The Eucharist: The Bread of Life

For the last four weeks we have heard the proclamation of the "Bread of life discourse," from John's Gospel, chapter 6. It will continue into next week. The community of disciples is struggling to comprehend how Jesus can be the true bread from heaven. All the miracle stories in the old and new testaments from the manna which came down to feed the Israelites in the desert, to the bread which sustained Elijah, the widow and her son for one year, to the bread provided by the angel to Elijah, to the miracles of the feeding of the thousands; none of them can prepare our hearts to receive the very body and blood of Jesus poured out on the cross and made truly present in the bread and wine offered on the altar during the Eucharist.

The quarreling of the unbelievers in the Gospel today has echoed throughout the centuries; the depth of God's love has always been too much for us. The tragedy and the politics of the Reformation are another way of saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" And we who are Catholic have also struggled to accept the enormity of God's love for us in Christ Jesus. The Eucharist is God's desire for intimacy with us, the noble pinnacle of all creation; are we ready to say, "AMEN," to accept God's love and respond to Him with the gift of our lives? St. Ignatius of Loyola understood the first responsibility of the Society of Jesus was to protect the integrity of the Church during the very difficult chapter of the Reformation. One of his most eloquent insights is regarding the intimacy with Christ which is ours in the Eucharist. He taught, "When we know Christ intimately, we will know what to do." The corollary is also true; unless and until we know Christ intimately, we will not know what to do. All our efforts to bring Christ to the world will be ALL OUR efforts if we have not first come to know and love Jesus in the Eucharist. Everything we do must be grounded in the Eucharist. Through frequent reception of communion, receiving the very Body and Blood of Jesus into our hearts, minds and souls and through frequent adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, allowing God in Christ to gaze upon us in the intimacy of the Chapel, we will come to an ever more trusting and intimate relationship with Jesus. Then all the anxiety in our hearts about "what to do next" will disappear.

Faith in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist requires courage. Let us not quarrel among ourselves regarding what we will to be done; let us hold fast to one another in this communion and seek only God's will for us, that all be saved, that all come to know the depth of God's love poured out in Christ Jesus and shared with us in the Eucharist. Then we can more easily follow Mary in her mission of giving birth to Christ, of bringing Christ to the world.

Fr. Mitch

Funeral Ministry—Volunteer Sound Board Ministers Needed

Do you have a compassionate heart? Can you be available between 9:45am and 11:30am on week days or Saturdays? Would you like to help minister to the brokenhearted through the Eucharist? We are looking for volunteers to run the Sound Board at funerals.

It helps if you are comfortable with computers or technical devices. All training is provided. Consider sitting at the Sound Board for a funeral or two just to see what you think of the ministry. Questions, or if interested, please call or text Manda 636-577-3776 or Amanda.assumptionbvm@gmail.com

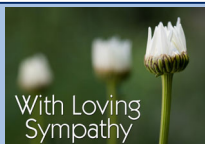

Seven Sisters Apostolate One Holy Hour, One Priest, Each Week, One Heart of Prayer

The Seven Sisters Apostolate of Assumption is looking for women (and men) who would like to pray for our priests.

Seven Sisters is made up of teams of women who commit to praying a Holy Hour on a distinct day of the week for a particular priest, preferably in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament – either in an Adoration Chapel or in front of a Tabernacle – but not restricted to the parish of which the Seven Sister is a member. We currently have teams praying for Fr. Mitch and Msgr. McCumber. We are now looking to form new teams to pray for Fr. Nord and Fr. Ron. Although the core teams are made up exclusively of women, we can use the help of men also as subs, and to provide additional hours of prayer. If you are interested in helping to give this gift of prayer to our priests please contact Kim Lawry at kim-lawry@yahoo.com or 314-283-8514.

Parish Prayer

Lord Jesus, You call us to follow You as disciples. You chose to create us in Your own image and to send us over all the world in all its wonder. Help us to respond wholeheartedly without counting the cost. We commit ourselves to being good stewards. Help us to be grateful, accountable, generous, and willing to give back with humble hearts and make stewardship a way of life.

Grant us the grace to understand, and the courage to accept the challenges and opportunities we have been given to help all:
"Find Christ here... and bring Christ to the world".

