Hello,

This coming Monday I would imagine a few of you know that we celebrate the feast of St. Valentine, but we really don't know very much about him. This Monday we also celebrate the feast day of two brothers, St. Cyril and St. Methodius. We do know quite a bit about them, and I have always been impressed by these brothers.

The first reason to be impressed, beyond the saint thing of course, is the Cyrillic alphabet. Cyril and Methodius both grew up speaking Slavonic and thus were natural choices to be missionaries to Moravia in the mid-ninth century. This is when the land had been going back and forth between numerous different forces in Europe. They didn't have a problem translating the Bible and liturgical texts into Slavonic, but there was a problem in writing it, as up to that point it was only a spoken language. So in order to write the language, they created an alphabet based on the Greek alphabet that we have since known as the Cyrillic alphabet, pretty impressive.

This wasn't their only challenge. They also had the fortune, or misfortune, to be sent on this mission from Constantinople, the center of the Eastern Church, which at this time was becoming more and more in conflict with the Western Church. One specific difference was that coming from the Eastern Church, Cyril and Methodius didn't even think about whether they should or shouldn't translate the Bible and liturgies into Slavonic. In contrast, in the Western Church the only languages considered suitable for the liturgy were Latin, Greek and Hebrew. After spending some time in Moravia, they had some difficulty since they did not have a bishop and thus could not ordain priests. The closest bishops were Western, from Bavaria, and were not immune to some of the rivalries at the time between the East and the West. So Cyril and Methodius went to Rome to seek approval of the Slavonic liturgy and of their mission.

Cyril would die while in Rome but Methodius would return to the Moravian missions with the Pope's blessings. Later, he would return to Rome and the pope would consecrate him as a bishop. Unfortunately, Methodius would have to continue to face conflicts in the Church, and when the current pope died his successor would rescind the permission for the Slavonic liturgy. Methodius would later return to Rome to obtain permission again for the Slavonic liturgy and only a few years later travel back to Constantinople to be received by the emperor and the patriarch. I think a few more reasons to be impressed.

Not only did the brothers bridge differences between the East and the West in their times, but they have also been recognized as saints by both the East and the West and still are a means of unity, especially in Europe, today. Butler's Lives of the Saints gives much more detail about these and other saints, hopefully they can inspire us to bridge divisions in our world today.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

“...living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into Him...from whom the whole body, held and joined together by every supporting ligament brings about the body's growth and builds itself in love.”

- Ephesians 4:15-16

In today's Gospel from Luke, Jesus describes the true richness of life that is possible for those of us who are willing to live as his hope-filled disciples. We are all familiar with this passage in which Jesus reveals the Beatitudes: blessed are the poor; they have the kingdom of God. Blessed are those now hungry because they will be satisfied. Blessed are those who weep because they will laugh. Blessed are those who are hated, excluded, and insulted because they are disciples of Jesus; they will be greatly rewarded in heaven. Jesus is describing here the character of one who is living a life of hope – the life of a Christian steward whose trust is firmly rooted in God and who is focused on others and eternity. It is not always an easy life, but it is a deeply meaningful life and one that leads to eternal reward.

Assumption Adoration Chapel

Adoration is available 24/7 in the old church by using the code at the north transit entrance. EXPOSITION on Tuesday begins after the 8:00am Mass and through Rosary at 6:15 pm, followed by Perpetual Help Devotions and Benediction to close. Please sign up at assumptionbvm.weadorehim.com.

February 13, 2 - Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JER 17: 5-8; PS 1:1-4,6; 1 COR 15:12, 16-20; LK 6: 17, 20-26

Today's readings speak of an essential quality for the Christian steward — hope. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, “Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit (CCC 1817).”

In many ways, this is the very definition of a stewardship way of life — focusing on eternity as we live our daily lives and relying on God to provide for our needs and satisfy our deepest longings for meaning and happiness right now.

National Kazoo Day

On January 28th, we celebrated National Kazoo Day and Mrs. Welby's class enjoyed learning how to play kazoos. Most people think that the small end goes into the mouth, however, after watching a video, students knew to place the LARGE end into their mouth and HUM the song into the kazoo. In the video, the kazoo-ist created melodies, which the students were able to hum and within minutes were able to almost master the instrument. Above are two of our students playing their kazoo!

The Science of Meteorology - 6th grade

Meteorology is the science dealing with the atmosphere and its phenomena, including both weather and climate. The local weather people are well-versed in meteorology and also in creating the graphic displays that are used to help visually see the weather and its impact on the local community.

Our 6th graders have been studying this science and as a project, were expected to make class presentations using PowerPoint for visual information. In the presentations, students embedded videos and graphs along with commercial breaks and "Breaking News" reports. Each group of students worked as teams for the presentation and were graded by Mrs. Schenk using a rubric. The students enjoyed developing the presentations and also giving their presentation to their classmates.

Thank you for reading about our school!

RCIA

You might be wondering: "Why are the RCIA participants dismissed before we profess our faith?" These RCIA Adults along with their sponsors, depart from the Mass at the end of the Liturgy of the Word to discuss the readings and experience more fully the impact of the Scriptures in their lives. These individuals who are preparing to be baptized and those preparing for initiation through Confirmation are dismissed simply to continue reflecting on what they have just heard in the readings and continue to learn the formal teachings of the Catholic Church. The sending forth blessing they receive reminds us of Jesus sending out his disciples. This continues each Sunday and at the Easter Vigil. Those who are ready will join us at the Table of the Eucharist for the first time.

The Living Word of God is their only food during this period. In addition, we have a specific topic each Sunday. The past few weeks we have studied our seven sacraments. We invite you to attend at least one of the 8am Sunday Masses in order to experience this holy event. Other opportunities to witness them will be made available in the coming weeks as we enter Lent. Please continue to pray for our sponsors and team members as we continue to help those seeking entrance into our Catholic faith and community at the Easter Vigil.

Be sure to check out the poster board in the Narthex! These are the faces of our Candidates and Catechumens in our program. If you see them at the 8:00am Mass, please say Hi!

"All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work."
