Hello,

About a month ago there were a lot of people talking about a priest who had been baptizing people for over 20 years using the wrong words. Instead of saying "I baptize..." he was saying "We baptize...". When the Congregation for the Doctrine of Faith in Rome was asked about these specific words for baptisms they responded on June 24, 2020 that the baptisms were invalid and that those who had been baptized in this manner should be baptized now using the proper words and form. I chose not to write about this at the time, thinking that it might just give this more attention than it deserves, but people still bring up the topic and I also ran across something Pope Francis did about 4 years ago that I think addresses the real concerns.

Pope Francis was visiting a small parish on the outskirts of Rome on April 15, 2018 and a young boy asked the pope if his deceased father was in heaven. The boy was concerned because his father was an atheist, but he stated that he was a good father and he had his four children baptized. The Pope responded by recognizing how much harder it must have been for someone who doesn't believe to have their children baptized than it is for someone who does, and yet his father did this for them. And just as his father loved him, so does God love all of us and would want his father to be close to him. But most important for us today was the core of the Pope's answer, "God is the one who says who goes to heaven."

So many comments people made about the baptisms being declared invalid talked about the Church saying that these people now wouldn't be able to go to heaven, and no one ever said that. No matter who we are, baptized or not, we rely upon the grace of God to go to heaven. To say that we could not go to heaven if we were not baptized would be to limit God, who has no limits. This doesn't mean that we shouldn't desire to be baptized, and that those who were not validly baptized shouldn't be baptized as soon as possible. Being baptized, receiving any of the sacraments, is not a magic formula to win God's graces. Receiving the sacraments is a way in which we are open to God's graces as Jesus Christ instructed us to be. We are trying to cooperate with what Christ has told us, to be open to let Him work through the minister of the sacrament. The wording is important because it states that "I", Christ, not "I" the priest, or deacon, or whoever the minister of the sacrament may be, baptize...therefor Christ is baptizing through this minister. The other comments in the letter from the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith more explicitly states this as the reason, giving the example of baptisms that were done with even more expansive words about all of those present, baptizing the person together, as they welcome them into the community. The community is important, but it is Christ's action that is central to the sacrament.

God desires that we all eventually will join Him in heaven, that is why he created us. But he also gave us free will that allows us to say yes to Him, or no. May we always strive to say yes, especially in being open to the graces He offers us in the sacraments.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

March 20, 2021 — Third Sunday of Lent

EX: 3:1-8A, 13.15; PS 103: 1-4, 6-8, 11; 1 COR 10:1-6, 10-12, LK 13:1-9

Today's Gospel passage reminds us that life is precious and the gift of time on this earth is just that — a gift. None of us knows how much time will be granted to us, so we must use this gift intentionally to glorify God and serve our neighbor.

Jesus offers the parable of the fig tree to further illustrate this truth. The owner of the orchard came searching for fruit on a fig tree he had planted in his orchard. Finding no fruit on the tree after three years, he told the gardener to cut it down. But the gardener intercedes and asks for one more year to cultivate and fertilize the tree in hopes it would bear fruit in the future. The fig tree was not dying; it simply wasn't doing much of anything at all. Can this be said of us and our lives as well?

The season of Lent is a time to carefully reflect on the way we spend our time. Do we make God our first priority, tending to our spiritual growth and sacramental life with diligence? Do we give the next priority to our loved ones, focusing intentionally on them each day without distractions from phones, screens, or thoughts of work? If not, now is the moment to repent of our waste of time or of misplaced priorities on our use of time. God is merciful but just. Let's turn to Him and ask Him to make our lives fruitful while we still have time to do so.

"For thus says the Lord: When you call Me, and come and pray to Me, I will listen to you. When you look for Me, you will find Me. Yes, when you seek Me with all your heart, I will let you find Me..."

Jeremiah 29:10-13

PRAY, PRAY, PRAY

This year is the 40th Anniversary of Our Lady, the Blessed Virgin Mary, appearing in Medjugorje. Our Blessed Mother is still giving the visionaries messages every month. In every message she says, "Pray, Pray, Pray." We can do this. Every Tuesday evening, beginning at 5:15pm, Rosary and Perpetual Help Devotions, are held in the Chapel along with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Think about our world situation and then please come to "Pray, Pray, Pray."

PRAYER:

A heart to heart with God
"Our strength comes from the Eucharist"

Prayer

This weekend at the 8:00 am Mass we will celebrate the first of three Scrutinies. For the next two weeks we will use the Lectionary's 'scrutiny readings' from Year A at the 8:00am Mass. The Cycle A readings for the Scrutinies are rich in Baptismal imagery therefore only for the Elect. Today was water, next week is light, and the following week is life.

The scrutinies are among the most ancient prayers in the Christian liturgical tradition. As early as the second century, Christian communities would help those who had been chosen for Baptism to prepare for their initiation by laying on hands and by prayers for protection and deliverance from evil. Today we continue to celebrate these powerful rituals. We also understand today that our prayers for protection from evil are not limited to those engaged in the catechumenal process. Just as our entire community is called to journey with the elect throughout the Lenten season, we recognize the need we all share for freedom from evil and its effects. We urge you to prepare for the celebration of the scrutinies in a personal way by discerning what it is in your own life that needs to be freed from sin's bondage.

Because our rituals proclaim who we are, we must take care in how we use them with the baptized candidates (those baptized in other religions). We are called upon to keep clear the difference in the two groups. The rites for the elect make clear that they will become a new creation through the Sacrament of Baptism. When appropriate ritual distinctions are kept, we become more aware of how the baptized candidates are already one with the faithful because of their baptism. The Lenten journey of the baptized candidates, though still a focus of special pastoral care has much in common with the Lenten renewal of the faithful accomplished through prayer, works of charity, and celebration of the sacrament of Penance.

Prayer cards for the elect are available in the back of church. Each person should take a card. Please remember to take one home and keep them in your prayers throughout the season of Lent.

Men of Assumption Parish...

One of the greatest mysteries into the depths of God's love for us is the wounding of Christ's heart. In this one moment, Scripture is fulfilled, the Church is born, and mercy flows out to the world through the Pierced Heart of the Savior. That being said, Christ's heart had already begun the process of being wounded and crushed. One of his closest friends betrayed him, another denied him and nine others abandoned him. The sharpest pains come from those we love the most when they are not there for us in our hour of need. Knowing all of this, Christ washed their feet. This week's session is titled, "The Wounding of the Heart"