By the intercession of Your Mother Mary, may the Holy Spirit sustain us in this splendid work, and may we look forward in hope to the day when Your reign is established once and for all throughout all creation.

We ask all of this through Christ our Lord. Amen!

Information Night About The Catholic Faith ~ August 30th at 7:00pm

Do you know of someone who has expressed an interest in the Catholic church? How about inviting them to a Catholic adventure? What is a Catholic adventure you say? It is a gathering of individuals just like themselves to find out more about what Catholics believe. The adventure begins with exploring who Jesus is and gathering information along the way that will deepen their faith. We will have an Information Night on August 30th at 7:00pm in the Church. Come and hear Fr. Mitch talk about what we believe about our Catholic faith, and why we believe it. Questions? Call the church office or Missy Lowrey at (314) 630-3983.

The Ministry of Sponsor

JOURNEY OF Faith

In reaching out to those who have expressed a desire to become Catholic, the church wishes to share its tradition, its life, its values, its prayers, its apostolic work. Because so much is involved, it takes quite a while to pass on these traditions. As practicing Catholics, many of us take all this for granted. The Christian Initiation process calls for each inquirer to have a sponsor. Sponsors are active members of the parish community who serve as companions to the inquirers. The attributes we look for include:

- Someone who has an obvious prayer life (e.g., attends Sunday Mass)
- Someone who is available for weekly sessions
- Someone who displays the virtue of friendship (a good listener, open to a new friendship)
- Someone who would see sharing their faith and the faith journey of another as a great thing

What is involved in being a sponsor for someone who is being initiated into the Catholic Church? You are paired up with an inquirer and attend Sunday sessions with that person. You extend, in a personal way, the parish community's welcome and support. The joy and faith, the personal stories, struggles, and insights of new members will renew your own faith and sense of belonging to the church. As you share some of your own life and faith, you will uncover for yourself new dimensions of being a Catholic Christian. Consider volunteering for the ministry of sponsor in our parish! To find out more please call Janice Aholt, RCIA Sponsor Coordinator, at (636) 544-7890.

NOMINATIONS NEEDED FOR NEW PARISH COUNCIL

Our current Parish Council is approaching the end of its three-year term. I am so very grateful to the members for their prayerful leadership and great care for our parish mission. Now is the time for new leadership to come forward as our Parish Council members discern where God is calling them next in ministry as disciples of Jesus.

If you are interested, please nominate yourself soon via email to me doyen.assumption@gmail.com or abvm Parish Council@gmail.com. You are also encouraged to nominate others whom you believe are good leaders of our parish mission; we will reach out to them and encourage them to accept the nomination. In September, we will host an orientation for all nominees to assist them in their discernment. Once nominations are confirmed, in October, we will consult with the Holy Spirit and draw the names of the next Parish Council who will serve for a three-year term.

If you have any questions, please contact me, any member of the current Parish Council or one of our Pastoral Team. God bless you in your own journey as a disciple of Christ.

August 19, 2018 — Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prov 9:1-619; Ps 34; Eph 5:15-20; Jn 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowd, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life...." We can hardly blame the crowd for their shock at this statement — eating the Flesh and drinking the Blood of our Lord should cause us a bit of a shock. Yet how easy it is to show up at Mass Sunday after Sunday, receiving the Eucharist as simply part of a weekly routine.

If we really spent time contemplating the gift our Lord is offering us in this sacrament, we would be awestruck at the love and power in this gift. Through it, our Lord is giving us the very best He has to give — Himself. Not even the greatest theological scholar or the holiest of saints can fully understand this mystery.

Thankfully we don't need to be a saint or a scholar to receive this gift. But we should do our best to receive the Eucharist with gratitude. And we can look to today's readings to glean two fundamental principles for becoming better Christian stewards.

The Eucharist is the foundation for a stewardship way of life. Through His gift of the Eucharist, God fills us with His love and strength. This love and strength empower us to live as generous stewards — to be faithful to the ministries we serve in, joyful in material giving, and offer our very best to our families and secular work.

The Eucharist is the ultimate inspiration for a stewardship way of life. When we contemplate this gift of God, we will want to make a joyful return to Him. Mass will become anything but routine and we will live each day as His passionate disciples.
