Hello,

It is the third week of Advent and the candle for this week is the one we remember most; the pink, or rose colored, candle that means to REJOICE. This is also called Gaudete Sunday, which is simply that Latin word for rejoice. We know that we are still waiting, but the time is coming near so we rejoice in anticipation.

I think this is a very fitting thought to have after our previous two weeks of 'hope' and 'preparation'. Rejoice may seem to some to be a bit premature, since we are not at Christmas yet, but I consider that it takes the hope from the first week and gives it a firmness in our expectation. Not quite to the point of presumption, since we are doing our preparation still, but with maybe a little more trust that recognizes the blessings that God has given us up to this point and looks forward to what is to come. This doesn't deny our sin and our continued need for preparation, but it also doesn't just dwell on our sins either. The fact that Christians are meant to be a joyful people doesn't mean that we are perfect, or that we don't have need to still prepare, grow, and improve and be more open to God's help, but we prepare with eager anticipation for what is to come.

To think of it in line with some of our Christmas traditions that we may be doing now, consider how you approach buying Christmas gifts. Is it purely a burden and a labor or can it be joyful, in considering what gift might truly be appreciated for the person you are buying for; being glad for the opportunity we have to help them or to show them we care. If we are writing Christmas cards not only does it share a Christmas greeting, but hopefully, might share some joy you have had over this past year in words or photos and remind you of the blessing of this relationship.

Hopefully joy is a part of all of our continued preparation for the coming Christmas.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

MADONNA AND HER CHILDREN painting in Chapel

Parishioner Evelyn Astegno allowed us to display her painting of Christ's crucifixion in our chapel during Lent and is allowing us to display her painting of a young Mary loving her Son and also loving us as her children this Advent. "...living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into Him...from whom the whole body, held and joined together by every supporting ligament brings about the body's growth and builds itself in love."

2021 Commitment Card
My Offering of Time, Talent & Treasure

Our Annual Stewardship Renewal is still in process!

If you haven't had a chance to fill out your Commitment Card, you can do so online! Visit assumptionbvm.org and once on our HOME page, click on the Stewardship Annual Renewal box and follow the directions! How can I fill my Stewardship Commitment Card? Please pray through these areas and consider making commitments:

1. In the category of Time, you can make commitments to spend more time with God in prayer.

Prayer is the most important part of being a good steward, because when our relationship with God is strong, we are much better able to use our gifts and resources to help our parish and The Church.

2. In the category of Talent, you can either re-commit yourself to your current ministry/s, or sign up for new ones. Our goal is for each of us to use our gifts and skills in service for others.

3. In the category of Treasure, we are asking everyone to commit to giving a specific percentage of their income to the offertory each week or month for the next year. We are asking everyone to commit to giving half of their tithe - 5% of income—to the parish. If this is something new to you, pray with your family about what you can do.

An Advent Prayer – Week Three - JOY

Let us pray that God will fill us with joy at the coming of Christ.
 Lord God, may we, your people, who look forward to the birthday of Christ experience the joy of salvation and celebrate that feast with love and thanksgiving.
 We lift our hearts up to you, Lord, to thank you for the blessings you shower on us each day.
 You are the joy of our souls.
 We know that in your great love, we are held and protected by you.
 We pray and listen to the good news you send; we ask and feel the healing.
 We are freed by you from the things in this world that let us hide from you.
 We rejoice, we rejoice, down to our souls.
 Help us to prepare our hearts to be open and able to receive your immense love.
 May the Lord bless us, protect us from all evil and bring us to everlasting life.
Amen.

Veteran's Day - Remembering our Heroes

In 1954, President Dwight D Eisenhower signed a law passed by the Congress of the United States to mark November 11th as a legal holiday known as Veteran's Day to honor Veterans from all wars. This day was previously called Armistice Day. For much of the rest of the world and especially in Europe, they continue to celebrate Armistice Day, the day that marks the end of World War I. Why was November 11th chosen to honor our veterans? Because on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918 the armistice was signed signaling the end of WWI.

Our Prayer Service was developed by the 7th Grade Class (Mrs. Chassaniol's Homeroom). Veterans from our community were invited to attend, and two parent veterans were asked to speak, Colonel Compardo and Captain Baker with our students. Their words were moving and highlighted the importance of honor and integrity in life.

7th grade students entered the church and processed in holding a sign with a name of one war fought for American freedom since the 1700s. As they entered, taps was played and students lined the steps of the sanctuary holding their posters. Other 7th grade students read petitions for current military men and women, for our country, and for those that lead us.

Colonel Compardo, who wore his uniform, read the military oath that he and other veterans have taken when they joined the armed forces:

I, (name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; and that I will obey the orders of the president of the United States and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to regulations and the Uniform Code of Military Justice. So help me God.

Colonel Compardo

Captain Baker

The Story of Mary, Mother of God

Mary's divine motherhood broadens the Christmas spotlight. Mary has an important role to play in the Incarnation of the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity. She consents to God's invitation conveyed by the angel (Luke 1:26-38). Elizabeth proclaims: "Most blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Without naming Mary, Paul asserts that "God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law" (Galatians 4:4). Paul's further statement that "God sent the spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out 'Abba, Father!'" helps us realize that Mary is mother to all the brothers and sisters of Jesus.

The precise title "Mother of God" goes back at least to the third or fourth century. In the Greek form Theotokos—God-bearer—it became the touchstone of the Church's teaching about the Incarnation. The Council of Ephesus in 431 insisted that the holy Fathers were right in calling the holy virgin Theotokos. At the end of this particular session, crowds of people marched through the street shouting: "Praised be the Theotokos!" The tradition reaches to our own day. In its chapter on Mary's role in the Church, Vatican II's Dogmatic Constitution on the Church calls Mary "Mother of God" 12 times.

Reflection: Other themes come together at today's celebration. It is the Octave of Christmas: Our remembrance of Mary's divine motherhood injects a further note of Christmas joy. It is a day of prayer for world peace: Mary is the mother of the Prince of Peace. It is the first day of a new year: Mary continues to bring new life to her children—who are also God's children.

December 12, 2021 — Third Sunday of Advent
ZEP 3:14-18A; IS 12:2-6; PHIL 4:4-7; LK 3:10-18

We have arrived at Gaudete Sunday (Gaudete is the Latin word for “rejoice”) this Third Week of Advent, and the Scriptures take on a joyful tone as we continue our preparations for the feast of our Savior’s birth.

Our Second Reading gives us cause for joy as St Paul reminds us, “The Lord is near. Have no anxiety at all....” Then he gives us a prescription for maintaining this peace: “In everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.” Paul’s instructions for obtaining peace come as an early Christmas gift. They remind us that we can and should go to God with all our needs and present them to Him along with our thanks. This guidance calls to mind a vital aspect of a stewardship way of life: gratitude to God in response to His great love and countless gifts to us.

The Gospel passage, from Luke, shows us how to live out this sense of thankfulness, making our lives a “Christmas gift” to Christ in joyful response to His love for us. When the crowds hear John the Baptist’s message that their Savior is coming, they ask him what they should do to prepare. He responds, “Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do the same.” He tells tax collectors to stop collecting more than is prescribed and soldiers, to be satisfied with their wages. In other words, he tells them to be good and generous stewards of all God’s gifts to them!

As the great feast of Christmas draws near, let us rejoice in Christ’s extravagant love. Let’s avail ourselves of the peace He longs to give us. And let’s look carefully at our lives to make sure we are indeed making of them a gift fitting for Him.
