Hello,

I just came back from the church and our 2nd graders were practicing for their First Communion this Sunday. They were practicing how they pause and bow before going forward to receive Communion, having their hands right, and responding "Amen" when they are offered the Body of Christ. We hope this practice will help them participate in the celebration. But if it doesn't go perfect it will still be great, if we stay focused on the reason we are there; for them to receive the Eucharist.

The practice of the Church is that children who have reached "the use of reason" should be prepared to receive the Eucharist, and the general practice for that has been in 2nd grade. That is why this year they have been learning to understand the difference between what they will receive and other food. They are learning about the many ways Christ showed his love for us, about this special means by which Christ shows his love for us, and as they receive Christ himself and are fed and nourished in a spiritual way that nothing else can provide for us.

Watching the 2nd graders can be a great inspiration for us. We realize how excited they are to be able to receive Christ in the Eucharist for the first time, and hopefully it makes us a bit more appreciative of what we have been able to receive repeatedly through the years. When something becomes common in our lives we can take it for granted at times, but it doesn't decrease its value. It should show us how important it is that it has become something we have placed in our lives where it would become common. But like other things that we get used to just being there, like the love of a spouse or a family member, they can be taken for granted and we can lose our appreciation of how important they are. As we see our 2nd graders and maybe your grandchildren or nieces or nephews receive their First Communion, encourage their excitement, and be encouraged by it, to realize this great gift that we are given over and over again.

We can also take for granted the many other things in our Church, both in our parish and throughout the diocese. Some examples might be, our church building, the availability of the sacraments, of education in the faith for children through adults, and many parish and diocesan programs that help us prepare for the sacraments from baptism through marriage. The diocese offers assistance to our school and our PSR and for all Catholic education throughout the diocese from grade school age, high school age, to those in college, and adults. They assist those who are poor and in need. They promote and help us live out our Catholic values in our society today. They support the training and education of our priests and deacons for tomorrow.

The parish promotion of the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) begins this week and we will have people in the Narthex with cards for each parish family to make a donation. Also, you will find in the pews cards with QR codes that can be scanned to help make a donation using your phone. Please consider a donation to support all the work the diocese does all around us that we can take for granted. Your donations to the parish are also needed and a means to recognize the value we place on our parish, the sacraments, and our faith.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

This is MANDATORY! Please register into the Prevent and Protect system where you will submit an updated background check, and complete and submit all the Code of Conduct sections. Attending a Protecting God's Children Workshop is also needed to complete Compliance. Go to our website; www.assumptionbvm.org, and go to Resources. # RCIA

Palm Sunday we attended Mass and then held our spiritual retreat day. We gave individual wooden cross necklaces to wear for the day. A reflection was done on the cross in our lives.

We talked about the Triduum and how important it was for all to attend Holy Week. Sponsors bought a cup for their person as a surprise and the sponsors were given cups by the Team. A moving reflection on filling your “cup” was received with joy. The highlight of our day was the quiet time that was spent in reading all of the notes from our parish community, Sisters of the Precious blood, school, team and oh so many who were praying for them! The day ended with Stations of the cross held at St Joseph Chapel.

Becoming Catholic RCIA

Last Weekend we baptized 7 adults and Welcomed 2 Candidates at the Easter Vigil! The neophytes and Candidates, along with those present were invited outside for the lighting of the Easter fire. After the Homily, our neophytes moved to the back to be baptized. Did you notice they were wearing brown gowns? As they enter into the water with brown gowns they are dying to their old life and coming out as a new creature. A white robe was given to the newly baptized as they went forward for confirmation and Eucharist. Praise God and give thanks for our new members!

Respect Life Essay Contest!
Benji Boss and Gwen Briz...
Finalists in the Respect Life Essay Contest.

Since 1979, this contest has provided an opportunity for eighth grade students in the Archdiocese of St. Louis to reflect, pray, research and write about the Gospel of Life and the virtue of Chastity. Contest participants have the chance to earn financial awards for Catholic high school, the Steubenville Catholic Youth Conference in July, Respect Life Convention in October and Generation Life Pilgrimage in January.

The 2022 topic choice was:

1. Chastity is a virtue that teaches us to respect our bodies and God's gifts of sexuality and life. How do you promote chastity as a young adult in the 21st century?
2. Explain how you can take an active role in building a Culture of Life in your community and encourage other young adults to do the same. Choose one or more areas to focus on: spirituality, education, public witness/law, and direct assistance.

The Boss and the Briz families have been invited to a dinner at the Diocese and a ceremony to honor both Benji and Gwen on April 24th. Congratulations, Benji and Gwen!

Divine Mercy Sunday - April 24

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY will be celebrated at St. Gianna Church in Wentzville, MO. Confessions will begin at 2:00pm with Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. We will begin the Glorious Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary about 2:15pm followed by praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at 3:00pm. We will end our day by celebrating Mass at 4:00pm.

We all receive the special graces of Divine Mercy Sunday promised directly by our Lord through St. Faustina in the 1930s! Even though you may not be able to go to Confession and receive Holy Communion, you can receive these special graces this Sunday, April 24, on Divine Mercy Sunday.

