ALL THINGS NEW

STEADFAST IN FAITH • FORWARD IN HOPE

Heavenly Father, you sent your Son Jesus as the first Evangelizer of the Good News.

Send forth the power of the Holy Spirit upon the Church of St. Louis and grant us the gift of true discernment so we may do your will in all things.

Help us be totally free to follow wherever you lead us, totally generous to be good stewards of your many gifts, and totally passionate to suffer all in order to be more closely united to you.

Commissioned by your Son and empowered by the Spirit to "Go and Make Disciples of all Nations," strengthen us by the power of your grace as we bring the Good News of Salvation into the lives of all those we touch, so that individual hearts and all of society may be converted to you and all things might be made new.

Inspired by the apostolic zeal of previous generations, as we begin the process of planning for the future, may our only desire be to do all things for the greater glory and honor of your name and for the good of your people in the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

May you find Christ here . . . May you bring Christ to the world

Hello,

As we begin our planning for 'All Things New', the program to plan restructuring our archdiocese, parishes and schools for the future, I want to encourage all of you to participate as much as you can. Hopefully the following Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's) will explain what this will involve. Along with prayer, the other way to participate in the first year of this planning will be to complete the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) Parishioner Survey that will be online and available by paper starting Ash Wednesday (March 2nd) thru April 4th. At the end of this first year, draft models will be completed, and over the second year they will be presented to the archdiocese with listening sessions being held at each parish in the Fall of 2022 to receive input and feedback on these models. On May 28, 2023 the resulting plan will be announced along with a schedule for implementing the plan. Thank you for your prayers and participation.

Peace, Fr. Nick

ALL THINGS NEW

FAQ'S

WHAT IS THE STRATEGIC PASTORAL PLANNING INITIATIVE OF THE ARCHDIOCESE?

- The Archdiocese of St. Louis is in the beginning stages of a strategic pastoral planning initiative to examine all of its parishes, schools, ministries and agencies, evaluating our effectiveness as a local Church in proclaiming the Gospel and identifying opportunities for improvement and renewal.
- The goals are:
 - o To "make all things new" by Gospel renewal in our parishes, schools and other ministry efforts
 - o To enhance our evangelization efforts to those on margins of society
 - o To secure a vibrant future for the Church in St. Louis
- This initiative is in response to the call of our Lord to be missionary disciples, and to the Church's desire to "make all things new" by the Power and Joy of the Gospel.

WHY ARE WE DOING THIS? WHY NOW?

- The Church and its people continue to evolve as society evolves.
- The landscape of Catholic faithful in our archdiocese looks different today than it did even a few decades ago.
- This process will allow us to move our ministries forward to meet people where they are--spiritually and geographically--while remaining constant in mission and rooted in faith.

WHAT WILL THIS ENTAIL?

This process will affect the entire archdiocese. We are in the beginning stages of the process, which begins with prayer and listening, while also collecting data and feedback from various stakeholders—including our priests, deacons, lay leaders and faithful—which will inform the rest of the planning process.

WHAT IS THE TIMELINE?

This is a multi-year project. We are in the beginning stage of discernment, which is guided by prayer, listening, and collecting information from various stakeholders. From there, we will develop options for a strategic plan, and ultimately, we will implement a plan throughout the entire archdiocese. The information we are collecting now will help inform the plan and timeline.

WILL WE BE CLOSING PARISHES AND SCHOOLS? IF SO, HOW MANY WILL WE CLOSE?

We are in the beginning stages, so we are still collecting data and feedback from various stakeholders—including priests, deacons, lay leaders and faithful -- which will guide the planning process for evangelization. While we are not yet in a place to make any decisions regarding structures, we anticipate a significant impact on our current blueprint and will address immediate needs as they arise.

"...living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into Him...from whom the whole body, held and joined together by every supporting ligament brings about the body's growth and builds itself in love."

From the Principal's Pen

The Knights of Columbus sponsored two contests during Christmas, each with a monetary award for winning students. One was an ART CONTEST, where K through 8th students depicted their Artistic idea: "Keeping Christ in Christmas".

Congratulations to the following:

KEEPING CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS - Art Contest Poster Contest Winners:

Grade 6-8
(1st Place) Caitlyn Doriman - $50
(Honorable Mention) Lily Hoermann and
Santi Felix - Each $20

Grade 3-5
(1st Place) Annabelle Begley - $50
(Honorable Mention) Jackson Coan and
Keegan Phillip (not pictured) - Each $20

K-2 (1st Place) Lauren Supp - $20
(Honorable Mention) Nora Reller and
Meghan Saxbury - Each $10 winner

The second contest was the ESSAY CONTEST with the topic being, "OBSTACLES YOU MAY HAVE ENCOUNTERED WHILE LIVING A LIFE OF FAITH", for Grade 6, 7 and 8 only. The 1st place winner (8th grade) is Zoey Igo, and her essay will be sent to the National Essay Competition. Here are some of her thoughts:

"Being a teenage girl, it's really hard to remember that NOT everyone's opinions about you matter. . . Sure, I may not be the best soccer player, or the prettiest girl in the 8th grade, but in God's eyes I'm perfect. His opinion matters. Hearing Fr. Nick's homily the other day really made an impact on me. He said, 'The way you live your life is the way you'll die.' If people only take me for my looks, that's their loss because it is what is in the inside that matters most."

Essay winners:

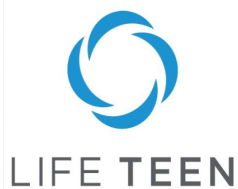

8th Grade
(1st Place) Zoey Igo - $50
(Honorable Mention) Meah Phillip (not pictured) and Faith Gibbs (not pictured) - $20

7th Grade
(1st Place) Jacob Horstmann - $50
(H.M.) Lily Hoermann and Thomas Hughes - $20

6th Grade
(1st Place) Gavin Willie
(H.M.) Daniel Duffy and Sam Molitor - $20

February 6, 2022 — Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

IS 6: 1-2A, 3-8; PS 138: 1-5, 7-8; 1 COR 15:1-11 or 1 COR 15:3-8, 11; LK 5: 1-11

Our readings today remind us of the great privilege we have in calling ourselves both children and disciples of the Most High God.

The First Reading from Isaiah describes a vision of the prophet in which angels surround the Lord proclaiming, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" Our God invites us to such deep intimacy and friendship with Him that sometimes we can forget just how majestic and unspeakably holy He truly is.

In the Gospel passage, from Luke, Jesus instructs Simon to lower his nets for a catch despite an unsuccessful night of fishing. Peter is skeptical but obeys and is amazed at the catch of fish that he makes. He kneels down before Jesus in astonishment.

This sense of awe and reverence before God should motivate us to deepen our stewardship way of life. As we contemplate the holiness of God, we come to a heightened awareness of what a privilege it is that He has chosen to include us in His work of spreading the Gospel to others through the grateful sharing of the gifts He has given us. Aware of this privilege, we will then make the words of Isaiah our own: "Here I am Lord, send me!"

"...living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into Him...from whom the whole body, held and joined together by every supporting ligament brings about the body's growth and builds itself in love."
