Hello,

This week we celebrate the feast day of numerous different saints, but one of particular note is on Wednesday August 11th, the feast of St. Clare of Assisi. She is the one who lived down the street from St. Francis. Actually if you visit Assisi you will see at the one end of town, on the hill where Assisi is located, is the Franciscan monastery. Towards the other end of town is the convent of the Poor Clares. She lived from 1195-1253, which compares to Francis living from 1181-1226, and she first heard Francis preaching when she was 18. Now the fact that she was 18 and not married yet shows that even before hearing Francis she was likely considering a religious life, as it would have been common for her family to have her married around the age of 14. She is described as having been heavily pressured by her parents and family to marry a certain man in the year following when she first heard Francis. However, her mind was made up and about a year after first hearing Francis, she would go to him and ask to be accepted to forsake all her possessions and become a nun.

She would first reside at a Benedictine convent where her family would find her and attempt to take her back home, unsuccessfully. Francis moved her to a different convent and one of her younger sisters, Agnes, would actually go there not to take her back home, but to join her there. Eventually they would be placed in a house on the outskirts of Assisi and a few other women would also join them, Francis appointing Clare as the superior of their group.

Clare desired that they should have very close ties to the friars and strive to follow their way of life, but there would be exceptions. The Franciscans would own nothing, not wanting that security of possessions or of land that would provide them income, but were to rely on daily contributions for their existence. While Clare desired to live in a similar manner, Francis was opposed to accepting money as a donation, but rather it had to be material goods. Clare considered money could be accepted, used for what it was needed, and given to the poor otherwise.

She was the first woman to write a Rule by which her order would eventually live. To start, the pope attempted to modify or soften some of the restrictions in her rule, but she denied these and it was eventually approved. But it should also be noted that while Clare and her community did practice some extreme austerities, she also recognized there were limits, as was evidenced by a letter she wrote to another convent warning a nun against 'excessively strict abstinence'.

Today in St. Louis we have the Monastery of Saint Clare of the Immaculate Conception which is located off of Telegraph Rd. in Oakville. The charism of the Poor Clares is stated as follows: "To observe the poverty and humility of our Lord Jesus Christ and His Most Holy Mother, living the Gospel life as followers of St. Clare and St. Francis, in contemplative community of charity and unity within the enclosure." It was considered a radical lifestyle at the time, as it still is today, and we are grateful for this incredible example of faith, and a service of prayer.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

It Is Hard To Imagine That There Could Be Any Life At The Other End Of Our Grief

The Grief Support Group of Assumption Parish cordially invites those of you, 18 years of age and older, who are grieving the death of a loved one, to our Spring Grief Support Series. Our first session will begin on Thursday, SEPTEMBER 9th, 2021 in the Meyer Room at 7pm.

Father Joe Kempf's video series, "No One Cries the Wrong Way," will be incorporated into each session along with prayer, personal sharing, and biblical reflection.

To register or for more information please contact: Lynn Crews @ 636-294-0821 or lynn.assumption@gmail.com. Please register by Tuesday, September 7th!

We are so blessed to be supported by such a generous parish!

One of Assumption's caseworkers has built a "Mini Pantry" at a complex where we house some of our homeless neighbors in need. Because they have limited storage and resources, we try to provide food that is easily opened (flip tops) or carried, such as canned food/fruit that does not require a can opener to open them. We are in need of the following items that do not require a can opener to open: small peanut butter (10 oz jars can be found at the Dollar Store), small grape jelly, canned pasta, canned pears, canned oranges, canned mixed fruit, applesauce, SPAM, canned sausages (Vienna), canned hams, microwave popcorn, small liquid dish detergent, dryer sheets. (Canned fruits and pastas are used quickly as they have flip tops so we are in constant need of these).

We also need for the home pantry: Saltines or other crackers, beef stew, ketchup, Chicken Helper, Tuna Helper, grape jelly, laundry detergent, dryer sheets, liquid dish detergent, and shampoo (we are heavily stocked on conditioner).

Thank you! We truly appreciate your generous contributions!

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace."