By reading what is arguably the most important passage in St. Faustina's Diary, when Jesus tells St. Faustina: "I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet" (699).

Jesus promises that the soul that has been to Confession and receives Holy Communion will be completely wiped away of the two stains that are on our soul. Those stains are sin and the punishment due to sin. The special grace promised by our Lord for Divine Mercy Sunday is nothing less than the equivalent of a complete renewal of baptismal grace in the soul.

But how can you receive this complete forgiveness of sins and remission of all punishment? After all, some of may be in quarantine, haven't had our vaccine and are too comprised to come to church or go out in public, so making it to Confession and Communion are impossible.

There is, however, still a way to receive this grace. Do these three things on Divine Mercy Sunday with the intention to turn away from sin in your life: Make an Act of Contrition

Since you are unable to get to Confession, make an Act of Contrition, instead. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "Among the penitent's acts contrition occupies first place. Contrition is 'sorrow of the soul and detestation for the sin committed, together with the resolution not to sin again'" (1451).

You will be completely forgiven of all sins, even "mortal sins if it includes the firm resolution to have recourse to sacramental confession as soon as possible" (Catechism, 1452).

Make a Spiritual Communion

Since you may not be able to receive Holy Communion, make a Spiritual Communion instead, asking God to come into your heart as if you received Him sacramentally — Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. For instance, you can say this:

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire You in my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You were already there, I embrace You and unite myself to You; permit not that I should ever be separated from You. Amen.

Again, do this act of trust with the intent to return to the sacrament of Holy Communion as soon as possible.

Say a prayer like this:

"Lord Jesus Christ, You promised St. Faustina that the soul that has been to Confession [I'm unable, but I made an Act of Contrition] and the soul that receives Holy Communion [I'm unable, but I made a Spiritual Communion] will receive the complete forgiveness of all sins and punishment. Please, Lord Jesus Christ, give me this grace."

Finally, please remember that this extraordinary promise of Divine Mercy Sunday is for everyone. Tell your non-Catholic friends about it. Everyone can ask Jesus to forgive their sins. Everyone can make a Spiritual Communion. And everyone can ask for this grace to completely wipe their slate clean of not only all sin, but all punishment due to sin. Normally, the punishment is not remitted unless one has absolute perfect contrition. And unlike a plenary indulgence, there is no requirement of having perfect detachment from sin. In other words, as long as we have a desire for this grace and intention to amend our lives, we can be completely cleansed with grace similar to our original Baptism. It is a way to really start over in our spiritual life! Jesus told St. Faustina, "Divine Mercy is mankind's last hope of salvation" [see Diary, 998].

Everyone is feeling the strain of rising costs of food, gas, and everything else. Inflation is keenly felt especially by those struggling to make ends meet. Currently needed items include: ketchup, mustard, mayo, BBQ sauce, juice, fruit drink mixes, cornbread mix, sugar, vegetable oil, SPAM, canned ham. Liquid dish soap and laundry detergent are frequently needed. Cookies or candy would be appreciated for families with children but we realize that is a luxury item. JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU April 24, 2022 — Divine Mercy Sunday

ACTS 5:12-16; PS 118: 2-4,13-15, 22; REV 1:9-11A, 12-13, 17-19; JN 20: 19-31

Today, the Second Sunday of Easter, is Divine Mercy Sunday. Our Gospel reading from St. John is often called the story of “Doubting Thomas” but the passage involves so much more than the encounter with the skeptical apostle. It is rich with lessons of Christ’s mercy to all, including an encouraging word from our Lord especially for us, His modern-day disciples.

While Thomas traditionally takes all the bad rap for his doubts, we see that none of the Apostles were at their best when Christ first appeared to them after His resurrection. They were actually in hiding, cowering behind a locked door, paralyzed by fear and doubt.

But Jesus appeared right in their midst in spite of the lock on the door. Was it to rebuke them for their lack of faith? Quite the contrary.

He comes on a mission of mercy. He comes to offer them peace and the restoration of their relationship with Him. And even more, He commissions them to become ministers of His mercy, by giving them authority to forgive sins. At that moment Christ gives to all of us the supreme gift of mercy — the sacrament of Reconciliation. What a precious and powerful gift!

This Sunday is a perfect time to reflect on how well we make use of this gift. Do we really appreciate its healing power? Could we become better stewards of this gift by going to Confession more often? We must also reflect on how well we extend mercy to others as Jesus did to Thomas that day.

Let’s commit ourselves to becoming faithful disciples and stewards of Christ’s mercy. We will be those very ones to whom Jesus gave a “shout out” during His encounter with Thomas: “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” — in His merciful love.

PRAY, PRAY, PRAY - Every Tuesday in the Chapel!

This year is the 40th Anniversary of Our Lady, the Blessed Virgin Mary, appearing in Medjugorje. Our Blessed Mother is still giving the visionaries messages every month. In every message she says, “Pray, Pray, Pray.” We can do this. EVERY TUESDAY evening, beginning at 6:15pm, Rosary and Perpetual Help Devotions, are held in the Chapel along with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Think about our world situation and then please come to “Pray, Pray, Pray.”
