Hello,

When we think about the 4th of July and the Declaration of Independence one of the words that we think of is Freedom. We celebrate the freedom from being ruled by a king (the British Crown) and another nation (the State of Great Britain) and declared that we are to be Free and Independent States. Freedom is something we identify very strongly with as a nation and can react strongly when we are aware that it is threatened, and that is why I think it is important to recognize how we use and understand the word Freedom.

Looking up definitions of freedom, the primary concerns that are normally mentioned are the ability to act or choose and for this to be done without any constraint or coercion. It is common for us to think that anything that would bias our decision from choosing one thing over another would make that choice less free. But the Catholic Church considers this word a little differently. I remember when I had my first class on morals in the seminary and telling my professor that he was using the word 'free' wrong, or at least differently then is standard for our culture and the English language. The difference was that he, and the Church, were defining a decision to be 'more free' if it was towards our good. It took me a little while to accept this use of the word, but I now not only have accepted it, but also will clarify that I am using it in that context at times when talking to others.

I think this is an important distinction to make not only to be able to more clearly communicate, but also because at its root there is a fundamental difference that is becoming more pronounced between our faith and the general culture. In our faith we believe there are absolutes such as God, sin, and truth. Whereas society is recognizing less and less absolutes as a larger percentage of people are atheists, or even more so agnostics and consider that we can't know if there is or isn't a God. We hear the phrases 'my truth' or 'your truth' used, and if there is no God, and no truths, there definitely can't be any sin. If we don't believe in any absolutes then it is hard to say that anything is good or bad for someone, and so we get back to the more common definition of freedom when any bias in a choice must make it less free, since there can't be something that is absolutely more or less good for someone.

But this isn't what our Declaration of Independence says:
"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

I guess we do have some absolutes we believe in as a country: truths, a Creator, and even some unalienable Rights, things that sound worth celebrating. Maybe once we can agree on our definitions for Freedom and Life, we might even start to consider Happiness.

Peace,
Fr. Nick

"...living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into Him...from whom the whole body, held and joined together by every supporting ligament brings about the body's growth and builds itself in love."

Coronavirus Dispensation Lifted

Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski Invites the Faithful Back to Mass.

As the world moves forward on the path of healing, we invite everybody in the Archdiocese of St. Louis to gather together again to experience the Eucharist—the true presence of the Body of Christ—in its fullest form. On July 1, 2021, Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski lifted the dispensation of the obligation to attend Sunday Mass for all of the faithful in the Archdiocese of St. Louis—meaning that we are all called to return to Holy Mass in person each Sunday. (Archbishop Rozanski has made a video inviting us all back to Mass in the following link: <https://youtu.be/dCYuyopNEVM>)

To accommodate the needs and concerns of all our parishioners Assumption is updating our safety protocols and other liturgical directives as follows:

- Those fully vaccinated are no longer required to wear masks in the church.
- Those not fully vaccinated are asked to please wear masks except for when they are receiving the Eucharist.
- Part of the church has every other pew blocked for those who desire to continue the full 6 ft. social distancing.
- Baptismal Font and Holy Water dishes have been filled
- Prayers, scripture readings, and music lyrics are still being projected, but Breaking Bread Missals are also available as you enter the church.
- We will begin passing the Offertory baskets again on July 4th
- The Sign of Peace is reinstated, but with no physical contact
- Distribution of the Precious Blood remains suspended until further notice
- Parishioners who are sick, homebound, immunocompromised and gravely concerned for their health retain the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass, which has always been the case in normal times. Though we should take the obligation to attend Mass seriously, no one is ever morally obligated to do something that would jeopardize their health or the health of other people.

Prayer

"For thus says the Lord: When you call Me, and come and pray to Me, I will listen to you. When you look for Me, you will find Me. Yes, when you seek Me with all your heart, I will let you find Me..."

Jeremiah
29:10-13

July 4, 2021 — Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

EZ 2:2-5; PS 123:1-2, 2, 3-4; 2 COR 12:7-10; MK 6:1-6

Our readings today remind us that, even in our weakest and toughest moments, God has a plan.

In our Second Reading, St. Paul describes a "thorn" that had been given to him. He believed this thorn to be the thing that kept him grounded as he said,

"to beat me, to keep me from being too elated."

At first, he asked the Lord to remove this cross, but the Lord replied, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." Through this explanation, St. Paul resolved to believe, "I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong."

We all bear crosses in this life, whether they seem to be little thorns or sharp daggers. The easiest thing to do, as St. Paul did, is to pray for the cross to be taken. It would be great if all of our struggles just magically faded away! But listen to the Lord's words, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness."

Stop and reflect on your cross. Instead of wishing it to go away, look at it as an opportunity to grow and to allow God to work in your life. God permitted this cross in your life for a reason. Do not let the opportunity for Christ to work on your heart pass you by.

Today, recall that God loves us more than we could ever imagine. There is not a moment that goes by that He does not have us in mind. He has a specific plan for our lives. Therefore, may we encounter life's challenges with confidence in Christ.

1st Annual SVDP Backpack Drive!

'Christmas In July'

Christmas in JULY

OUR WONDERFUL ST. VINCENT DEPAUL SOCIETY would like to provide our neighbors in need with backpacks and school supplies to start the 2021-2022 school year!

We need your help!

There will be Christmas Trees set up in the Narthex and Parish Center Lobby (Church basement) THIS WEEKEND and the weekend of July 11th.

During the backpack drive we are asking parishioners to take a tag with 'school' items of need. The tags are broken into categories: Grades K-2, 3-5, 6-8 and 9-12. Tags will have a list of the supplies needed for each specific age group. We ask you to purchase and fill a backpack with the needed supplies and then attach the tag TO THE BACK PACK and then return it to church the weekends of August 1st & August 8th.

- ♦ The idea is similar to that of the Giving Tree at Christmas time but in July with School Supplies!
- ♦ If you have questions, please contact Gina Ostermeyer at (314) 913-9601.
- ♦ WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY TO MAKE THIS A SUCCESS!!
