to Rome to found the Jesuits. They would soon found many universities, go out to the world as missionaries, and be recognized as leaders in the Counter-Reformation, spreading the faithful teachings of the Catholic faith.

St. Alphonsus Ligouri (1696-1787) founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, or the Redemptorists. He was a lawyer at the age of 17 and practiced without losing a case for eight years. Then when he lost a case by an oversight on his part he took it as a sign from God that he was to leave that profession to become a priest. Known for his analytic and precise mind he could also be very scrupulous, but knew that in treating others he should be merciful and compassionate. In his book Moral Theology, in his preaching, and in his modest life he strived to seek a balance; avoiding riches and self-indulgences of some while also avoiding the rigorism of the Jansenists. At his first attempt at establishing the Redemptorists, within the first months all of those who had started abandoned him but one. However, others soon came and the order would grow and continues today.

St. Dominic (1170-1221) founded the Order of Preachers, or the Dominicans. Unlike Ignatius and Alphonsus, Dominic was raised to dedicate his life to the Church and to be a priest. On a trip traveling through southern France where the heresy of Albigensianism or Catharism was strong, he is said to have converted the Cathar whose house he was staying in by having a long discussion into the night. Pope Innocent III would approve the founding of the Dominican order to preach throughout various territories in opposition to heresies.

St. Jane Francis de Chantal (1572-1641) founded the Congregation of the Visitation of the Virgin Mary, or the Visitation order. She married Christophe de Rabutin, baron de Chantal, when she was 20 and would later have six children. The first three died soon after birth and then her husband died in 1601. St. Francis de Sales was her spiritual director and while she was considering entering the Carmelite order he convinced her to start a new order. These women would not be cloistered and open for those who may not be accepted in other orders, and would work in the community. The local Church wasn't ready for that yet, but obviously St. Jane did travel as she founded up to 65 convents by 1635.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

After Funeral Luncheons are coming back!

Mission Statement: With hearts of compassion, we prepare and serve a post-funeral meal for grieving families.

We are wanting to bring back the Funeral Luncheon Ministry. This ministry is a way to show support and hospitality to our grieving families. We also have a new process for Funeral Luncheons and are currently looking for many volunteers to assist with the luncheons, in one or more of the following ways: 1. Simply making a dish and dropping it off. 2. Serving at a luncheon. 3. Coordinating a group. 4. Making phone calls. Our plan is to create 10 or more teams of 15 people, and each team will have a coordinator. All volunteers will be able to choose how they would like to assist this ministry. The key is to have as many volunteers as possible, so that everyone is only called on occasionally. On the average, we usually have two funerals a month, sometimes more often. This is a beautiful ministry and Assumption would love to offer this again to our parish family. If you or someone you know is interested in being a part of this ministry, please contact Peggy Brewer at the parish office: 636.240.3721 Ext. 221 or email: peggy.assumption@yahoo.com. Please know...at this time we are just putting a list together of ANYONE that is willing to assist with this ministry in any way. We are hoping to get Funeral Luncheons back very soon!

"For thus says the Lord: When you call Me, and come and pray to Me, I will listen to you. When you look for Me, you will find Me. Yes, when you seek Me with all your heart, I will let you find Me..."

Jeremiah
29:10-13

August 7, 2022 —

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

WIS 18: 6-9; PS 33: 1, 12, 18-19, 20-22; HEB 11: 1-2, 8-19 or HEB 11: 1-2, 8-12; LK 12:32-48 or LK 12: 35-40

Whether you are just beginning your stewardship journey or have been living a stewardship way of life for years, today's readings invite us to ask ourselves an important question to ponder.

The question is this: "What do you treasure?" Of course, we all know the "right" answer: we treasure our faith, our family, and our friendships. But Jesus tells us in the Gospel passage from Luke how we can discover the real answer to this question. He says, "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

To discern what we really treasure, we need to do a check on our hearts. We can each ask ourselves, "Where do I spend the majority of my energy? Where do I find my thoughts dwelling? How do I choose to spend my time when I find myself with a few spare moments? What do my spending habits reveal about my what is important to me?"

As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in grateful response to all that God has given us. Do I recognize and treasure these gifts?
